GIVE THEM A HAND.

Tired of running to fires and working their heads off without apparently accomplishing anything...

The city dads welcomed the idea; told them to go to it. They have yet to receive the city's sanction to the $2.50 pay which they will ask for responding to each fire call.

The monetary consideration is nothing when compared to the large savings in property that a trained firefighting force may effect.

As for the boys, they have shown a fine public spirit. They are willing to sacrifice time and money, for the slight remuneration could not fully repay them, to protect the property of others.

There have been many fires the last few months, and each time the siren's screech has sent chills up the spines of propertyholders.

It will be a relief to know, when the siren calls, that trained men will respond. The whole city will rest easier.

GETTING ON THE AIR.

AS THE last great era of civilization has been known as the Iron Age, so will the next be known as the Air Age.

For communication purposes the air is already rapidly replacing the wires. Wireless telegraphy and wireless telephony are common.

Sunday School Lesson

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR DECEMBER 13 JOHN'S VISION ON PATMOS Revelation 1:4-18

There are three schools of interpretation for the book of Revelation: it has been fulfilled, it will be fulfilled, or it is being fulfilled.

John, the seer, was in exile on the island of Patmos and was granted the series of apocalyptic visions: There are seven series with seven items each.

Christ no longer is depicted as the Man of Nazareth in humble garb, but as the established Lord whom none can gainsay.

equally so, with the ether waves carrying pictures around the world. Great speed has been added to communications through the air.

Every wide-awake town and hamlet in the country is preparing for the day of the air by laying out landing fields.

Heppner has not been among those favored by government recognition, and so far little has been done toward getting on the air.

When highways were being built, many flourishing little cities faded into mere country hamlets because they were passed up.

President Hoover tells congress that taxes must be increased; government expenditures cut.

fidence. More money is not the need. There's plenty of money in the country, if put into circulation.

Did you know that Oeog has a new governor? Willard Marks of Albany became Oregon's governor last Monday and will preside until Governor Meier returns from California.

Umptediddy—The gunman ordered me to get on my knees and pray before he killed me.

Umptediddy—Yes, Reverend, I said the long one you make on Sunday mornings, and he fell asleep.

Guide—Why didn't you shoot at that tiger?

Timid Soul—Er-er, he didn't have the right kind of expression on his face for a rug.

Teacher—Unselfishness is voluntarily doing without things we need. Give a living example.
