

BOARDMAN

By RACHEL JOHNSON.

The high school play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," a comedy in three acts, given in the auditorium Friday evening, was enjoyed by the large audience. Miss Miriam Campbell was very successful in her efforts in coaching the play. All of the actors in the cast acted their parts remarkably well. Willard Baker, as Anthony, Lord Tracken-thorpe, a member of the Entomological society and very much interested in spiders, kept the audience in a continuous uproar. Dale Cox, as Major Archie Phipps, was also very good in his role. Mary Chaffee, the leading lady, as Peggy O'Meara, was always doing things "all of a sudden" and was constantly being reprimanded. George Wicklander played the role of the leading man, Hon. Jimmy Keppel, and amid much mix-up and confusion finally won Peggy. Others in the cast who were also very good were Dorothy Compton as Lady Crackenthorpe who was greatly opposed to Peggy and Mrs. O'Meara; Cecelia Partlow as Mrs. O'Meara; Edward Compton as Jack Menzle; Elsie Wilson as Millicent Keppel; Margaret Smith as Mrs. Caliqu-houn; John Healy, footman, and Marvin Ransier as the servant.

It took ten hours to make the trip from Portland. The roads were very slick and the formation of ice on the windshield necessitated many stops to remove it.

"You needn't tell me
— I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!"

Here's why they're FRESH!

CAMELS are never parched or toasted

THERE is of course a sound reason why the Camel Humidor Pack can deliver to Camel smokers a cigarette that is genuinely fresh.

Camels are made fresh to start with, fresh with natural moisture — blended of the choicest, delicately mild, full-mellow, sun-ripened tobaccos that money can buy.

The full natural goodness of these fine tobaccos is safeguarded at every step in their handling—they are never parched or toasted—the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we can say with every assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

The delights of a genuinely fresh cigarette are so rare and desirable that Camel popularity continues to mount daily to new highs.

Test these delights for yourself—see what true freshness means in cool, slow-burning, delicate mildness—switch to Camels for just one day, then leave them—if you can.
