

Chronology of the Year 1931

Compiled by E. W. Pickard

INTERNATIONAL

Jan. 8—Pope Pius XI issued an encyclical condemning divorce, birth control and many phases of modern life.

Oct. 15—China served ultimatum on Japan, demanding immediate evacuation of Manchuria.

March 29—India Nationalists demanded complete independence from Britain at convention and named Gandhi as envoy to Paris.

Jan. 2—Congress modified drastic tariff and authorized lowering of salaries and authorized lowering of salaries.

Dec. 17—Senator Swanson named a delegate to disarmament conference.

Dec. 18—The House ratified the Hoover moratorium but went on record as opposed to reduction or cancellation of war debts.

Oct. 27—Russian submarine sunk in collision; 60 drowned.

FOREIGN

Jan. 2—Government of Panama overthrown by revolutionists and President Arosemena captured.

Dec. 10—Japan and China accepted with reservations the League of Nations resolution for cessation of hostilities in Manchuria and a commission of inquiry.

Jan. 16—Government of Austria elected President.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Advertisement for First National Bank, Heppner, Oregon. Includes text: 'Greetings of the season. All the gifts and blessings and joys that go with it. Smile... that's it. And keep smiling throughout 1932!' and an illustration of a building.

Jan. 2—Government of Panama overthrown by revolutionists and President Arosemena captured.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

Jan. 15—Senate rejected treaty with Canada for preservation of Niagara Falls.

WIDENING MARKET ROAD. Work of widening the market road up Butter creek from Gaylord Madison's corner to the Morrow county line started this week.

First National Bank HEPPNER, OREGON