Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins were in from their Rhea creek farm home Saturday. Late basketball news led Fred to opine that there was a time when a team from Echo on which he played beat several other teams by large scores, and when they got tired marking up pointers for themselves they tossed a few into the opponents' baskets for good measure.

E. R. Schaeffer, who recently had the misfortune of being thrown from a hay wagon resulting in the fracture of his right knee cap and who has been confined at Heppner hospital for several weeks as a result, made it up town the end of the week. He is able to get about with the use of a cane though his leg is yet quite stiff. He enjoyed getting a breath of air once more.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys has been severely ill at her home since last Thursday. She was suffering with an attack of influenza, and on hearing the fire siren last Thursday morning she rushed to the phone to find out where the fire was and fell in a faint. It was some time before she recovered consciousness and she has been quite ill since.

T. J. O'Brien was in from the Butter creek ranch Tuesday morning. Many people in his part of the county have been suffering from sickness of various kinds, and Mr. O'Brien is anxious to see spring open up, thinking that perhaps the end of the maladies would come.

Miss Audrey Beymer was permitted to spend most of last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beymer on Hinton creek, by the closing of the Davis school, of which she is teacher, because of impassable roads. She returned to her duties Monday.

YOUNG AS YOU FEEL with Will Rogers, Star Theater, Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Wright were in the city Monday from their Rhea creek home after being snow bound for a week. A drag was used by R. A. Thompson to clear the road of drifts to let his sheep through and permitted the Wrights to get through also.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford are among the recent victims of influenza, both being confined at home for several days because of the affliction. They have been showing improvement and should be up and about again in due course.

Charles Cox found it necessary to take the round-about way thru Lexington to reach town Monday from his Heppner Flat farm for the first time in several days. Heavy snow drifts was cause of the detour.

Captain H. Lee Noe and F. A. McMahon, state policemen, were in Heppner yesterday. Captain Noe was with Officer "Spud" Helms at the time he was fatally shot by bandits in La Grande recently.

Miss Juanita Leathers, teacher in the local schools, went to Portland the end of the week for medical treatment. During her absence her sister, Mrs. Lester White, is supplying in the school.

Ed Duran, who was brought to town last week seriously ill, underwent a major operation at Heppner hospital Monday. His condition was reported as critical by his physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson were in the city Sunday from their home at Salem, attending the funeral of the late Harry Johnson, brother of Mr. Johnson.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the HEPPNER HOTEL on Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1932. Hours 9:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m.

Mont Bundy was seen in the city Monday, coming in from his north-lexington farm home for the first time since the recent spell of winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kane, Mrs. Henry Hapgood and Mrs. Gay M. Anderson departed for Portland this morning on business.

Al Troedson from down Morgan way made it through the snows to the county seat Saturday. Plenty of winter out that way, he said.

Frank Winnard arrived from Portland the first of the week. He will be employed with the R. A. Thompson sheep.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Molahan at their home on South Main street last Sunday, an eight-pound daughter.

Luther Hamilton has returned to his home from Heppner hospital following a severe illness of several weeks.

W. L. McCaleb is doing relief duty at Humphreys drug store during the illness of Mrs. Humphreys.

Lawrence Beach, enterprising young merchant of Lexington, was in the city yesterday on business.

Both Mrs. John Hiatt and her mother are ill at the Hiatt home, suffering from influenza.

Lotus Robison was doing business in the city Tuesday from his Hardman farm home.

Harry Duvall of Lexington was in the city a short time yesterday on business.

Bert Bowker, Alpine wheatraiser, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Lakeview—Sixty head of beef cattle owned by John O'Neill of East Side, Lake county, are doing very well on approximately 2 3-4 pounds of cottonseed cake and all the Pahute weed they can eat daily reports County Agent V. W. Johnson, who checked up recently on the present condition of cattle wintering there. The Pahute weed has been practically a life saver for cattle and sheep of that county this winter. Most of the sheep have been moved to the high desert.
