Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson have received word from their son Charles and wife that they have gone to Nyack, New York, from Wilmore, Ky., where they were attending a theological seminary preparatory to taking up missionary work. They will study further in the New York city, and on completion of their course expect to be sent to Tibet. On the way north they encountered snow and blizzards, and had the misfortune of their car catching fire. But they made it through in spite of the difficulties.

Charles McElligott, south Ione wheatraiser, was in the city Wednesday evening. He reported several inches of snow remaining in his district.

C. G. Norris, government engineer in charge of the Heppner-Spray road, was a visitor in Heppner over the week end. He reported one large shovel in operation on the road at present.

Dean T. Goodman is back on the job at Heppner garage after suffering a siege of the flu which kept him at home a couple of days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford, both of whom have been suffering from influenza, are convalescing, making good recovery at present.

Mrs. M. D. Clark returned home Monday after a visit of several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Riggs, at Eugene.

Mrs. Agnes Curran departed Monday for Portland to do her spring buying for her ladies millinery and ready-to-wear shop.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys is reported to be making good recovery from her recent severe illness.

Paul L. Marble made a hurried business trip to Arlington Wednesday.

Vernon Waid of Stanfield spent a couple of days here last week visiting with his sister, Mrs. Harry Duvall.

Don't forget the date, Friday night, Feb. 19, at the high school auditorium: "Grandpa Breezes in," presented by the alumni class for the benefit of the present senior class. Lots of laughs are assured you, so be sure to come.

Guests over the week end at the J. F. Lucas home were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cox of Heppner.

Mrs. Charles Inderbitzen is in Portland this week visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howell entertained Miss Clara Holey and George Gillis at dinner Sunday.

Monday and Tuesday a caterpillar tractor school was held at Walla Walla. Those attending from here were James Leach, Paul Nichols, Max Mueller and Wayne McMillan.

The damage at the barber shop caused by the recent fire is being repaired. Clark Davis did the carpenter work and Thornburg brothers are doing the kalsomining.

Mrs. Lillian Turner treated her eighth grade class to a theater party last Thursday night at the Star theater in Heppner. The play was about Abraham Lincoln. The pupils enjoyed it very much and are thankful to Mrs. Turner for her kindness.

In observance of the birthday of George Washington, the high school and grade pupils will give a miscellaneous program on Friday afternoon, Feb. 19, at 2 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come.

Quite a number of pupils are absent from school this week with colds.

Last Saturday night the high school basketball team and the Athletics played ball at Arlington. The scores were Arlington high school 34, Lexington high school 33, Arlington town team 39, Lexington Athletics 38. Saturday night, Feb. 20, Heppner high school will be here for a game. The junior class will sell candy during the game in an effort to replenish their treasury.

Thursday night of last week the National Guard team of Pendleton played the Athletics here. The result was 63 to 38 in favor of the Athletics. They will play another game here Feb. 27.

Gwen Evans spent last week at home, having closed her school at Balm Fork on account of sickness and bad weather conditions. She resumed her duties Monday.

After being ill for several weeks, Mrs. Trannie Parker is improving and able to be up most of the time.

Lexington will have a moving picture show. Beginning Wednesday night, Feb. 17, Frank's World of Novelties and Pictorial Art Review will be here every night for one week with the exception of Friday night, that being the date of the play at the high school.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Cox, Jr., the first of this week were Archie Cox and family of Council, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Clark and small daughters from Boise, Idaho, Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Mrs. Reuben Beer and daughter Vera from Silverton, and Mrs. F. D. Cox of Heppner.

Myles Martin is at the bedside of his father, who is very ill in a Portland hospital.

Bills are out for a masquerade dance to be given here by the H. E. club Saturday night, Feb. 27. Prizes will be given for the best costumes. Music by Slim's Full House, and admission will be 50c for men and 25c for ladies.

Grange met last Saturday night, beginning with a pot-luck supper at 6:30. Bert Johnson of Ione gave an interesting talk on the tax problem and seven candidates were initiated into the first and second degrees.

H. E. club held an all day meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ed Kelly. After a lovely noon meal the ladies finished a quilt and did other sewing. Those present were Mesdames Joe Devine, A. H. Nelson, John Miller, Orville Cutforth, Chas. Inderbitzen, Ralph Jackson, Harry Dinges, George White, Archie Nichols, George Peck, H. V. Smouse, Ruth Dinges and Gwen Evans.

Mrs. Carl Miller is confined to her bed with influenza.

Mrs. George Allyn is preparing the hot lunches at school in the absence of Mrs. Sarah White who is ill with influenza.

ALPINE

By MARGARET HOWARD

Mrs. Rose Sanborne visited at the Frank Kilkenny home Tuesday evening.

E. H. Ebsen called at the Walter Wigglesworth home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klinger were in Lexington and Heppner on Tuesday.

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, and Mrs. Lucy Rodgers visited the school Wednesday. Miss Cowgill talked to all those who were interested in any phase of club work.

A cooking club I was organized and one of the smaller rooms has been converted into a kitchen and club room, the color scheme being yellow and green. Mr. Smith sent out a stove and "Ingenuity" provided the rest. Much interest is being shown. Miss Rosella Doherty is the leader. Shortly before the close of school we expect to organize a number of clubs and meet regularly during the summer. The first demonstration is to be given by Reitha Howard and Rhuey Ann Senter in the cooking I club demonstration on how to make an egg omelet.

Bill Kilkenny of the Hinton creek ranch was here Thursday.

E. H. Ebsen spent Tuesday in Echo on business.

Mrs. Julian Rauch and children, Edna, May, Fay and Henry, Earle Bundy and Henry Blahm were at the R. Klinger home Sunday.

Edward Rice was at the B. P. Doherty ranch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morehead and family were visitors at the Dan Lindsay home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Meville visited at Mr. and Mrs. George Conrad's of Butter creek Thursday.

Joe Kilkenny and Hugh Sheridan of Hinton creek were at Frank Kilkenny's here Monday.

Miss Naomi Moore and Russell were at the B. Michel home Sunday.

E. H. Ebsen was at the Schmidt ranch Monday, helping with the winter butchering.

Mrs. Frank Kilkenny went to Heppner Tuesday with John Curran to do some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay and Annie Ree attended the funeral of little Ruth Bowman at Echo on Wednesday. Ruth attended school Friday and died Sunday. We remember her as the one who won in the county declamation contest last year.

Frank Kilkenny is again up and around after nearly two weeks of sickness. He has continued his work on Butter creek.

There was a short Valentine party after school Friday at the Alpine school. The high school pupils went into the grade room. There Alex and Gene acted as postmasters and with several willing assistants the valentines were distributed.

Gene Senter, who has been in 4-H club work for a number of years, has started work in a poultry project. Since Alpine has no poultry club, and since he has to be affiliated with an active club, he has joined that of Eight Mile which has been conspicuously successful during the past year.

Willard Hawley spent Monday at the Irl Clary home.

Mrs. William Smithurst has improved rapidly since her accident.

She spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Moore.

A good time was had by all who attended the dance at the E. H. Ebsen home Friday evening. There were a number from Heppner and Butter creek, besides those of Alpine, present.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church will hold a cooked food sale at Thomson Bros. store, Saturday, Feb. 27. 49-50
