Mrs. Edward Keller, president, presided at the missionary meeting held last Thursday afternoon at the Congregational church. The study hour was devoted to missionary work in Porto Rico. When the American troops marched into Porto Rico in 1898 along the road now named "July 25 Avenue" in honor of that event, and took the beautiful island from Spain, we were confronted by the problems of appalling illiteracy, dire economic necessities, non-moral conduct and spiritual barrenness. True to its traditions, the American Missionary association began at once to assist in founding a public school system. To meet the need for better educated home-makers and teachers, Blanche Kellogg Institute, in the residential section of San Juan, was founded. One of the papers read at the meeting dealt extensively with the work of this school. Another interesting part of the program was a series of stories on life and history of Porto Rico. The Bondage of Fear. "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear." Romans 8-15.

There is no bondage more galling than the bondage of fear. Fear is the hardest and most cruel of all taskmasters. It imposes upon its victims a merciless servitude. It drives them to hopelessness and despair.

A noted physician and health writer says this: "Nothing can be more damaging to effort and to happiness than fear. It is paralyzing to vigor; it is undermining to health. Fear is death-dealing."

Fear is caused by two things: sin and lack of trust and confidence. Get rid of sin and doubt and you will get rid of fear.

"The wicked flee when no man pursueth." And, "If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles. For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear." These messages out of God's Word are for us all, and we should read them and profit by them.

Doubt is ever a breeder of fear and of dark and fearful forebodings. "O, thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? Cease from doubting; cultivate confidence; believe in yourself; believe in your fellowmen; above all have faith in, believe in, God! Faith paints a rainbow in every cloud and storm. Faith crowns the brow of the darkest night with jeweled stars. Faith dispels fear and drives away all its dreadful spectres.

Faith and right living point the way of deliverance from fear. If we will seek God's forgiveness for our past sins and live aright, NO MORE will we be hounded and driven by that most awful of all fears, the fear born of sin. Trust in God and have faith in Him, to the living of real Christian lives, and no more will we be in bondage to that paralyzing and joy-destroying fear that doubt inspires. Doing these things we shall be free from the bondage of fear.

If you have not now a Church home we invite you most cordially to come and worship with us. We feel sure you will enjoy the warm, friendly spirit of our Church and Bible School. For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: For the morning worship, "Christian Purpose." For the evening worship, "Like Him." Come, you are invited.

METHODIST CHURCH. GLEN P. WHITE, Pastor. 9:45 a. m., Sunday School. 11:00 a. m., Morning worship hour. Message, "The Great Adventure."

6:30 p. m., Epworth League. 7:30 p. m., Song service and gospel message, "The Disciples' Vision."

Who will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is steadfast on this, because he trusteth in Thee. Is. 26:3.

The rest which Jesus gives is the rest of faith. This rest is based on a perfect reconciliation to God. It is Christ's own rest. It is found in Him; it is not in our weak selves. It is realized in the measure that we give ourselves up to Him. Our good Shepherd leads us into green pastures. There we find sweet rest. The Master enables us to carry our burdens without complaint or fretting. He gives us spiritual refreshment in the midst of our most strenuous labors. It is blessed rest that Jesus gives. Alas, that so many weary souls "have forgotten their resting place." For whom is this rest provided? Toilers are invited to come. All the hardened, down-trodden, despairing souls are invited to come. The troubled, anxious, defeated Christian is invited to come. This is a personal invitation from a personal Savior, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." We will be glad of your presence at our services next Sunday.
