

BOARDMAN

RACHEL JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Waite visited in Portland last week.

Mrs. Ed Saunders spent Monday in Arlington.

S. H. Boardman of Salem was in Boardman Saturday visiting old friends.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Miller of Umatilla were dinner guests at the J. R. Johnson home Sunday.

Alvin McCarty was a visitor at the Nate Macomber home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McMahon and son of Arlington visited Sunday evening at the Guy Barlow home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat and son motored to The Dalles Saturday where Larry Jean was vaccinated against smallpox.

Lee Mead of Union Junction spent several days in Boardman last week. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Mead and family went to The Dalles, returning home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Skoubo are the proud parents of a baby boy born Saturday, March 12.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Warner, Mrs. Charles Goodwin and Mr. Duggan were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

An error was made in last week's paper in regard to those making a business trip to Heppner. Those going to Heppner were Royal Rands and Leslie Packard. J. F. Gorham did not accompany them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley, who have been staying with Jenkins' for some time, have moved to town and are living in the J. F. Barlow house.

Aaga Jensen left last week for Portland where he will be employed in a dairy. Mr. Russell is working at the Hadley ranch in Mr. Jensen's place.

A 10 1/2-lb. baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blayden March 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatch and daughter have moved into the Dingman house in town. They had been staying at the Packard home during the winter.

Miss Mabel Brown of Lyle, Wn., spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and family were dinner guests at the Bryce Dillabough home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson of Bend were overnight guests at the Channing home this week.

Mrs. Nick Falter and Mrs. George Spring of Portland came Tuesday for a short visit with friends and returned home Thursday. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ransier while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berger and son Bobby left last week for Madras where they will make their home. They have been living on the Clarence Berger ranch for the past year. Their friends here regret their leaving and wish them success in their new home.

The Home Economics club entertained at a card party for Mrs. Falter and Mrs. Spring at the Channing home Wednesday evening. Nine tables of 500 were in play. Honors were accorded Mrs. Ray Brown, Ralph Wasmr, Margaret Smith and George Wicklander, Jr.

Mrs. A. Hiatt, Mrs. M. McLaughlin and Mervel Lambirth of Echo spent Thursday at the Rands home. Claude Ballenger spent the week end in The Dalles.

Mrs. Falter and Mrs. Spring were dinner guests Wednesday evening at the Channing home.

The Home Economics club met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Tom Delano. A number of visitors were present besides the members.

Robert Smith, who has been in the Pendleton hospital for several weeks with a broken leg, was able to come home Friday when E. W. Peck went after him. Robert will have his leg in the cast for many weeks yet, and he will have to be in bed for at least three weeks yet.

Plan to go see the P. T. A. 3-act comedy play, "Yimmie Yonson's Yob," which will be given Friday evening, March 25 in the auditorium. Admission will be 20c and 35c and a free dance will follow the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier gave a card party at their home Tuesday evening. Guests were Mrs. Falter, Mrs. Spring, Mrs. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Dillabough, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Channing, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Root, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham, Ralph Wasmr, Claude Ballenger and Marvin Ransier. High scores were won by Mrs. Coats and Mr. Macomber, low by Mrs. Root and Mr. King. A dainty lunch was served late in the evening.

The Athletic club team lost the game to the Arlington town team, played in Arlington last Tuesday evening, the score being 28-34. This was the second game played in the championship series. There is one more to be played which will be this week.

Jay Cox spent the week end in Boardman with his family.

ALPINE

MARGARET HOWARD

The names of our contestants in the declamatory contest are: lower grades, humorous, Bernard Doherty, "Monkey Business"; non-humorous, Bruce Lindsay, "On His Honor"; upper division, non-humorous, Reitha Howard, "The Highwayman"; humorous, "The Wee Toy Table," Peggy Kilkenny. Those in the high school are, oratorical, Gene Senter, "Unknown Speaker"; dramatic, Alex Lindsay, "It's a Far, Far Better Thing"; humorous, Margaret Howard, "Liza Turns the Tide."

The grade contestants will speak at Fine City on Friday evening and the high school at Irigon on Saturday.

Mrs. Kerns and E. H. Ehsen were in Echo on Saturday. Mrs. Kerns will remain in Echo about two weeks.

The sheep were moved Saturday from Butter creek over to the F. Kilkenny ranch.

Miss Rosella Doherty was in Hermiston Sunday visiting at the home of Mrs. Ed McDaid.

Joe Kilkenny, though still in the hospital, is said to be improving.

Mrs. Bert Senter of Portland arrived Friday for an indefinite stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Peddicord.

Mrs. Frank Kilkenny and Mrs. Frank Kilkenny, Jr., visited at the school Friday, as also did John Doherty.

Irl Clary was at the B. Michel home Sunday afternoon.

Ted McDaid of Heppner was out at the F. Kilkenny ranch Sunday night.

Floyd Conrad spent the week end with his parents on Butter creek.

Alex Lindsay was in Pendleton Saturday having some dental work done.

Miss Camilla Kilkenny visited at the home of Mrs. P. Curran Friday evening.

Miss Rosella Doherty spent part of Sunday on Butter creek with Mrs. Rose Sanborn.

Mrs. Margaret Peddicord and Mrs. Bert Senter and family motored to Stanfield Sunday to spend the day with Willard Hawley.

E. H. Senter was at George Conrad's Sunday having some repair work done on his trailer.

Peggy and Camilla, Kilkenny were in Heppner Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Schmidt and Alfred were at the B. P. Doherty home Saturday.

The cooking club, after making a successful cocoa demonstration Friday, enlarged the recipe and served cocoa to all.

Mrs. Bert Senter spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Bert Michel.

LEXINGTON

MRS. HARRY DUVALL

Lexington Grange met last Saturday evening and conferred the third and fourth degrees upon a class of eight. The work was put on by the new degree team which has just been organized. Harvey Miller, chairman of the agricultural committee, gave a short talk on rodent control. He also outlined the program for work which is to be carried on by this committee during the year.

Mr. Richards, master of the Stanfield Grange, was present and spoke on federal taxation. A past master's pin was presented to S. J. Devine in appreciation of his faithful services while he was master.

The business meeting was preceded by the following lecturer's program: Piano solo, Jeanette Blakely; reading, Eileen Kelly; duet, Mae Gentry and Ruth Dinges; accompanied by Clara Holey at the piano; short talks on different birds were given by several grange members. Numbers were sold on the "tulip" quilt made by the H. E. club of the grange. Mrs. Beulah Nichols held the lucky number at the drawing and won the quilt.

The Three Links club of the Rebekah lodge will give a dance and card party Saturday night, March 26. Remember the date.

Guests at the W. B. Tucker home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCarty of Heppner, Irene Tucker of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Nichols and son Billy of Lexington, and Elsie Tucker of Lena, John Harbke and L. H. Estes of Portland were visitors in town Sunday.

Myles Martin left Saturday for Moro. He went in response to a message stating that his father, L. H. Martin, was worse. Mr. Martin had spent several weeks with his father and had but recently returned home, leaving him much better.

Saturday night, March 19, Heppner, Ione and Lexington will hold their high school declamatory contest here, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be an admission charge of 15 cents. Those from here taking part are Rose Thornburg, humorous; Florence Moyer, dramatic; and Edith Tucker, oratorical.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howell made a business trip to Endicott, Wash., Saturday.

Quite a number from here attended the tournament at Heppner Friday. Our boys played Helix in the afternoon and were defeated in a hard fought game by a score of 19-24.

Miss Helen Falconer, former Lexington teacher, now of Helix, was calling on her many friends here Saturday. She was accompanied by Miss Glyde Dilly, also a Helix teacher. During their stay here they were guests at the Earl Warner home.

The Home Economics club met last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Merle Miller. The time was spent in making paper flowers for use in the tableaux work of the grange. Present were Mesdames A. H. Nelson, H. V. Smouse, Joe Devine, John Miller, Harvey Miller, Harry Schriever, George White, Orville Cutsforth, Archie Nichols and Helen Smouse. Mrs. Miller served a delicious lunch to her guests.

Betty Doherty had the misfortune to fall Saturday and fracture her left elbow. She was taken to Heppner and attended by a doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles attended a party last Friday evening in Heppner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner. The party was given in honor of Mr. Turner's sister, Mrs. Walter La Dusire, who is visiting them from La Grande.

Grandma McMillan and her daughter, Mrs. Lou Broadley, returned Monday from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan brought them home. Grandma took a radium treatment Saturday for her cancer, from Dr. Otis B. Wright. She will go down again in about six weeks for another treatment.

After several weeks of illness with erysipelas, Alec Hunt is able to be out again. Since he started to recover he has had his face and neck lanced four times.

Garland Thompson is nursing a very sore thumb. He cut the end of it off last Friday morning when he was cutting kindling wood.

Mrs. J. F. Lucas attended the Auxiliary luncheon given at Pendleton Tuesday.

Dr. Greene, veterinarian for the state, was in town the first part of the week.

The Odd Fellows will give a dance here Saturday night, March 19. Music will be furnished by the Cecil orchestra.

Joe Eskelson and Ernest Fredrickson arrived Tuesday from Salem. They will spend several days here attending to business and visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Irving Padberg underwent an operation Tuesday for the removal of tonsils.

HARDMAN

MRS. ELLA FARRENS

The Dramatic club made its first public appearance Saturday, March 12, with the presentation of a three-act comedy, "Let's Have Some Excitement." There was a large crowd in attendance. The proceeds amounted to $31.25. The members, officers and director of this organization are to be congratulated upon their efforts which made the play a success. The dance which followed the play was well attended.

For the second time this school term first prize on essays has come to the high school. Miss Billie Leathers received first prize on an essay entitled "Washington's Balance of Character." Her essay was sent to Salem last week to enter the state contest.

Guests of Miss Montgomery Monday were her sister, Mrs. Paul Menegat of Heppner and her mother, Mrs. Nell Montgomery of Portland.

Mrs. Ed Merrill was called to Heppner Monday to be with her mother, who is seriously ill. She was a passenger on the Hardman-Heppner stage at the time of its collision with an automobile belonging to John Meir, but she was not seriously injured.

Bill Johnson became suddenly ill late Friday evening and was unable to be in the play. Ralph Moore took his part. He is reported to be on the road to recovery.

Miss Beth Bleakman was visiting friends and relatives here Saturday, coming out from Heppner to attend the play and dance.

Mrs. Fred Ashbaugh was an all day visitor of Mrs. Walter Farrens Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Knighten made a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baty in Eight Mile Monday.

Miss Elma McDaniel is spending the week visiting Miss Muri Farrens.

Ralph and Guy Moore were visiting their sister, Mrs. Neil Knighten Saturday.

Richard Robison had the misfortune to injure his hand quite seriously Friday afternoon at school when he caught his hand in one of the doors as it slammed shut.

Miss Mildred Farrens has gone to cook at the Anson Wright place near here.

The forest club, which was recently organized here by the county agent, C. W. Smith, held its first meeting Monday. Each member made his selection of ten trees which are to be planted on the school grounds April 1st. The occasion is to be an all day celebration open to the public. A bountiful feast will be served during the day. The county agent will be present to deliver the dedication address in honor of the 200th birthday anniversary of George Washington. Mrs. Bertha McDaniel is the local leader.

GOOD PAY—STEADY WORK.

Several choice openings in cities and towns for ambitious men and women. Experience unnecessary. We finance you if required. Write today. Mr. Thomas, Superintendent, 426 Third St., Oakland, Calif.

For Sale—6-room house with nearly acre of ground, handy cellar and garage; also business lot and used lumber. Box 65, Heppner.

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER

Published in the interests of the people of Heppner and vicinity by THE TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO., Phone 912

Volume 1932 Heppner, Oregon March 17, 1932. No. 11

EDITORIAL

With the entrance of SPRING just around the corner and all the women soon blossoming out in their new spring frocks, why not give your house a treat? Re-roof it, remodel it, paint it inside and out, or build that additional room which you have been putting off so long.

We can give you some expert advice on your building needs. There are plenty of men who want jobs now.

DR. EARL ESKELSON, B. A., P. S.; B. A. stands for Building Architect.

Mrs. C. C. Patterson has this week completed putting in a basement at her home. No more frozen pipes next winter.

"Did you tell father over the phone that we are engaged?"

"Yes."

"What did he reply?"

"I'm not sure whether he replied or whether the line was struck by lightning."

POEME. Mary had a little lamb. Given by a friend to keep. It followed her around until It died from want of sleep.

"It's TRUTH, Sir--"

The Wise Counsellor declares that the man who "sits tight" waiting for the depression to leave will more likely than not find himself holding nothing but the sack when that time comes—for he is doing the very thing to prolong the condition he desires to avert. No waving of wagic wand is going to bring better times... They will be had only through redoubled effort by thte majority of the people. Economy is necessary. But an economy program which includes curtailing of the greatest force in merchandising—ADVERTISING—is certain to defeat the purpose of such a program.

Advertising is more necessary now than ever before, because people must be convinced of the value of things before they buy—

And again the greatest advertising opportunity in years is present—as probably never before were merchants able to offer such attractive bargains... Today the purchaser's dollar is worth $1.79 in the value of the merchandise it will buy, affording

A GREAT INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

The First of the Month

Usual bills on hand . . . necessitating the laying out of a lot of cash, including small change. Oft, a hurried trip to the bank is necessary. How inconveniencing. Far easier to py those bill by writing:

CHECKS!

Safer, too. For each Check is a record and receipt for a paid bill. We invite your Account.

ENLIST IN THE WAR AGAINST DEPRESSION

OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH THE

First National Bank HEPPNER, OREGON