Official Paper for Morrow County.

THIS LAWLESS COUNTRY.

Autocaster Service. It is not to be wondered at that the press of Europe points to the Lindbergh kidnaping as proof that the United States is the most lawless nation in the world.

It is a disgrace to the United States that Col. Lindbergh should have felt it necessary to call not on the constituted police authorities but upon acknowledged "underworld" characters to lead the search for his baby.

A GREAT AMERICAN PASSES.

Autocaster Service. THE death of George Eastman by his own hand came as a shocking surprise to everyone in the United States.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for March 27 JESUS RISES FROM THE DEAD John 20:11-20

Seal of authenticity was placed upon the teachings of Jesus Christ by the glorious miracle of the resurrection of the body of our Lord, which wondrous event we are celebrating on this Easter.

Then began a series of appearances. One especially is described—that to Mary Magdalene, who tarried behind the group of women in her eagerness to search until she found the body of her Lord.

that he brought a new art, amateur photography, into being. Before he began making dry plates photography was a difficult and cumbersome task.

It was a shocking end to a useful life that he should have killed himself; yet it is easier to understand than some other suicides have been.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

MARY A. NOTSON, Reporter. Spurgeon M. Wingo, a young thinker of Alexandria, La., writes as follows: "I noticed that a New Yorker, James W. Robertson, who stated in Vox Pop that he represented the voice of young America, wrote as follows:

"When we, the future rulers of this land, come into power, prohibition, among other evils, goes overboard. The W. C. T. U. and stagnant religion may have fooled our parents, but we shall be on the alert."

"The gentleman from New York is mistaken on two counts. In the first place, the views he expresses are not those of the generation which is just coming to voting age."

"In regard to the prohibition situation, may I say, sir, that we of the South are not likely to be soon swept off our feet by wet support of state's rights. My grandfather was a major in the armies of the Confederacy and fought four years to support that doctrine. Today, when we hear the North and East clamoring for states' rights, it sounds like purest hypocrisy to us, for we well remember their position on this principle in 1861 and 1865."

The proposed amendment to repeal the 18th amendment, which congress refused to take from the judiciary committee, reads:

"The Congress shall have power to regulate or prohibit the manufacture, sale and transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, and the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes."

"Provided, however, that such powers shall not be construed or applied to abridge or deny the right of any State to authorize and regulate the manufacture, sale, transportation, or use of such intoxicating liquors, wholly within the borders of such State; that such power of regulation, or any power of the Congress to regulate interstate and foreign commerce, shall not be construed to empower the Congress to authorize the shipment, transportation or importation into any State of intoxicating liquors for beverage or other purposes whenever the manufacture, sale, transportation or use of such liquors has been prohibited by the laws of such State; and any such shipment of importation of intoxicating liquors into such State, in violation of its laws, is prohibited, and any such shipment or importation shall be subject to the laws of the State upon its arrival therein."

Where are the loudmouthed wags who have been proclaiming that the old saloon is gone, that it must never be allowed to return, that it was a menace to society, that when any amendment should take the place of the 18th amendment provision would be made therein to forever prevent the return of the saloon? Is there one word in the above proposed amendment to prevent any state from going back to the old license system? Not one word. Oh, ye hypocrites! You may fool some people, but not all.

Movement of Butter Into Storage Slow

Uncertainty in regard to a safe price to pay for butter to go into storage is having a depressing effect on the butter market as the storage season approaches.

Storage operators are keeping their stocks at a minimum and heavy seasonal production is resulting in accumulations. Movement of butter into consumptive channels has been satisfactory.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that certain household furniture, belonging to Mrs. Zena Westfall, and consisting of one bed, one chest of drawers, will be sold at auction, for storage and other charges, at the Case Furniture Co., store in Heppner, Oregon, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon on the 15th day of April, 1932, by the Case Furniture Co. Dated and first published March 24, 1932.

In the Shadow of the Terror By Albert T. Reid

The FAMILY DOCTOR by JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D. HEADACHES.

I sometimes think headaches are a bane of civilization. It is so distracting to have a patient drop in, apparently in perfect health, and say, "Doctor, I have a splitting headache; have had it three or four days; it just won't quit."

I become assured that a headache that resists all ordinary treatment is far from being a simple matter. Of course dabbling with such tabulars as are exposed on show cases, often prescribed by advertisers and druggists, is a dangerous procedure.

Well, to play safe, keep the digestive tract cleared, using always a simple, yet thorough-going laxative, one that does not gripe, or make the patient despise you every time he thinks of the dose.

San Jose scale is an insect pest that not only works on the twigs and limbs to the detriment of the tree, but also gets on the fruit, leaving a distinct and easily recognizable mark even after the scale insect itself is removed.

SPRAY PRACTICES BRINGS REWARD

High Position of Coast Apples Attributed to Good Care; Scale Control Methods Given.

In completely exempting boxed Pacific coast apples from the fruit embargo against San Jose scale France has paid a high compliment to the care that Oregon orchardists and those of neighboring states have given their apples in the past.

Recommended strength of lime-sulfur is 12 gallons of the stock liquid solution, 32 degrees Baume, to 100 gallons of water. One good application, thoroughly applied to every twig, serves as a general winter cleanup spray.

If an oil emulsion spray is used a strength of four gallons of miscible oil to 100 gallons of water is recommended. For this late in the season the miscible oil is considered safer than the other spray oil, known as the quick breaking type, says Dr. Mote.
