

IONE

JENNIE E. MCMURRAY.

French Burroughs was given a happy surprise Saturday evening by about thirty of his neighbors and friends. On arrival the guests found Mr. Burroughs sound asleep, little dreaming that his friends knew it was the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth, and that he was to be awakened from his slumbers to dance with the rest of the jolly crowd until the wee small hours of the morning. Delicious refreshments were served. The music was by Howell, Kincaid and Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender of Salem visited from Friday until Sunday at the home of Mrs. Stender's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crabtree. When they returned to their home Mrs. Crabtree went with them that she might visit her mother, Mrs. Lindsey, who is ill.

From Ruth Crawford, news reporter of the "Stitch in Time" club, we get the following item: Dorothy Howell was entered as a new member to the first year 4-H sewing club of the Ione grade school last week, making the club a class of ten members. The meetings are held each Monday afternoon in the Ione school building with Veda Eubanks as leader.

The members of Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge are giving a benefit card party Thursday evening in their hall on Main street.

Richard Peterson was a guest Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Peterson. Mr. Peterson made the trip out from his mountain home by truck. He reports the snow still two feet deep in the mountains.

Fred Nicholson and Mrs. C. W. Swanson returned last Friday from a trip to Centralia and South Bend, Washington. Accompanying them on the return trip was Mrs. Nicholson and small daughter who have been spending some time with relatives in Washington, Carlton Swanson who has been attending school in Seattle, and Mrs. Millie Newton of South Bend who is here for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Bert Mason, Grand Ruth of the state of Oregon, O. E. S., and Mrs. Carl Feldman, conductress of Locust chapter, Ione, motored to Grass Valley Wednesday evening of last week to be present at a meeting of the Grass Valley chapter when Mrs. Monnie Houser, Grand Conductress, paid her official visit. While in Grass Valley the ladies were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Witt.

Hate. "He that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes." 1st John 2:11.

Richard Haggard, in his autobiography, says: "I have met many men, and have seen many lands; I have seen many strange things; I have known many emotions—all of them. I think, except that of HATE!"

Hate leads to acts of violence, and often to murder. The apostle John says: "Whoever hateth his brother is a murderer." The act of murder is an act of hate, and the man who hates his brother has the seed of murder already in his heart.

No wonder Paul cries, "Put away hatred." The time to put it away is in its first beginning. It will be too late after it has mastered us and driven us to some desperate deed from which we can never recover.

Do you have a Church home? If not, we invite you to come and worship with us. You will experience a hearty welcome and you will enjoy the atmosphere of this

Bible School and Church. For the coming Lords Day the sermon topics are: For the morning worship, "Life's Crowning Glory." For the evening worship, "A Soldier of the Cross."

Resolutions of Condolence. Whereas, the messenger of death has visited our number and removed from our roster the name of our Companion, James Cameron, who has been called to his eternal home, and

Whereas, Companion Cameron was a true Mason and faithful member of Heppner Chapter No. 26, R. A. M., and we wish to make permanent record of his fidelity; Therefore, be it resolved that we, his fellow craftsmen of Heppner Chapter No. 26, R. A. M., at this time pause in sorrowful submission, to recall his many virtues and to drop a tear because of his departure.

We extend to the sorrowing relatives of our deceased companion in their bereavement our deepest sympathy.

Be it resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, that a copy be entered on the records of the Chapter, and a copy be handed to the Heppner Gazette Times for publication.
