4-H CLUB NEWS

Club Boosters.

The "Come Into the Kitchen" club held their regular meeting. All the girls answered to the roll call by telling a way to use eggs.

Nellie Bleakman demonstrated how to make French omelet, and Neva Bleakman made puffy omelet. Mrs. Knighten appointed Delsie Bleakman and Muri Farrens to make enough puffy omelet for all the girls.

They were all successful. Everybody joined happily in on the song, "The More We Get Together," before the meeting was adjourned.

The "Four-Legged Chicken Club" met at Mr. Knighten's Thursday and discussed the way to build hutch. They expect to have their rabbits in a few days. Each member is going to have his hutch and rabbits on exhibition April 8th if possible.

The Hardman Foresters are looking forward with much enthusiasm to April 8th, the day to plant their trees. Some of the members are going to plant part of their trees at home, the rest will be planted at the school house.

"Wee Six Cooks" Progressing.

The sixth meeting of this club was held on April 1. Rhuey Ann Senter had copies made for a new song called "The More We Get Together," and gave a copy to each member, also copies for a new yell.

"Nigger, nigger, hoe potatoe, half past alligator, ramrod bulleater, chick-a-roma-da, 4-H cooking club, rah! rah! rah!" Peggy Kilkenny the entertainment chairman, introduced a new and interesting game which each member entered into with spirit and pleasure.

Dorothy Doherty has six cooking groups completed. Peggy Kilkenny has six, Doris Klingner, eight, Gene Senter, four, Reitha Howard seven, and Rhuey Ann Senter has all ten of hers completed.

Gene Senter and Reitha Howard gave a demonstration on making and preparing a fruit salad which was both interesting and delicious.

Clubs Practice.

The boys and girls of the sewing and cooking clubs met Monday afternoon. A real meeting was not called. The purpose was for both the clubs to practice on the club songs and yells.

Seven songs were sung, of which a few were learned. They were led by Miss Velma Huston, leader of the cooking club. Two yells were practiced which most of the children learned; they were led by Don Allstott, yell leader.

The 4-H club Creed and Pledge also were practiced. Most of the children knew them. A demonstration was given by Joan Wright and Anice Lueallen on how to make chocolate. The demonstration proved to be very good although the girls didn't have time to practice it over. The chocolate was served later on and tasted very good.

Mrs. Clark Stephens was not present. Almon Lueallen and Doris Allstott were both unable to attend. It was planned at the next meeting which will be held Thursday, April 7, that the boys bring cookies so that the girls can judge them. Also at the next meeting the flower and the colors for the club will be chosen. Some of the children of the cooking club have filled out four of their cards. The sewing club is very proud of the gravel that we received from Mr. Smith about a month ago. We received it for being the winners for unscreaming the 4-H club creed at the fair in Heppner last fall. The Busy Bee sewing club was awarded their last year's Achievement Certificate and their this year's charter by Mrs. Clark Stephens Sunday at the Rhea Creek Grange hall.—A Club Reporter.

Dairy Cattle Club.

We held our 4-H Dairy Cattle club meeting at Gooseberry school house April 2, with Dick Wightman as our new leader. The meeting was called to order by the president, Arthur Bergstrom. First of all we had the flag salute and then sang the song, "Club Work Boys, Club Work Girls." The roll call was read by Joyce Carlson on account of the absence of Leo Young.

We held our first meeting Mar. 19, and elected new officers. They are as follows: Arthur Bergstrom, president; Raymond Lundell, vice-president; Leo Young, secretary. Two of the members at our last meeting were not present. For our next meeting Mr. Wightman is going to show us how to test milk. The report cards were distributed among the members by Mr. Wightman. They were all filled out and handed back to him. Next on the program was the club pledge, and following a song, "Oh Me, Oh My." The final reports were distributed to the members, who are Vernon Christopherson, Leo Young, Donald McElligott, Arthur Bergstrom, Wallace Lundell, Raymond Lundell and Joyce Carlson. The meeting was adjourned until April 30.
