GORDON CITES PLAN

Holding Company to Direct Development Now Being Incorporated; Organizations to Help.

The city park plan that has laid dormant since last fall when a take charge of its administration, gained an added stage of development Monday when the Lions club voted to undertake as projects the planting of trees and repairing of fence. A general work day was declared for next Monday after-noon, the city's Clean-Up Day, when it is expected all members of the club will be on the job in work clothes to assist in starting the work on the ground of the holding company adjacent to the American Legion plunge.

Explanation of the plan, discussion of which took most of the meeting time, was made by Earl Gordon, a member of the board of directors of the holding company. The other members of the board as announced are C. J. D. Bauman, W. E. Moore, Jos. J. Nys, John Hiatt and Chas. W. Smith.

A charming program feature was the presentation of Miss Kather-ine Thompson with her prize-winning declamation in the recent county declamatory contest, entitled "I Wish I Was a Boy,"

JENNIE E. MCMURRAY.

Albert O. Petteys, respected citizen, died at one o'clock Saturday morning, April 9, at the old Pet-teys home on Willow creek. Funeral services were held in the Christian church, Ione, Sunday after Local baseball fans got some ink-ling of the kind of crew Heppner ments; the funeral sermon was by Joel R. Benton, minister of the Church of Christ, Heppner; the singing was by Mrs. Frank Turner and Mrs. E. R. Huston, with Mrs. Jesse Turner at the piano, the three ladies also being from Heppner. The pall bearers were Ray Barnett, Dale Ray, Blain Blackwell, George Ely and Walter Eubanks.

Mr. Petteys came of pioneer stock, being the son of the late Emanuel and Katie Petteys. Death came to him in the same room in which he had been born 49 years, 11 months and 3 days before. He had suffered for many months from a cancerous growth on his neck, but the immediate cause of his death was pneumonia which developed following a severe attack of influenza. For some time Mr. Petteys and his family had been living on a ranch near Courtrock, but a few weeks ago he and his family were moved to the old Petteys place, now the home of his brother. G. A. Petteys, and it was there that passing his wife, Ruth, a small daughter, Olive, three step children and Gilbert Petteys, an eighteenyear-old son by a former marriage. Also surviving are one brother and five sisters; G. A., Mrs. Frank En-gelman, Mrs. C. W. Swanson, Mrs. Fred Nichoson of Ione, Mrs. E. P. Newton of South Bend, Washington, and Mrs. J. K. Cossman of Ventura, California.

The church was filled Sunday afternoon with the many friends who had gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to one they had known and loved. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful. The bereaved wife and family have the sympathy of the entire community. Relatives from away who were here for the funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. Will Ganger, Mr. and Mrs. George Ganger and Mrs. Car-
