

LEXINGTON

MRS. HARRY DUVALL
Mr. and Mrs. James Pointer drove up last week from their home in Oakland, where Mr. Pointer has charge of a church. They are visiting here with Mrs. Pointer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis, Sunday morning they attended services here at the Christian church and in the evening they went to Pendleton to attend services there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sias went to Sheridan this week to move their household goods here. Mr. Sias will be located here for the summer as minister of the Christian church.

N. A. Leach and daughter Vevea of Portland visited a few days last week at the W. F. Barnett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hackett left Tuesday for Long Beach, Cal., in response to a telegram stating the serious illness of Mr. Hackett's mother. The depot will be in charge of Mr. Brandon during Mr. Hackett's absence.

Mrs. Florence Beach has returned from Glendale, Cal., where she spent the winter with her sister. She says she is sure glad to get back home again.

Mrs. Etha Thompson and son Wallace from Heppner visited last week with Mrs. Arthur Hunt.

Gwen Evans and Mae Gentry made a business trip to Hermiston Saturday.

A good crowd attended the benefit card party given last Saturday evening by the P. T. A. The proceeds amounted to $15 and will be added to the hot lunch fund. Prizes for bridge were won by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller and for "500" by Merle Carmichael and Omar Luttrell.

On next Tuesday evening, April 26, the P. T. A. will hold their regular meeting beginning at 7:30. This is the last meeting of the year and everyone is urged to attend. The students of each room will have some of their year's work on exhibit. The physical education classes will give a demonstration in the gymnasium and refreshments will be served.

The honor roll in Mrs. Turner's room for the six weeks tests are as follows: Seventh grade: Paul Brown, 6 one's; Kenneth Peck, 4 one's; and Bernice Martin 3 one's. Eighth grade: Alma Van Winkle and Betty Doherty, 11 one's; Edith Edwards, 10 one's; Iris Omohundro and Zelma Bundy, 6 one's; Doris Burchell and Gladys Reaney, 5 one's; and Alberta Fulgham, 3 one's.

In a recent letter from Erma Duval she states that she has accepted a position as teacher in the primary grades at Rufus for the coming year.

Loren Mikesell drove over Saturday to get Mrs. Mikesell who has been visiting here the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis. They returned to Toppenish Sunday.

Merritt Gray, Buck Ruhl, Sam McMillan and Lewellyn Evans went to the mountains Sunday on a fishing trip. They returned home with several nice fish.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas enjoyed a pot luck dinner at the Lucas home. Other guests during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Menegat, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward and Willis Farnsworth. Four tables of pinocle were played with Mrs. Cox winning high score and Mrs. Ingles, consolation.

Bert Thornburg and Peter Dufault went to Echo to do some painting.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hunt and son Dean have returned from a trip to Portland.

John Miller and family have moved to town. They are occupying a house belonging to Mrs. Sadie Lewis and adjoining Gene Gentry.

Last Thursday a car wreck occurred near the R. E. Wilcox place below town. The occupants of the car were Mrs. W. A. Emert and her son from near Ione. They were on their way to Heppner when the car suddenly went into the ditch. Mr. Wilcox, who was near by, gave first aid and they were taken to Heppner for medical attention. Mrs. Emert was injured, but it was not known just how bad. The car was badly wrecked.

Mrs. La Villa Howell and Delsie Chapel went to The Dalles Saturday.

Mrs. Artie Conder from Heppner was visiting the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salling north of town.

H. E. club met last Thursday with Mrs. R. B. Rice. A short program was given and the afternoon was spent in a social good time. Mrs. Rice served delicious refreshments to the following guests: Mrs. Harvey Miller and children, Miss Merlo Miller, Mrs. H. V. Smouse and daughters, Mrs. A. H. Nelson, Mrs. Myles Martin, Mrs. William Copenhaver, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Harry Schriever and daughter, Mrs. Galey Johnson, Mrs. Frank Salling, Mrs. Artie Conder, Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. Ed Kelly and children, Mrs. Harry Dinges, Mrs. Sarah White and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth and children.

R. B. Rice and Mont Bundy made a trip to Adams the first of the week, going over to see the thorn-bred herd of cattle belonging to Mr. Coppock. Mr. Rice purchased a calf.

Rose Thornburg expects to go to La Grande Saturday night to speak at the Inter-County Declamatory contest. She will represent Morrow county, speaking in the humorous division of the high school.

Mrs. Trannie Parker had quite an experience one day last week when she attempted to stop a runaway horse, and as a result she is laid up with some bruises and very sore muscles. Donald Peck was alone in the buggy when the horse became frightened. Mrs. Parker got hold of the bridle twice, each time being thrown to the ground. She slackened his speed long enough for the boy to climb out over the back of the buggy to safety.

Mrs. Goldie Leathers enjoyed a visit last week with her mother, Mrs. Ashbaugh from Hardman. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Breshnars and daughters Vera and Helen spent the day visiting in Walla Walla last Wednesday.

One night last week someone fired a shot through the postoffice window. It made a small hole in the large plate glass, throwing pieces of the glass for several feet. It was lucky no one was in the store at the time or it might have proved serious. It is not known if it was done deliberately or carelessly.

BOARDMAN

RACHEL JOHNSON
Mrs. Lee Mead and Catherine, Helen and Paul spent the week end in Union with Mr. Mead.

Paul Smith and son Robert went to Pendleton Saturday to see the doctor about Robert's leg which was broken some time ago. The cast will have to remain on his leg for at least another month.

Mrs. Earl Cramer, Miss Shellenberger, Francis Titus and Elmer Denison motored to Warden, Wash., Sunday, where they spent the day with Earl Cramer who is working there.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Mefford and baby of Wapato visited last week at the L. V. Root home.

Mrs. Wes Bottmiller and Mrs. Albin Sundsten spent the week end in Portland.

The Boardman town baseball team motored to Ione Sunday where they were defeated by a score of 5-3. Pitcher for Boardman is Ray Barlow and catcher, Weldon Ayers.

John Steelhammer who has been playing baseball with the Hermiston team is now playing first base for The Dalles town team.

The Home Economics club met with Mrs. Lee Mead last Wednesday afternoon. Eighteen ladies were present. They are piecing quilt tops and selling them. They have already made three.

The Morrow County Public Health association will hold a meeting in Boardman in the auditorium Friday evening, April 22, at 8 p. m. The principal speaker of the evening will be Dr. DeWalt Payne, resident physician of the Eastern Oregon Tuberculosis hospital at The Dalles. Reports will be given by the chairmen of the county health units, and the chairman of the seal sale will give a report.

Statement by Mrs. Rodgers on "Relation of the Health Association to the Schools," discussion of aims, purposes of the association by J. O. Turner. A playlet and music will complete the program. The entertainment and lunch are in charge of the Boardman unit of the association in cooperation with the Boardman P. T. A.

The Christian Endeavor society gave a "Bug" party at the Johnson home Friday evening. Those present were Dorothy Beer, Lois Messenger, Margaret Smith, Mary Chaffee, Mildred Allen, Rhoda Shellenberger and Rachel Johnson.

Wilard Baker, Marvin Ransier, Little Bernard Doherty spent

Ray Barlow, Oscar Ford, George Wicklander.

Norvel Shannon was struck by a car on the highway last Saturday and received a broken leg. Norvel and two other boys were walking along the highway when two cars met and passed each other opposite of where the boys were walking and the bumper of one of the cars struck Norvel and broke his leg below the knee. Guy Barlow took him to Hermiston to the doctor where it was necessary for Norvel to stay over night in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Messenger and son Charles Henry of Portland spent the week end at the E. T. Messenger home, Sunday afternoon E. T. Messenger and Lois and U. H. Messenger and son motored to Pendleton to visit with Truman Messenger.

Victor Porter of Seattle visited several days in Boardman last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Porter.

Robert Brady is working on the section on the Coyote division. Glen Rutherford is working on the section at Rock Creek.

T. E. Eryles and Erma of Colfax, Wash., spent Monday and Tuesday in Boardman at the Weston home.

ALPINE

MARGARET HOWARD.

Mrs. E. H. Ebsen is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis. She has been ill for the past week.

Miss Gertrude Tichenor, Mrs. Bert Michel, Mrs. Marie Clary, Miss Rosella Doherty, also Bernard Doherty and Mildred and Irl Clary motored to the Davis school Saturday where the regular rural teachers meeting was held. Miss Doherty gave a talk on puppet shows and gave "Jack and the Bean Stalk" as a demonstration.

C. Melville and Rudolph Geiger were in Pendleton on business Thursday.

Mrs. Bert Senter returned to her home in Portland Tuesday after a visit here with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Peddicord.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klinger and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch.

Dan Lindsay and Ed Ditty were in Heppner Tuesday on business. Johnnie Kilkenny spent the week end in Heppner.

Kenneth Geiger is not improving so much as had been hoped for last week.

Charles Melville has been having some interior improvements done at his home at West Camp. Bert Michel has been doing the painting and paper hanging.

Pine City is going to put on most of the Farm Bureau program for May 7. The band will play and there will be other numbers. Miss Gertrude Tichenor and Bill Geiger called on Mrs. Irl Clary Thursday evening.

Mr. Lindsay and Alex motored to Lexington Saturday.

Little Bernard Doherty spent

Mutual Acquaintances

Wednesday night at the Frank Kilkenny home.
Mrs. Ashenhurst and her son Luther called at the home of Mrs. Bert Michel Saturday afternoon.

For Rent—402 acres summer grazing land known as South Jones prairie. Mrs. Henry Jones, 399 E. 16th St. N., Portland, Ore. 6tr.

Wanted: To lease summer range for sheep or to take hand for summer. C. O. Dinus, Ritter, Ore. 5-6

Those wishing work done at the cemetery see Emmet Ayers, sexton, phone 1212. 5-8

HARDMAN

MRS. ELLA FARRENS.

Most of the people took advantage of the spring weather last week to plow their gardens and do their outdoor spring cleaning. Up to date few people have ventured to plant their gardens for fear that spring might still be "just around the corner."

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke and family and Mrs. Dick Steers were attending to matters of business in Heppner one day last week.

L. J. Burnside has been hauling hay to his ranch in Rood canyon from here. Mrs. Burnside accompanied him Tuesday, visiting with relatives a short while.

Victor Johnson made a business trip to Kennewick, Wn., last week, returning with a truck load of potatoes which he disposed of at the local store. Mrs. Bernard Bleakman and daughter, Nellie, accompanied him to visit with a relative who has been seriously ill and who passed away at his home in Kennewick Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Knighten moved their furniture to the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Knighten, where Mrs. Neil Knighten will make her home the rest of the school year.

Shoppers in Heppner Thursday were Jim Brannon and Mrs. Hiram Johnson and daughter Lily.

The home of Mrs. J. W. Stevens was the scene of a happy time last Friday when several friends of her daughter Lois met there for a surprise party, the occasion being Lois' eleventh birthday. Games were played until late in the evening. Candy was made by Mrs. Stevens. Those attending were:

Charlotte and Lois Adams, Neva Bleakman, Francis and Mary Ellen Inskip, Charles, Annie, Loye and Lily Johnson, Roland, Dolly and Lucile Farrens and Mildred McDaniel.

John Adams and Jim Stevens were attending to business in Heppner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave and Mrs. Wes Stevens were Heppner visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Veri Farrens are moving to their ranch near Rhea creek this week.

Billy Reynolds was in from his mountain ranch one day last week attending to matters of interest here.

Harry French and son Ernest were visitors here one day last week.

Mrs. Ada Cannon and children were calling on friends here Monday and Tuesday.

For Sale—6-room house with nearly acre of ground, handy cellar and garage; easy terms. Box 65, Heppner.

Rhea Creek Grange.

By MARGARET BECKETT.

A lively dancing party was given by Beth Wright at her home on Rhea creek on Friday, April 15. An enjoyable evening was spent. Besides the regular dancing, quadrilles, circle two-steps, the rye waltz and other dances were enjoyed. Music was furnished by Genia Huston, pianist, and Anson Rugg, drums.

Those present were the Misses Velma Huston, Mildred Farrens, Evangeline Phillips, Alice Bleakman, Alva and Mary McDuffee, Ruth and Eva Adkins, Marvel Akers, Jean Adkins, Margaret Beckett, June and Doris Ailstott, Beth Wright, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Genia Huston, Walter Wright, Fred Buschke, Darrell Farrens, Laur-Beckett, Dale Akers, Louis Le Trace, Laurence Williams, Claude Buschke, Harold Wright, Anson Rugg, Barton Clark, Otis and Don Ailstott, Gordon Akers, Kenneth and Lewis Batty, Ray Wright and Clive Huston.

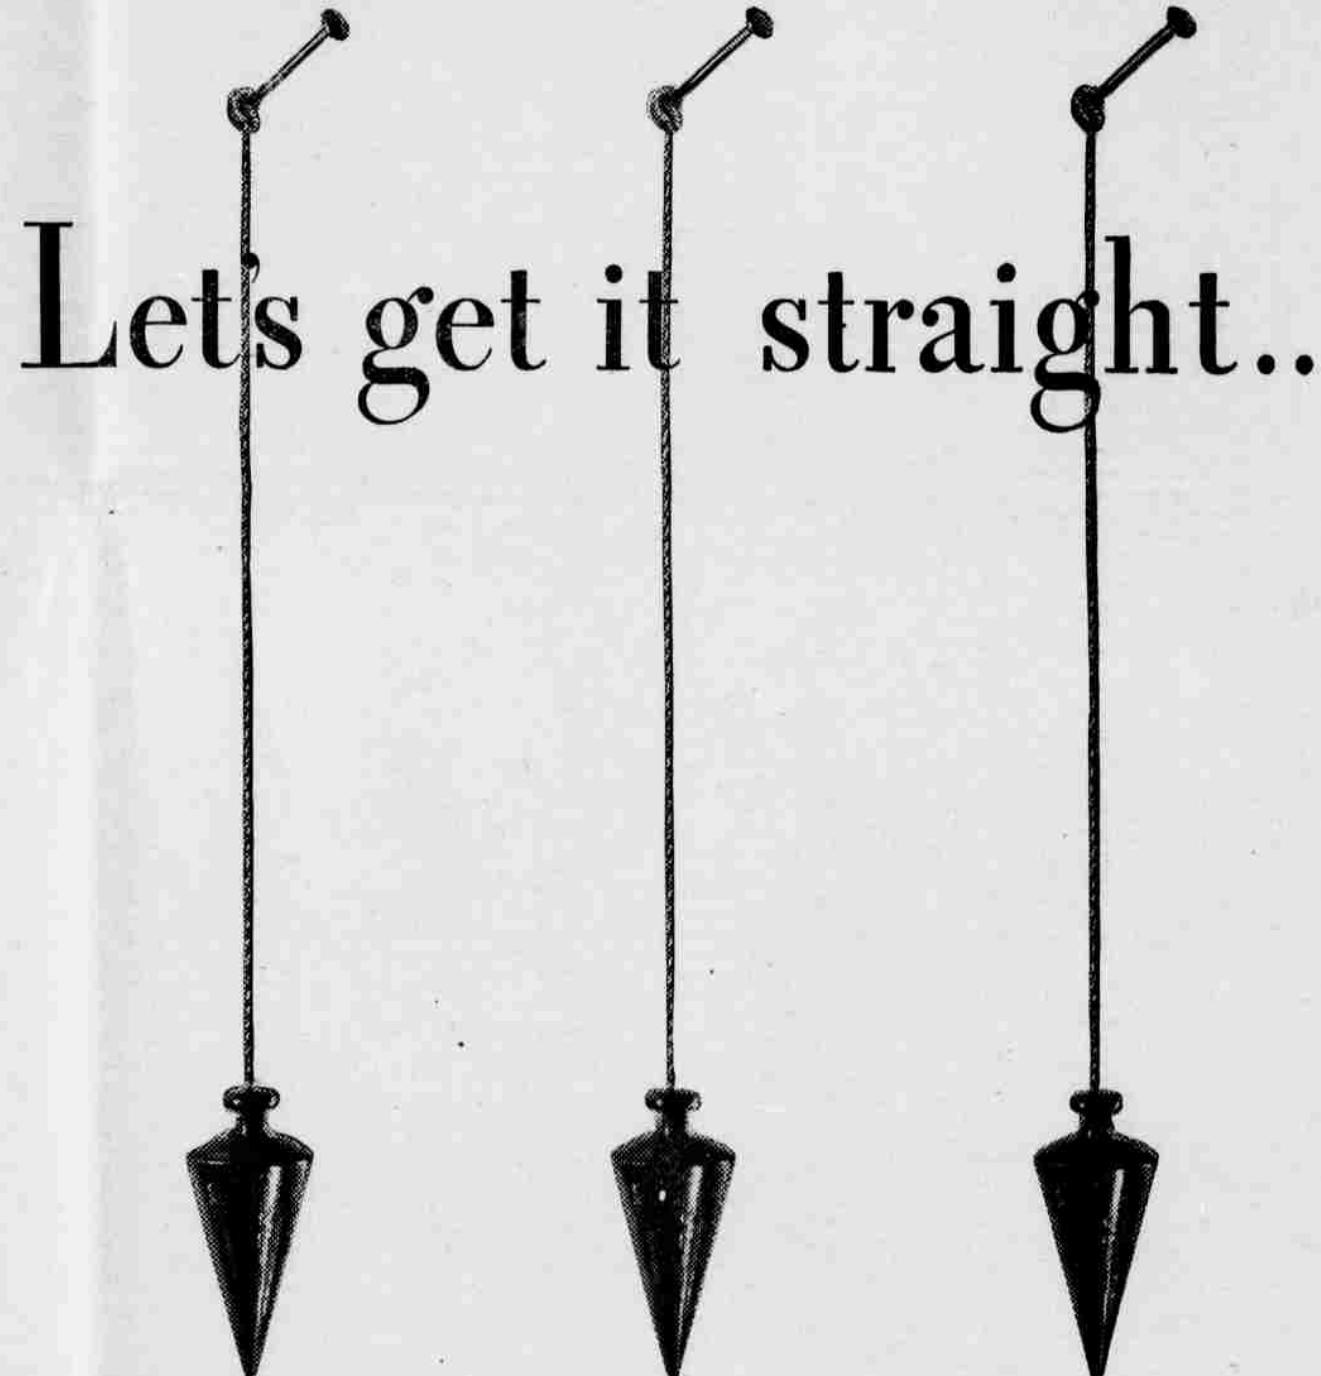

The social evening at the grange hall was spent in playing "500." Only a few were present but all had a good time. First prizes went to Mae Fryrear and Walter Beckett, and consolation to Ruth Bergstrom and Sterling Fryrear. At the end of the progression, lunch of salad, sandwiches and coffee was served.

Charles Beckett left Friday for Portland where he will visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beckett and Mary Beckett.

Velma Huston, teacher of Rhea Creek school, is driving a newly purchased Ford. Evangeline Phillips and Marvel Akers accompanied her to the rural teachers meeting at the Davis school on Saturday.

The young people who attended the dance in Heppner Saturday night were Walter Wright, Mildred Farrens, Claude Buschke, Margaret Beckett, Luis LeTrace and Laurence Williams.

There will be a dance at the Rhea Creek grange hall on Saturday, April 23. Everyone is invited to attend the dance.

The First of the Month

Usual bills on hand . . . necessitating the laying out of a lot of cash, including small change. Oft, a hurried trip to the bank is necessary. How inconveniencing. Far easier to py those bill by writing:

CHECKS!

Safer, too. For each Check is a record and receipt for a paid bill. We invite your Account.

ENLIST IN THE WAR AGAINST DEPRESSION
OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH THE First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

After all, you'll agree, in a cigarette it's taste . . . Chesterfield tobaccos are the best that can be bought. Plenty of time for ageing and curing. Every worthwhile scientific improvement. Costs millions to do this. But taste comes above everything.
... they taste better

Of course you want a cigarette that's mild. Well, whether you smoke a package a week or a package a day . . . Chesterfields will convince you of their downright smoothness . . . their exceptional mildness. Never so much as a hint of a bite.
... they're milder

You have as much right to demand purity in your cigarette as in the food and drink you put in your mouth. We see to it that Chesterfields are 100 per cent pure. Pure tobacco, pure paper . . . Cleanliness in every step of the making.
... they're pure

that's why

They Satisfy