

LEXINGTON

MRS. HARRY DUVALL.

The high school boys who will represent the volunteer firemen have been presented with their badges. They are Kenneth Warner, Llewellyn Evans, Winford Duvall, Sam and Jack McMillan, Dale Lane, Garland Thompson, Merritt Gray, Buck Ruhl, Vester Thornburg and La Verne Wright. Garland Thompson was elected chief and Sam McMillan assistant chief. The boys are learning all about the care of the hose carts and just what to do in case of fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever and children were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flora and children and Mrs. Wright, from Carlton, were here Sunday visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Flora was formerly Claudia McMillan.

Neil White and son Vivian motored down from their home near Ukiah Saturday for a visit with relatives. The snow is most all gone up there now but they found plenty of mud before they reached the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harbke are now on the Bell ranch where they expect to spend the summer. Jack Harper, who was living there, has moved to the Kincaid ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brooks from Vancouver, Wash., arrived Sunday and will be employed for a while at the Bell ranch, helping Mr. Harbke with the ranch work.

R. H. Lane has added a new trailer to his big truck. He made a trip to Portland Monday, going down with a load of wool and bringing back some household goods for Mr. Harbke. Vester Lane accompanied him on the trip.

The high school faculty and students enjoyed a wiener roast last Tuesday evening on the banks of Willow creek near the Harry Dinges ranch. Games were played around the bon-fire until a late hour.

Rose Thornburg went with Mrs. Rodgers to La Grande last Saturday night. She spoke there in the inter-county contest, representing Morrow county in the humorous division of the high school. She was awarded third place.

Ruth Dinges, student at Oregon State college, was ill with poison oak and had to remain out of school for more than a week. She is now able to be back to her studies.

Eula McMillan has been initiated into the Tau Delta Delta, a musical honorary at the University of Oregon.

Amabel Strodman recently won a scholarship at the Northwestern College of Fine Arts in Chicago. Miss Strodman is now living in Kansas and she won this scholarship for the highest average received in county declamatory work.

S. G. McMillan and son Wayne were shopping in Pendleton Saturday.

A surprise party was given for

Rose Thornburg at her home Monday night. It was in honor of her 15th birthday which occurred on Tuesday, April 26. Naomi McMillan assisted Mrs. Thornburg with the party. Those present were Fern, Fay and Ruth Luttrell, Grace and Doris Burchell, Erma Lane, Tillie Nelson, Delpha Merritt, Florence Moyer, Mildred Hunt, Helen Doherty, Naomi McMillan, LaVerne White, Mrs. Sarah White, Mrs. Thornburg, Rose and Vester. The evening was spent playing games and lunch was served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. John Miller are the proud parents of a daughter, born Friday, April 22. The little lady weighed 6 pounds and has been named Marjorie Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wells of Heppner spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Galey Johnson are having some remodeling done to their house this week. Frank Munkers is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles and Mrs. Chas. Inderbitzen took Mr. and Mrs. Galey Johnson for a picnic Sunday. They went as far as the John Day river, going by way of Condon. They ate their dinner some where along Rock creek and Mr. Johnson says they had a wonderful day.

The pupils in Mrs. Turner's room have received their certificates for reading 10 books or more during the school year. They are Kenneth Peck, Kenneth Palmer, Paul Brown, Lester McMillan, Jamie Peck, Olivia Baldwin, Josephine Moyer, Dale Yocum, Bernice Martin, Marvin Cox, LaVerne Wright, Betty Doherty, Edith Edwards, Gladys Reaney, Zelma Bunday, Iris Omohundro, Alberta Fulgham, Woodrow Tucker, Doris Burchell and Alma Van Winkle.

The members of sewing club No. 1 have also received their certificates of achievement for 1930-31. These are issued from the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C., through the state and county offices and are awarded for 100 per cent enrollment completing their club work.

Mrs. Ed Miller left Monday for Bend to consult her physician in regard to her recent goiter operation.

Mrs. Gene Gentry and Mrs. LaVilla Howell were hostesses to a bridge party at the Gentry home last Saturday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Menegat, Odd Fellows will give a dance here Saturday night at the hall. Admission 75c and good music will be furnished. Lunch served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Mrs. Laura Scott, Miss Clara Holey, George Gillis and Tom Barnett. Prizes for high scores went to Mrs. Carl Miller and Frank Turner. Dainty refreshments were served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt and Louise were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartholomew on Butter creek. They also attended church in the evening at Pine City.

Mrs. W. J. Davis, Mrs. Jas. Pointner, Mrs. Galey Johnson, Mrs. Ira Lewis, Mrs. Florence Beach, Mrs. Chas. Inderbitzen, Mrs. Nellie Palmer and Mrs. Frank Munkers were the ladies from the Aid here who attended the party given by Mrs. Arthur Keene at her home on Rhea creek last Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in quilting out a quilt and lunch was served during the afternoon.

BOARDMAN

RACHEL JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Allen and Mildred spent the week end in La Grande.

Frank Otto of Portland spent several days in Boardman last week taking care of his bees.

Mr. Denson of Meacham was a visitor in town several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Dillabough and family were guests at a lovely dinner Sunday evening at the Howard Channing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gent and Robert Becker of Longview were guests during the week end at the Baker and Bates homes.

Boardman visitors in Pendleton Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow and Chloe, Mrs. Claud Coats and Echo and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie.

The Boardman town baseball team motored to Echo Sunday to play. The score was 10-8 in favor of Echo. The lineup for the Boardman team was: catcher, Weldon Ayers; pitcher, Ray Barlow, Guy Barlow; 1st, Dallas Wilson; 2nd, Buster Rands; 3rd, Hector Wicklander, short, Marvin Ransier; right field, Carl Gillespie; center, Carroll Kennedy.

Lloyd Mallory, who is working at Biggs, spent Sunday at the Albin Sundsten home.

E. T. Messenger motored to Pendleton Friday and was accompanied home by his two grandchildren, Rena June and Junior Messenger. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger spent the day in Boardman, Rena June and Junior returning home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger who have been living at Milton are now located at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wicklander and Reo and Mrs. W. O. Miller mo-

Better Use Some Coal Before He Freezes

tored to Parkdale Wednesday to attend the meetings of the Pendleton Presbytery. They returned home Thursday evening.

Dorothy Compton spent several days in Spokane last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat and son Larry Jean were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

"Mother's Day services will be held in the community church Sunday morning at 11:15.

Mrs. Lee Mead and children went to La Grande Friday afternoon where Helen and Cathryn, winners in the Morrow county declamatory contest competed in the contest Saturday evening, held in the normal school. Both girls placed third in the contest which included speakers from Gilliam, Morrow and Union counties. Mr. Mead returned home Sunday with Mrs. Mead and family.

Charles Wicklander of La Grande was a Boardman visitor last week.

Jay Cox of Yakima spent the week end in Boardman. Mrs. Cox returned to Yakima Sunday evening with him, where she will spend a few days.

The Ladies Aid missionary meeting met Wednesday afternoon in the church. Mrs. Leo Root was elected as president to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Lottie Atteberry who has left for Portland where she will make her home. The next Silver Tea will be held in the evening of May 4th at 8 p. m., to which the ladies and their husbands are invited. This will be held in the church.

Dr. DeWalt Payne, resident physician of the Eastern Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital at The Dalles, gave an interesting talk about tuberculosis at a meeting of the Morrow County Public Health association in Boardman Friday evening. He showed several x-ray pictures of lungs infected with tuberculosis. Mr. Chamberlain of the office of the Oregon Tuberculosis association from Portland, gave a short talk. A one-reel movie about

T. B. was shown. A report on the Christmas Seal sale was given by Edwin Ingles of Lexington who is the seal chairman. Mrs. Harold Case, chairman of the Heppner Health unit, told of the progress of the work in Heppner. Mrs. King, chairman of the Boardman unit, gave a report of the work being accomplished here. Mrs. Rodgers of Heppner, advisor of the association, gave a short talk on the relation of health to the schools. J. O. Turner of Heppner, vice-president of the association, discussed the aims and purposes of the association. Other numbers on the program were Health playlet given by the school; yodeling solo, Marvin Ransier; a piano solo by Mrs. Mike Cassidy; clarinet solo by Mr. Dauid of Irrigon. Sandwiches and coffee were served after the meeting.

The grange is giving a pot luck dinner in the school Saturday evening at 6:30 after which an interesting program will be given. All grangers and their families are invited to attend. This is in honor of the 13th birthday of the Greenfield grange of Boardman.

Al May of Portland was a Boardman visitor last week. Mr. May lived here a number of years ago when employed on the state highway.

Mr. Cason of Portland is a visitor on the project this week.

ALPINE

MARGARET HOWARD.

It has been decided to hold the baccalaureate services on Sunday, May 15 at 2:30 o'clock instead of in the evening. The graduating class has been fortunate in securing Mr. Guy Drill of Pendleton. Mr. Drill gave the baccalaureate sermon here in 1929 and was the commencement speaker for the class of 1930, but last year Alpine had no graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch and children were in Pendleton Tuesday.

John Curran was over from Butter creek to the Frank Kilkenny ranch Friday.

Mrs. Bert Michel and Willard Hawley were shopping in Hermiston and Echo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay and Anne Ree motored to Pendleton Tuesday. Mrs. Bill Campbell and her son William are to return home with them.

Miss Gertrude Tichenor and Bill Gieger, accompanied by Gene Senter and Margaret Howard, motored to La Grande Saturday where they attended the tri-county declamatory contest. Miss Rosella Doherty also took some of the contestants, Bernard Doherty and Alex Lindsay. In the lower humorous division Bernard Doherty won first place, giving "Monkey Business," Alex Lindsay in the high school dramatic division won first place, "It is a Far Better Thing," and Gene Senter, oratorical, first place, "The Unknown Speaker." Mrs. Lucy Rodgers was there with Dean Goodman who took first place humorous, "Sockeye and the Old Plue Hen," and Rose Thornburg, humorous, third place, "Sis Hopkins and Her Beau." On the whole Morrow county made a very good showing in the contest.

The Pine City band will be the main attraction on the Farm Bureau program May 7. There will be various other numbers from Pine City, and Miss Doherty's room has several interesting things to offer. A big crowd is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Morehead and children were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mojeske and children of Lexington were at the Henry Rauch home Sunday.

F. Kilkenny was at the Carty ranch Sunday.

S. E. Notson of Heppner is to be the commencement speaker here at Alpine May 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klinger were in Pendleton shopping Thursday.

Mrs. Dan Lindsay and little Annie Ree were visitors at the Alpine school Monday afternoon.

Mrs. John Moore and Audrey and John were in Echo and Stanfield Saturday shopping. Audrey takes her music lesson in Stanfield each week.

Bill and John Kilkenny were in Pendleton Thursday with Joe who was having his leg re-cast.

CARD OF THANKS.

We are indeed grateful to all friends and neighbors for their aid and assistance during the illness and burial of our beloved Frank A. Lundell, and for the many acts of kindness and sympathy, and the beautiful floral offerings we extend our heartfelt thanks.

The Family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Akers came up from Portland on Saturday and are guests this week at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barlow.

If you went right to our factory door every morning

... you couldn't get any fresher, better-tasting Chesterfields than the ones you buy at home!

It doesn't matter where you buy your Chesterfields—at your corner drug store or in Honolulu—you can depend on getting the same good cigarette all the time.

Wrapped in Du Pont Number 300 moisture-proof Cellophane—the best made—Chesterfields are always just right for smoking wherever you buy them.

Chesterfields are as pure as the water you drink... and just as fresh as when they left the machines that made them... You can depend on a Liggett & Myers product.

The cigarette that's MILDER
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

S
A
F
E
T
Y
&

S
E
R
V
I
C
E

The First of the Month

Usual bills on hand... necessitating the laying out of a lot of cash, including small change. Oft, a hurried trip to the bank is necessary. How inconveniencing. Far easier to pay those bill by writing:

CHECKS!

Safer, too. For each Check is a record and receipt for a paid bill. We invite your Account.

ENLIST IN THE WAR AGAINST DEPRESSION

OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH THE

First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

Chesterfield Radio Program
MON. & THUR. TUES. & FRI. WED. & SAT.
BOSWELL ALEX RUTH SISTERS GRAY ETTING
6:30 p. m. P. T. 6:30 p. m. P. T. 6 p. m. P. T.
SHILKRET'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday
NORMAN BROKENSHIRE, Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK