WHY NOT A GRANDMOTHER'S DAY?

Autocaster Service. SUNDAY, May 8th, will be Mother's Day. It is a pleasing, sentimental custom to set apart one special day in every year for the particular remembrance of everybody's mother.

We should like to see somebody, however, start a "Grandmother's Day." It is our observation that grandmothers have had about as much to do with shaping the lives of most of us as our mothers had.

THERE IS NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

Autocaster Service. WE THINK we live in a complicated age, but more than three hundred years ago everything was just as topsy-turvy as it is today.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for May 1. ISAAC AND HIS WELLS. Genesis 26:12-25.

Isaac, the son of Abraham and father of Jacob, is just an average man in comparison. There is, however, much that is interesting in this patriarch. He was the son of promise and was born when Abram was close to the century mark.

tidings of weddings, entertainments, embassies, trophies, sports, plays, treasons, robberies, enormous glories of all kinds, funerals, death of princesses, new discoveries and expeditions.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

MARY A. NOTSON, Reporter. The Oregon Farmer states the situation exactly as it is in the following: "The people should not be deceived."

"In addition, there are many rich men who are contributing large sums to the wet cause under the hope that they can lighten their income taxes by loading taxes onto beer and hard liquor."

"From every angle—economic, moral and social—the facts will show that the reasons advanced for retaining and strengthening prohibition are far more sound and ethical than are the arguments for repeal."

"Unfortunately the cunning, high paid and commercialized propaganda that has been poured out against prohibition has swayed the opinions of many people, especially in the large cities."

"Does any one who remembers the old liquor days ever recall an instance where the liquor trust cared a hang about the poor workman except to entice his money away for booze?"

"Some other people might take into consideration the business end of this fight. For instance, the candy makers and dealers might well consider that the consumption of candy has stepped up from $150,000,000 to $400,000,000 annually."

"Watch your child's complexion—it should be perfect. Any hint of pallor; jaundice, circles under the eyes, or general feebleness and inactivity, should send you to the family doctor post-haste."

Late Spring Makes Corn Better Grain Crop Bet

Late rains and cool weather over much of the state appear to be conspiring to force a larger number of Oregon farmers than usual into production of corn for grain this year.

Where growers still plan to sow small grains, Jackman calls attention to definite experimental evidence showing that yields of spring grain depend far more on date of plowing than date of seeding, hence it will be good business to complete the plowing as quickly as possible even at the risk of delaying seeding on some land already plowed.

A Thought for Child Welfare Week — By Albert T Reid

His Play

The FAMILY DOCTOR by JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

About School Children

Parents are very rightly anxious about their youngsters going to school, lest they should pick up infection peculiar to child-life, such as measles, mumps, chicken-pox, or the more serious throat infections, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and the like.

"Particularly you should watch the little noses and throats. The child with chronic 'snuffles' needs attention. The dentist and the family doctor are your faithful allies, while you are growing the chief American crop—boys and girls."

"Waiter—Haven't they given you a menu yet, sir? Diner (wearily)—Yes, but I finished that an hour ago."

He's Really "Wet"

Walter J. Reid, candidate for Congress in Texas, went into court and had the word "Wet" added to his name, to prove he is against prohibition. He is "Walter J. Wet Reid."

Medford—Two hundred ninety-three women from 14 communities of Jackson county attended vegetable cookery demonstration meetings held recently. In each instance local leaders presented the principles of cooking either strong or mild flavored vegetables.
