

Local Happenings

J. O. Turner and Vawter Crawford were in Gilliam county Saturday and attended the meeting of Pomona Grange at Rock Creek station. This meeting was well attended by members of the grange from both Gilliam and Wheeler counties and a very interesting program was presented in the afternoon. At this time both Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande were present in addresses, and other features of the program were interesting and entertaining. Morrow and Gilliam counties are looking fine as to crops right now; plenty of moisture bringing the wheat along just as it should be, and we found the Gilliam county farmers in good spirits because of the prospects, all hoping, of course, that better prices will prevail when the crops are gathered in.

Orrin Grabill and Attorney Frank Robinson were visitors here Monday from Ione. They were interested in the closing of the estate of the late David H. Grabill, of which Orrin is the executor. These gentlemen reported heavy showers and some hail about Ione Sunday but no damage was sustained by the latter storm, while the rain reached the proportions of a cloudburst at some points. This moisture is all to the good and wheat is prospering.

Mrs. W. R. Poulson, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Mrs. Russell Pratt motored to Portland Sunday, Mrs. Poulson being on her way to Los Angeles where she will be joined at the end of the school year by Mr. Poulson, and Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Pratt going to the city for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Benton motored to Pendleton on Tuesday afternoon to be in attendance at the Eastern Oregon convention of Christian churches held there on Tuesday and Wednesday. They returned home following the closing services Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford visited over Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Spencer, near Stanfield. A very heavy rain Sunday afternoon gave that part of Umatilla county a good soaking, beneficial to grass and alfalfa meadows.

Sam McDaniel was in town Wednesday from his mountain ranch south of Hardman. Spring is still somewhat backward out his way but there is an abundance of moisture coming along and the ranchers are not complaining.

County Commissioners Bleakman and Peck, Harry Tamblin, engineer, A. J. Chaffee and Henry Taylor motored to Dayton, Wash., Monday to inspect some new road machinery as guests of a Portland machinery company.

Mrs. Blanche Watkins, who for many years was a teacher in Heppner schools, was in the city Monday from her home at Boardman. She reported the loss of her residence at Irrigon by fire on Friday last.

Mrs. Josie Jones, who has been making her home at Pendleton for the past several years, has returned to Heppner, taking up her residence in her home in the northeast part of the city.

Miss Catherine Peterson, Episcopal social worker, returned to Heppner Friday from a visit in California which took her to Sacramento for a church convention.

Albert Adkins went to Coquille to attend the funeral services held there for his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Adkins, who died at her home there last week.

The Episcopal ladies wish to thank everyone who assisted us, and helped in any way to make the quilt and antique exhibit a success. Committee in charge.

L. W. Briggs, county treasurer, was in Portland during the past week, spending a short time in the city while having his eyes looked after by a specialist.

Billy Padberg was in the city yesterday from the Clarks canyon farm. Because of the rain he had a chance to lay off for a while from the spring work.

G. L. Corey and Frank Marshall, district officers of Pacific Power & Light company, were in the city Monday from The Dalles, making the local office a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Gemmill visited the towns of Boardman and Irrigon Tuesday in behalf of Mr. Gemmill's candidacy for county clerk.

Laxton McMurray, director, and Ralph Harris, clerk, of School District No. 35, Ione, were business visitors in this city Monday.

Chas. Thomson of the firm of Thomson Bros. is in Portland this week looking after matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barratt of Portland are spending the week at the home of their son, Garnet Barratt.

Jerome O'Conner, Rhea creek flockmaster, was looking after business affairs here Wednesday.

J. P. Louy, mayor of Ione, was among residents of the Egg city doing business here Tuesday.

HARDMAN

MRS. ELLA FARRENS.

The boards of directors of district 40 and Union high school No. 1 held a joint board meeting at the school house on last Saturday and elected the teachers for the coming year. The high school board decided to elect Mrs. Bertha McDaniel. The grade school teachers Mrs. Ethel Knighten and Miss Marjorie Montgomery were also re-elected.

Roy Ashbaugh is sponsoring a dance to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday night.

Mrs. Bud Fisk has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. H. McDaniel, this week, driving over from Arlington Thursday.

Mrs. Lydia Wilson, Miss Wilma Cox, Carl Cox and Harley Matteson were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson.

Bernard Carlson, George Medlock and Golda and Lily Johnson were Heppner visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McDaniel were calling on Mrs. C. H. Jessel at Union a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hams and son La Vern were calling in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside, Clarence McKittrick were visitors at the Buck Adams home Sunday.

Leslie, Jim, Marvin Brannon were visiting friends here Sunday. Bill Greener, Bill Johnson were out of town visitors here Saturday, the former coming down to be present at the school meeting.

Ernest French was a business visitor here Saturday.

Gilman Dolvan was attending to matters of business here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, Miss Zetta Bleakman motored to Portland on Thursday, going down to purchase merchandise for B. H. Bleakman's store.

Walter Scott was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers Monday.

Miss Jessie McDaniel visited Miss Irene Harshman in Eight Mile Sunday evening. Victor Lovgren, Gladys Lovgren, Irene Harshman, Forrest Adams brought her home and spent a short while visiting friends and relatives here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman,

Bert Bleakman, Buck Adams, Ad Inskip were attending to matters of business in Heppner Monday.

Mrs. Delcie Chapel is visiting with her husband who is working at the Barrett place near Heppner. Neva Bleakman, Charlotte Adams, Lois Ashbaugh hiked to Glutton falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fraters and son Charles and daughter Celia were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greener Sunday.

John Stevens brought his sheep home from the Stevens brothers' ranch on McKinney creek.

A group of teachers from the Joseph grade school, The Dalles, motored to Hardman Saturday to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave at their mountain ranch. Mrs. Musgrave was formerly a teacher in the Joseph school.

Archie and Wayne Beathers of Kimberly are visiting at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers.

The Hardman school is planning a picnic for its members, teachers and patrons to be held as soon as weather conditions permit, and as soon as Miss Peterson, Sunday school superintendent, can be present.

Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Joan visited with Mrs. Jack Grimes in Ione Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers and daughter, Grace Buschke and family were Heppner visitors Monday.

Wes Stevens was transacting business in Heppner one day last week.

Nick Leathers returned from Rock creek the last of the week for an indefinite visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers.

Mrs. J. N. Batty was up from her Eight Mile ranch Sunday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Knighten.

Adrian Bechtolt was attending to matters of business here Monday.

Howard Sweek of Monument is spending a few days visiting friends here.

Frank Howell was looking after business interests here Friday.

The primary grades gave an exhibition of their work completed during the school year, Friday last, which was successfully carried on. Many parents were in attendance.

Visitors in the school during the week were Mrs. Bud Fisk, Delcie Chapel, Ella Farrrens, Lucile Farrrens.

Pupils in the upper grade room who will receive certificates of award for reading and reporting on ten or more books during the year are Lois Stevens 16, Neva Bleakman 11, Annie Johnson 10, Nellie Bleakman 10, Lois Ashbaugh 11, Charlotte Adams 11, Roland Farrrens 17, Roland Farrrens read the most books, 17, and Lois Stevens was second with 16.

Chas. Smith, county agent, and L. J. Allen, state club leader, gave interesting talks to the members and leaders of the various 4-H clubs Friday. Hardman has a large enrollment in the 4-H clubs, especially in the forestry club which ranks second in the state in size. Interest has been kept up and the work is very much enjoyed, no doubt largely due to the lively interest of the leaders who have taken up the work.

4H CLUB NEWS

Clubs Hold Joint Meeting.
The Golden West Cookery club was called to order May 2, Monday afternoon. The club was opened by the leader and sent in to the state club leader at Corvallis. If the program is accepted and approved a charter is then made out and signed by the secretary of the U. S. department of agriculture, the state superintendent of public instruction, director of extension and state club leader. —Club Reporter.

Thrifty Stitches Progress.
The Heppner sewing club of division III has selected for their name "The Thrifty Stitches." Their motto is: "A stitch in time saves nine." As yet the club yell has not been chosen. There are seven members in the club: They are Mary McDuffee, Lucille Beymer, Beatrice Thomson, Mary Thomson, Marie Scrivner, Edna Jones and Vallis Jones. Louise Meyer plans to join at the next meeting. The following officers were elected: Lucille Beymer, president; Mary Thomson, vice-president; and Vallis Jones, secretary and news reporter.

The first meeting was held in Room 3 in the high school with Mrs. C. C. Patterson, our able leader, and Mrs. Rodgers to advise and assist in the organization of the club. Meetings are held every other Friday.

The following meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Patterson. Two of the girls laid their patterns and cut out their dresses, one of whom was making a renovated garment and the other a print dress. Those who had their dresses cut out sewed on them. The subject of quilts was discussed along with other sewing work. Mrs. Patterson demonstrated the making of a boudoir pillow as a special feature. A short business meeting was held after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next regular meeting was postponed for the following Wednesday. Those present were Marie Scrivner, Mary McDuffee, Lucille Beymer, Mary Thomson and Vallis Jones. Mrs. Patterson wishes to resign as soon as another leader can be chosen to take her place.

A few of the Thrifty Stitches have completed their dresses and are preparing to begin on a new article.

Due to the fact that only a few girls could be present for the regular meeting on Friday, April 29, a special meeting was called for Thursday, May 5, at the home of Mrs. Patterson, to select a new leader and start on new projects.

Club Work Completed.
The last gathering of the Wee Six Cooks club being at the leaders home, will be the last of the cooking club meetings of Alpine. Cards have been handed in and the report book stories are being written. Some of the Wee Six Cooks club songs are: "Club Work," with the tune of "Jingle Bells," "4-H Clover," "Achievement Song," with the tune "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles;" "The More We Get Together;" and "Wee Six Cooks of Alpine Are—" a song composed by the song leader, Rhuey Ann Senter with the tune of "We Three Kings of Orient."

The words are as follows: "Wee Six Cooks of Alpine are, preparing dishes we travel far, milk and eggs and meat; don't you like our treats?"

The names of the club yells are "Chickadee," "Nigger, nigger" and "Chief Yell."

The members that have been working on extra dishes are thru with their cooking groups. One member made a little cake and brought it to school Friday, April 22, to be served. Peggy Kilkenny and Dorothy Doherty demonstrated sandwiches also.

Demonstrations made by the club members during the year are: an egg omelet on March 8 by Rhuey Ann Senter and Reitha Howard; March 18, it was cocoa by Peggy Kilkenny and Doris Klingler; April 1, was a fruit salad by Reitha Howard and Gene Senter; April 15 was Nifty Stitches to Get Charter.

A 4-H club charter was given to the leader of the Nifty Stitches club Saturday. This charter will be presented to the members at their next meeting which is to be held on Friday, May 6, at the office of the county agent. In order that a 4-H club may be presented a club charter, a program of work for the ensuing year must be made out by Club Meets.

On Friday, April 29, Hall Ridge club members and leader went to join the Eight Mile club members so they could practice their demonstrations and songs. Gladys Lovgren and Hazel Adkins are going to give a demonstration showing what colors each type of person should wear. Buel Harshman and Boyd Redding are going to give a demonstration on the making of a door stop. Later in the afternoon our handicraft leader brought Nola Keithley, Boyd Redding, Wilbur Worden and all of her pupils back to Hall Ridge school house. Mr. Smith and Mr. Allen came to look at some of the things we have made. Mr. Allen gave us an interesting talk on how to take care of our tools and what and how to exhibit our things. Mr. Smith told us how to square a board which we think has helped us very much. We only wish it had been earlier in the year before we had finished our club work. Our final reports have been sent in and we have received cards from Mr. Seymour. We hope to be able to receive our cards or pins and achievement certificates on May 22, the day of our achievement program.

peanut butter and lettuce combination sandwiches by Dorothy Doherty and Peggy Kilkenny.

The members have all been active in their club work and are looking forward to their final meeting which they hope to make a success.

Rocky Bluff Club Elects.
The Rocky Bluff Handicraft club elected officers April 29, with the assistance of Mr. Allen, state 4-H club leader, and Chas. W. Smith, county agent. Miss Alena Redding will be our leader. Members are: Clifford Carlson, president; Clarence Baker, vice president; Joyce Carlson, secretary. Merle Baker, reporter, Henry Peterson, Jr., and David Baker.

Gooseberry Cattle Club.
The Gooseberry Dairy Cattle club and other clubs had a very enjoyable time by having a picnic dinner and stock judging at the home of Mrs. Harry Cool April 30. Mr. Smith, county agent, and Mr. Allen state leader, were there also. We started about 11 o'clock judging four jersey cows. We were shown how to clip the cows when they are being fitted for the show ring. Mr. Allen and Mr. Wightman judged the cows and showed us the main points in judging good dairy cows. Then we judged sheep. Mr. Allen and Mr. Smith showed us the good points in sheep judging. Dinner was served by Mrs. Cool and Mrs. Algott Lundell. Each member brought something. The different clubs present were: Three children from Heppner calf club, Mr. Wightman as leader; six children from the Boardman sheep club, Mr. Kristensen, leader; five from the Ione sheep club, Mrs. Cool, leader; seven from the Ione calf club, Mrs. Cool leader; three from the Boardman calf club, Paul Smith, leader; two from the Heppner rabbit club; four from the Gooseberry dairy cattle club, Mr. Wightman, leader. After dinner we had a club meeting with Raymond Drake acting as president. The roll call was read, and some of those answering gave a report about their project they are carrying on. Laverne Baker who belongs to the Boardman calf club, led in the club pledge. Mr. Allen and Mr. Smith each gave a talk and the leaders of each club reported about their club. The Gooseberry dairy cattle club will have their next meeting the latter part of May. The meeting was then adjourned by the president.

Then all the children went out to the sheep shed and Mr. Allen and Mr. Smith demonstrated how to fix a sheep for the show ring, which was very interesting. The Gooseberry dairy cattle club has just received their club charter for this year. Mr. Wightman handed out our second report cards. Three of the members were absent. We want to thank Mrs. Cool very much for letting us meet at her place.
