GREED—NOT PROHIBITION.

An answer to Dr. A. B. Gray. "Tis built on prohibition"—did you say?

But we Mothers of sons have not believed That you are right. This not the only day When for just such a crime fond parents grieved.

Since the days of Herod a baby's life Has been as naught when great wealth or power

Is the goal men seek. Yes, crime has been rife Since the world was young. Not alone this hour.

No, not "it's built on prohibition." Be honest and say, "It's built on greed."

And, Everyman, let this be our mission; From this monster our children must be freed.

Greedy, in whose insatiable maw Fair hopes are lost, the bright promise of youth, The Kingdom's advancement, respect of law, A demon destroying all without ruth.

A power for evil in every land, He is Ambition without God and Right, An angel of darkness, Satan's right hand.

HE is the enemy we all must fight 'Twas GREED who wrecked our dearest hope

That just one temptation we had to face Might be removed so we could cope With sin, make of this world a better place.

Stand with us for our dream and help us make This great nation clean for our children's sake.

NOWADAYS, when so many people are talking about purity . . . pure food, pure milk, pure water . . . it's worth a minute to tell you something about the purity of Chesterfield cigarettes.

All the materials that go into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes are tested again and again by expert research chemists. Just like the things you eat and drink.

The tobacco is pure—the right kinds, Domestic and Turkish both, mild, sweet, ripe. The paper is pure—clean, white, the best cigarette paper that money can buy. There is purity in every ingredient and cleanliness in every operation.

You can know, when you light a Chesterfield, that it is as pure as science can make a cigarette. And your taste will tell you it's milder, it tastes better.
