

LEXINGTON

MRS. HARRY DUVALL

A very good and appreciative audience responded to the musical program at the Church of Christ last Sunday night. A similar program will be the order each week, singing of the old time hymns, interspersed with special numbers. The sermonette this week will be on the topic "What Price Freedom?" Mr. Sias' morning subject will be "Living Epistles." An invitation and a hearty welcome is accorded all comers.

The June church and school night was observed Tuesday evening, when members and friends came for a get-together feed. A literary and musical program was given, followed by games and visitation. There was also a short meeting of the teachers' and workers' conference.

Miss Glea Sias who has been spending a week here with her parents departed Sunday. She will attend summer school at the Oregon Normal in La Grande.

Alice Palmer and Claude Wilcox went to Salem Thursday. Claude will visit there a few days, then go to the Citizen's Military Training camp at Vancouver. Alice will stop in Portland for a visit on her return home.

Mrs. Ethel Budlong and daughter, Wanda Davis from Salem were here the first of the week visiting friends and relatives.

Dona Barnett was absent from her duties at the store the first of the week on account of illness.

Mrs. Sarah White spent the week end in Hermiston visiting with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald White. Friends will be interested to know that Mrs. Rust, mother of Mrs. Gerald White, is still seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Roberts from Phoenix, Ariz., are employed at the Sarah White ranch for the summer.

Charles Breshears and family were guests at the Hynd Bros. home on Sand Hollow Sunday.

Last week two young men came to town on a motor cycle. The next day the machine was found abandoned near the warehouse. Ed Cummins, drayman and city marshal, brought it to Henderson's garage and notified the police. Mr. McMahon, state policeman, came and took the numbers in an effort to determine if it had been stolen.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt and Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunt and Dean went to Pendleton Saturday to do some shopping.

Lee and Virgil Gentry of Portland visited last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Munkers.

Mrs. Glen Gale returned to Portland after spending some time here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Wright. Her husband came up after her, bringing with him a truck load of strawberries which he disposed of here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pomeroy and two children from Ostrander, Wash., arrived Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Pomeroy is the daughter of Ed. McMillan.

The Home Economics club of the Grange met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Nelson on Thursday, June 9, with ten members and fifteen visitors present. The afternoon was spent in sewing. The club decided to hold no meeting in July and August. At the close of the meeting refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served by the hostesses. Present were Mesdames Lindsay, Claude White, Geo. Peck, R. B. Rice, H. V. Smouse, R. E. Wilcox, S. Wright, Sparks, Chas. Marquardt, John Miller, Harry Schriever, Ed Kelly, Harvey Miller, Frank Saling, John Troedson, Paul Troedson, Archie Nichols and A. H. Nelson and Misses Anne and Cassie McDevitt, Montgomery, Jessie Klages, and Clara and Ellen Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eskelson, Mrs. Ernest Frederickson and children and Charles Walker returned to Salem Thursday after a delightful week spent here visiting with relatives and friends.

Morrow County Grain Growers association held their annual meeting here Monday afternoon. Their reports show that they have made very good progress during the past year and those holding shares have been paid well.

Earl and Kenneth Warner, Sam and Jack McMillan, and George Broadley went to the mountains Tuesday morning. They expect to be gone for several days cutting wood.

Lexington Grange met here Saturday night, June 11. The business meeting was preceded by the following program: reading, Eileen Kelly; song, girls' glee club; reading, Billy Nichols; duet, Mrs. Laura Rice and Mrs. Trannie Parker; pantomime, "and the Lamp Went Out"; reading, Shirley Smouse. Mr. McMahon of the state police gave an interesting talk on the duties of the state police. At the business meeting the Grange received one proposal for membership and two members were accepted by ballot. Bert Johnson discussed a petition which is being circulated for the purpose of placing on the November ballot a bill favoring the removal of the University of Oregon to Corvallis and combining it with the state college. Orville Cutsforth gave an interesting talk on "Hogs as a Morrow County Crop." A resolution favoring lower freight rates was read and adopted. Due to this being the harvest season the Grange will not hold a meeting in either July or August.

Born, June 10, to Mr. and Mrs. William Van Winkle, a daughter, named Lois June and weighing 9 pounds.

Ruth Dinges returned home Saturday morning from Corvallis where she has been attending school at Oregon State college. Eula McMillan and Helen Valentine returned Saturday afternoon from University of Oregon at Eugene. The girls will spend the summer here with their parents.

On Tuesday evening of last week

An Unequal Race!

Vester Thornburg was given a surprise party, it being his birthday. Rose Thornburg and Naomi McMillan were hostesses. The evening was spent playing cards and delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Garland Thompson, Sam McMillan, Kenneth Warner, Dale Lane, Winford Duvall, Llewellyn Evans, Randall Martin, Edward Hunt and Vester Thornburg.

Coy Thornburg of Ritter is here visiting with his folks.

A group of high school girls have formed a club for the summer. They will meet once a week and sew on quilts. Last week they met with the Luttrell girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Padberg and children returned home Sunday from Portland. Mrs. Padberg had been down there for some time visiting her parents. Mr. Padberg went down Friday evening. Janie Alistott came up with them to visit for a while.

One evening last week Louise Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt, happened to quite a painful accident while playing. She fell upon a sharp axe and cut her right leg just below the knee. She was taken to Heppner and it was necessary to take three stitches to close the wound.

Mrs. George Peck, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Keene, Mrs. Lawrence Palmer, Mrs. Robert Wilcox and Mrs. Galey Johnson, entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the Peck home in honor of Mrs. Ernest Frederickson of Salem.

Gus Sundquist left last Thursday for Sweet Home in response to a message stating that his mother had passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Floan and small daughter, all of Portland, were week-end guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harbke.

A delightful party was given last Wednesday night at the vacant home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eskelson. It was given by Mrs. Ada Eskelson and Alice Palmer and was in honor of Florence and Iris Frederickson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederickson of Salem. A large group of young people from Heppner and Lexington attended.

Games and dancing were the pleasures of the evening, and ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lucas motored to Wasco Sunday and were present at a family dinner given there at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Fortner. They were accompanied as far as Dinty Moore's station by Erma Duvall. She took the stage from there for Monmouth where she will resume her studies at the Oregon Normal school.

Another happy party took place on Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Claude White, when she entertained the young girls' class of the Christian Sunday school. It was an informal leap year party and the girls invited boys for partners. Games were played on the lawn until a late hour. Then they were served with refreshments of strawberry short cake, whipped cream and coffee. Present were Fay and Ruth Luttrell, Rose Thornburg, Naomi McMillan, Erma Lane, Grace and Doris Burchell, Mildred Hunt, Olivia Baldwin, La Verne White, Vernon Munkers, Elmer Palmer, Edward Burchell, Winford Duvall, Kenneth Warner, Dale Lane, Vester Thornburg, Garland Thompson and Lonnie Henderson.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Clark Jackson to Dorothea Pickens of Salem. Mr. Jackson formerly lived here and is a brother of Ralph Jackson. The young couple will make their home in Salem where Mr. Jackson is employed in the First National bank.

PINE CITY

ALMA NEILL

Alex Lindsay is working for Chas. Morehead during haying. John Healy was a business visitor in Echo Friday.

Miss Wilma McCarty who has been attending Oregon State college returned home Monday to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill and Bernice made a business trip to Hermiston Saturday.

A number of the Pine City folks attended a dance at the Henry Rauch home Saturday night.

Miss Ruth Jordan of Echo spent Wednesday night with Bernice Neill.

Fred Rauch Jr. is working during haying at the Tony Vey ranch.

Mrs. C. F. Morehead and young daughter returned home from Heppner Friday.

Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and children, Junior and Lucille, visited at the W. D. Neill home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill and

Mrs. C. W. Neill and children made a trip to Charley Plourd's Thursday. Mrs. C. W. Neill and children remained there for a few days visit.

Charley Bartholomew shipped his sheep to Montana last week.

The baseball game scheduled with Lexington for last Sunday was not played because of the fact that the Lexington team did not come. The Pine City boys chose up sides and played a game.

Roy Neill and Ralph Neill made a business trip to Heppner Thursday.

An electrical storm which hit this section Monday evening caused the postponing of haying.

The Pine City baseball team will play a game with Alpine at Pine City Sunday.

W. O. W. TO MEET.

A two-day head camp session of Woodmen of the World has been announced to be held in Portland July 21-22 at the public library. Old members that were illegally frozen out by a raise in insurance rates and those that have been illegally transferred to so-called legal reserve are given a special invitation by Dan Kellaher, president, to attend.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR MOTOR LICENSES

51. When is it unlawful to turn around upon a highway?

Ans. Upon any curve or upon the approach to or near the crest of a grade or at any place upon the highway where the view of vehicle making the turn is obstructed within a distance of 500 feet along the highway in any direction.

52. When is a car considered to have entered an intersection?

Ans. When the front point of the car crosses an imaginary line drawn from corner to corner of curb.

53. Who has the right of way at an intersection?

Ans. The first car entering the intersection shall have the right of way, except when two cars enter at approximately the same time the car on the right shall have the right of way. Any car entering at an unlawful speed for the district shall forfeit any right of would otherwise have.

54. How long must a driver of a vehicle who has stopped at a through highway yield the right of way?

Ans. The driver of any vehicle, who has stopped as required by law at the entrance to a through highway, shall to the other vehicles within the intersection or approaching so closely thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard. But said driver having so yielded may proceed and other vehicles approaching on the through highway shall yield to him.

55. How long shall the driver of a vehicle yield the right of way when turning left at an intersection?

Ans. The driver of a vehicle within an intersection intending to turn to the left shall yield to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction, which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard, but said driver, having so yielded and having given a signal when and as required by law, may make such left turn and other vehicles approaching the intersection from said opposite direction shall yield to the driver making the left turn.

56. What are some exceptions to rules regarding right of way?

Ans. (a) The driver of a vehicle entering a public highway from a private road or drive shall yield the right of way to all vehicles approaching on such public highway.

(b) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway shall yield the right of way to all authorized emergency vehicles when the latter are operated in emergencies and when the drivers thereof sound audible signal by bell, siren, or exhaust whistle.

56-a. What should you do upon the approach of an authorized emergency vehicle?

Ans. Upon the approach of an authorized emergency vehicle, giving audible signal by bell, siren, or exhaust whistle, the driver of every other vehicle shall immediately drive the same to a position as near as possible and parallel to the right-hand edge or curb of the highway clear of any intersection of highways and stop and remain in such position unless otherwise directed by a police officer until the authorized emergency vehicle shall have passed.

Pedestrian's Rights and Duties.

57. When must the driver of a vehicle yield the right of way to a pedestrian?

Ans. The driver of any vehicle shall yield the right of way to a pedestrian crossing the roadway within any marked crosswalk or within any unmarked crosswalk at the end of the block, except at intersections where the movement of the traffic is being regulated by police officers or traffic control signs.

58. When must the pedestrian yield the right of way to vehicles upon the highway?

Ans. When crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked or unmarked crosswalk.

59. Is it unlawful for the driver of a vehicle to overtake and pass any other vehicle which has stopped at a crosswalk or intersection to permit a pedestrian to cross the roadway?

Ans. Yes.

60. Which side of the highway outside of incorporated cities or towns should pedestrians use?

Ans. The left hand side.

61. Why should pedestrians and especially children be taught to walk on the left side of the highway?

Ans. They will then be facing the oncoming traffic and can step off the highway if necessary to prevent being hit.

62. Should the rider of a bicycle or a person driving, riding or leading an animal be on the right or left side of the highway?

Ans. On the right. Every such person is subject to the same rules and regulations as a motorist when using the highway.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Administrator of the Partnership Estate of Harry Rood and A. C. Ruby, Harry Rood, deceased, has filed his final account with the County Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County, and that said Court has set as the time and place for settlement of said account, Monday, the First day of August, 1932, at the hour of Two o'clock P. M. in the court room of said court in Heppner, Oregon. All persons having objections to said account must file the same on or before said date.

A. C. RUBY,
Administrator of the Partnership
Estate of Harry Rood and A. C.
Ruby; Harry Rood, deceased.

"Haven't you noticed it? — they Taste Better"

© 1932, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

... And here's the Reason Why!

THEY'RE MADE of ripe, sweet, mellow tobaccos.

These tobaccos are blended and cross-blended... "welded" together in such a way as to bring out the best in each kind of tobacco.

CHESTERFIELDS are seasoned with just the right amount of fine aromatic Turkish tobacco. Not too much, but just enough.

CHESTERFIELDS are made right—the right size—to give a cool and smooth smoke. They're mild—yet not flat. They're not overawed—but sweet enough.

They're as pure as the water you drink.

The Cigarette that's MILDER...

The Cigarette that

TASTES BETTER

SAFETY &

SERVICE

Make Each Dollar Earn Its Keep

Each dollar working releases $10 worth of credit and credit is our nation's lifeblood.

MONEY is only of value when working. Money spent wisely or in a savings account is working.

YOUR NEST EGG here in a Savings Account earning interest, will provide ten times as much credit to local business.

First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

They Satisfy Chesterfield

Chesterfield Radio Program
MON. & THUR. BOSWELL
TUES. & FRI. ALEX
WED. & SAT. RUTH SISTERS GRAY
NAT SHUKET and NORMAN BROOKSHIRE
At 6 p.m., Pacific Time
every night but Sunday
COLUMBIA NETWORK