

LEXINGTON

expects to be back in time for the opening of school September 5.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home at Cherryville.

Henry Frost of Portland has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arnold Pieper of Blackhorse.

Mrs. Minnie Leach McMillan returned Sunday from Heppner hospital where she has been receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Devine have been spending their vacation at Hot Lake. They are expected home this week.

Lexington Grange will give a dance at Leach Memorial hall September 17.

Mrs. A. H. Nelson and daughters Clara and Ellen, and Mrs. H. V. Smouse and daughters Helen and Shirley spent most of last week in the mountains. The ladies went up to pick huckleberries.

The road crew is busy this week improving the market road out Clarks canyon way.

Guests Wednesday night at the Ed Burchell home were Mrs. F. J. Clifford and daughter Olive of Medford. The two ladies left Medford about a month ago and have been visiting in Washington on the way here.

They are making the 600-mile trip horseback and plan on taking in the Pendleton Round-Up before they return home. The plan of riding to the Round-Up was started as a means of Miss Clifford's recovering from an illness caused by over work when employed as society editor on a Medford paper. The plan has worked out well for she is now in good health and attributes it to her long ride.

Fred Lucas and Earl Warner returned Thursday night from a successful huckleberrying trip to the Mt. Adams country.

Mrs. Arthur Hunt and Mrs. Alex Hunt were in Ione Thursday afternoon.

Miss Lena Blahm of Heppner spent a part of last week visiting with her sister, Mrs. Clifford Shaw at the Claude White ranch in Sand Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker and Miss Elsie Tucker returned Thursday from the mountains where they had been picking huckleberries.

F. A. McMenamin of Portland was transacting business in town Friday.

Mrs. Omar Luttrell is in the General hospital at Heppner where she is receiving medical treatment.

Miss Fern Luttrell has been having an attack of quinsy.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan and children motored to Pendleton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pomeroy and daughters Wanda and Joyce have gone to Echo to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Helms.

Austin Swerington of Freewater was visiting one day last week at the J. G. Johnson home. Mr. Swerington and Mr. Johnson are cousins. Mr. Swerington recently cut his hand quite badly while chopping wood.

Mrs. Alex Hunt has returned from the Ben Cox ranch above Heppner where she has been for the past two weeks.

Miss Naomi McMillan spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Helen Doherty at her Blackhorse home.

S. G. McMillan and daughter Eula drove to Pendleton Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slocum went with them.

Shelby Graves, who has been farming the Carmichael place, has moved with his family to the John Miller ranch.

Emmett Kuns left Sunday for an indefinite visit to Portland and other Willamette valley points. On his return trip he will come by way of the Mt. Adams country and pick huckleberries. He was accompanied by Olin Ritchie of Hermiston.

Mrs. S. G. McMillan received word Sunday night of the death of her niece, Mrs. Josie Hechtner Feser at Clarkston, Wash.

Everyone seems to be going huckleberrying these days, so a number of Lexington boys left Sunday in the McMillan truck for Mt. Adams to gather some of the berries. Those going were Wayne, Sam and Jack McMillan, James Valentine, Vernon Scott, Kenneth Warner and Llewellyn Evans.

Mrs. George White had as her guests Monday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Michel and children of Prineville and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hughes and children of Pendleton. Mrs. Michel and Mrs. Hughes are nieces of Mrs. White.

Mrs. Emma Breahears is preparing for the opening of school by getting in a supply of high school books and other school necessities.

Mrs. R. B. Wilcox has moved into the Eskelson house where she will remain during the school year to send the children to school.

Wilma and James Leach left Tuesday for Camp Sherman where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Leach at their summer home. They plan to do some fishing also before they return.

Norman young son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruhl, had his hand and arm quite painfully injured when he caught it in the wringer of the washing machine Monday. Although the hand and arm were badly bruised, no bones were broken.

Miss Velle Ward, who has been spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ola Ward, left Friday for Corvallis where she is employed.

Mrs. William Crowe and daughter June who have been visiting relatives and friends here for the past few weeks, have returned to their home in British Columbia.

The Harry Duvall home was the scene of a very pleasant party on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Harry Duvall, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Hunt and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, surprised her daughter, Erma, with a dinner party. Seated at the table were Helen Valentine, Ruth Dinges, Eula McMillan, Erma Lane, Mae Gentry, Gwen Evans, Peggy Warner and Erma Duvall. Dutch decorations were used, the table centerpiece being an entire dachshund colony with huts, windmills, etc. Little Misses Marcella Jackson and Louise Hunt, dressed in dutch costumes, served the guests. The evening was spent playing bridge and high score was won by Peggy Warner.

IONE

later, enter college. Miss Normoyle is a graduate of the Ione high school, being a member of the class of 1932. Accompanying her as far as Pendleton were Lake Beckner, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beckner with whom she made her home.

Mrs. N. M. Johnson of the Dry Fork district had most delicious home-grown strawberries on the Ione market Saturday.

Harry Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson, Rhea creek ranchers, is a patient in a Heppner hospital where he underwent a major operation Saturday. The young man is recovering nicely.

Norman Everson left early Tuesday for Portland where he goes to purchase a school bus body for his truck, he being one of the bus drivers for the Ione district. Accompanying him on the trip were Louis Bergevin, Harold Kincaid and Charles Lundell.

Mrs. J. W. Howk and son Alan were shopping in Portland the latter part of the week.

Vernice Crawford is making a trip to the metropolis this week to get a school bus. Mr. Crawford has been given the contract for transporting the pupils from the Ella district to the Ione school.

Walter Dobyns, another of the school bus drivers, has also been in the city getting things in readiness for the opening of school.

Mr. Stevenson has been awarded the contract for bringing the Lone Tree pupils to the Ione schools this year. Last year this route was driven by Walter Corley.

Gene Engelman of Portland is spending a week's vacation with home folks.

Miss Linea Troedson returned last Friday to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johan Troedson, after a most enjoyable trip to Honolulu. Miss Troedson will teach again this year in the Echo high school, which begins September 1st. This will be her fourth consecutive year as a member of the Echo faculty. Mrs. John Benson (nee Miss Hildegarde Williams) who made the trip to the Hawaiian Islands with Miss Troedson, was married August 10, the day before their boat sailed for home. Mr. and Mrs. Benson will make their home in Honolulu where Mr. Benson holds a position with the Mackay Radio and Telegraph company.

A nine and one half pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson Monday, August 29. The mother and baby are being cared for at the home of Mrs. Fred Ritchie in upper Ione.

Denward and Betty Bergevin who have been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin, Sr., of Gibbon, will return home the middle of the week that they may be here for the opening of school.

Ralph Harris has been spending a few days at home. He will shortly resume his road work with headquarters at Irrigon.

Stanley Seely has been looking for a house to rent in Ione. Mr. and Mrs. Seely are former residents of this district who have lately been making their home at Camas, Wn. Mr. Seely states that he has bought farm land in the Gooseberry district but that he cannot get possession of it until next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley of Salem were recent business visitors in this part of the state. They own land near Morgan farmed by one of the Ely brothers.

Recent guests at the Elmer Griffith home in Morgan were Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Turner of Santa Marie, Calif. From Morgan they went to Union and Baker where they have relatives, being accompanied there by Mr. Turner's mother, Mrs. Kittie Turner, who has been spending some time with Mrs. Griffith. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Griffith are sisters.

The Past Noble Grand club met August 19 at the home of Mrs. Lee Howell. Ladies enjoying her hospitality were Mrs. J. W. Howk, Mrs. Ernest Heliker, Mrs. Emil Swanson, Mrs. Cleo Drake, Mrs. Blaine Blackwell and Miss Norma Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hale and daughter Miriam returned home Saturday from a pleasant auto trip to the home of Mrs. Hale's sister, Mrs. Hiram West at Clarkston.

Wash., to the home of a brother, Mont McMurray near Lewiston, and to the home of another brother, Clarence McMurray at Mullan, Idaho. Going with the Hales to Clarkston was Mrs. Emily McMurray who did not return with them but remained for a more extended visit with her children residing in Washington and Idaho.

The Edward A. Lindken family were out of town for a few days, returning Tuesday. They are seeking a new location, and we understand will move to Woodburn.

BOARDMAN

RACHEL JOHNSON
Mrs. Claud Meyers, who has been ill for the past week, was taken to the Hermiston hospital Monday morning for medical treatment.

Mrs. Meyers' sister, Mrs. George Bottler, and daughter of Woodlawn, Wash., came Friday for a short visit at the Meyers home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Messenger and Lois motored to Sunnyside Saturday and returned home Sunday bringing a large quantity of peaches back with them.

Mrs. Tom Delano was hostess at a party Thursday afternoon given in honor of Mrs. LaHugh.

Mrs. A. A. Agee will have charge of the school cafeteria this year. The menu for the lunches has been changed for this year and the price will be lower. One hot dish and milk will be served, the hot dish to sell for 3c and a glass of milk for 2c.

Mrs. Weston was taken to Echo Friday where she will stay for a time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Neil Blakeley.

The third crop of alfalfa hay is being cut on a number of farms this week.

Lloyd Mallory of Biggs was a Boardman visitor this week.

Miss Gladys Graves returned home Monday from Lexington where she has been working during harvest at the home of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill La Londe of Heppner are visiting this week with Mrs. La Londe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ayers.

Frank and Jane McMenamin of Portland were business visitors in Boardman last week.

Mrs. Anna Furrer and family of Hermiston spent Thursday at the Alfred Skoubo home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow and Mrs. T. E. Messenger and family returned home Saturday from a trip to Corvallis and Oregon City. On Monday Mr. Barlow took Mrs. Messenger and children to their home in Pendleton.

Miss Nellie Dillon of Portland is visiting at home this week.

Mrs. Lilly and family and Mrs. Wendal from Coyote spent the week end in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Raney and Miss Mabel Brown visited a short time Thursday at the Kennedy home.

An unusually small crowd attended the budget meeting in the school house Monday afternoon, when the school budget was accepted by a vote of 12-9.

Miss Gladys Wicklander of La Grande is visiting with Boardman friends this week.

The premium lists for the North Morrow County fair which is to be held in Irrigon Sept. 16 and 17, are now printed and copies can be obtained at the postoffice. There will be a baseball game on Friday at 2:00 p. m. Various sports will be held Saturday afternoon and there will also be 4-H club demonstrations Saturday, and the big dance in the evening will close the fair's program.

An interesting camper at the Red & White camp ground this week is Charles H. Farnsworth of Tualatin, Ore. He is traveling with his malemute dog team and wagon and is on his way to the Pendleton Round-Up where he will be in the parade. Mr. Farnsworth, who is a trapper, is very small, being four feet two inches tall and weighing about 74 pounds. His dog team has been quite an attraction in town. They are both black and are said to be part wolf and German police. He will spend the winter in the Blue mountains trapping.

The thorough-bred 4-H sheep club of which Nels Kristensen is the leader, motored to Pendleton Wednesday where they attended a demonstration of show animals at the Oregon Ram sale and stables of the Eastern Oregon hospital. The members who went were Geo. Wicklander, John and Stanley Partlow, Robert Gregg and Maxine, Delbert and Edgar Machan.

8 p. m., Song service and gospel message, "We would See Jesus," (continued).

"We Would See Jesus," not only because of what He is in His matchless person, but also because of what He is and does for man. He is man's Saviour from sin. "Thou shalt save His people from their sins." If Jesus were merely a perfect example or a matchless teacher for man, then He could not encompass man's deepest needs. Sin is the terrible tragedy, the intolerable yoke in every human life. Our highest and eternal joy in seeing Jesus, is in seeing Him as our Saviour from sin. By His expiatory death on the cross, "the just for the unjust," Jesus answers the eternal vital question how a guilty sinner may have forgiveness and salvation and happiness here and forevermore.

Jesus will be Lord of all, or He will not be Lord at all. The reason why so many people get so little out of their religion is because they put so little into it. If man would see Jesus, see Him to the deepest joy of their hearts, then for all this they must pay the requisite price of surrender to Him. We invite you to all our services this coming Sunday.
