

IONE

The sheep are being brought out of the mountains this week.

Pat Healy corralled two bands of sheep in town Saturday night. They were being taken to the stubble fields on the Smith ranches.

Mrs. Henry Pierce of Modesto, California, departed the first of last week for Toppenish, Wash. She had been spending a couple of months with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Christopherson of this place, and in the Washington city will visit her husband's people.

Hank Adams was taken ill last week while at work in his wood camp near Parkers Mill. He was moved to Heppner to the nearest physician who found Mr. Adams suffering with pleuro-pneumonia. The sick man was taken to Arlington by auto and from there went by train to Portland where he is being cared for in the Veteran's hospital.

Miss Lillie Allinger, cashier of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National bank of Heppner, and her mother, Mrs. Charles Allinger of this place, were out-going passengers on the train Wednesday night of last week. Miss Allinger is on her vacation, a part of which the two ladies will spend in Portland.

Principal George E. Tucker represented the Ione schools at the meeting of school principals held Tuesday of last week in the county school superintendent's office, Heppner.

At about seven-thirty Saturday morning fire was discovered in the home of Mrs. Minnie Forbes. No one was at home at the time, Mrs. Forbes having gone to the Grimes home on Second street where she is housekeeper for several of the teachers and Mrs. John Osteen having gone to her work in the telephone office. Prompt work on the part of the volunteer fire fighters extinguished the flame which seemed to have started in the wood box near the cook stove. Considerable damage was done to the wall and linoleum and to the stove which was cracked by having the cold water thrown on it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson left Friday for a few days sojourn in the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes left last week for their farm home near Eugene, where they plan on spending the winter.

The Eastern Star ladies held an all-day meeting at Masonic hall Tuesday, and a pot-luck dinner was served at noon. While the ladies were busy cleaning the interior of the building, the gentlemen cleaned the yard. If you think those ladies are not real interior decorators, we invite you to inspect their work when the job is completed.

Sam Hatch is ill with the flu. Mr. Hatch, who is in charge of the Standard Oil plant here, feels that this is an inopportune time to be sick as the Heppner man is on vacation and Hatch with his helper, Ted Geiser of Arlington, are looking after both plants.

Miss Alice Patterson of Rhea creek is staying with Mrs. Sam Hatch and attending high school.

The Women's Topic club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lana Padberg on Rhea creek. Nineteen ladies were present. The study hour was devoted to Australia. Papers were read by Mrs. Roy Ljeuallen, Mrs. Sam Hatch and Mrs. Carl Feldman. The club has arranged to have Mrs. Walter Pierce speak in Ione at some future date, announcement of which will be made later. At the close of a pleasant afternoon, Mrs. Padberg served her guests delicious pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee.

Saturday evening as Milton Morgan, Jr. was returning from Heppner his car was side-swiped by a passing car driven by a man from Hardman. The Hardman man was blinded by the lights of another car and did not see the Morgan car at all. Both cars were badly damaged, but no one was hurt. Young Morgan thinks it is tough luck to have his car wrecked on home roads only a few hours after he had returned from a trip of over seven thousand miles during which he had had no accidents and no car trouble except a few flats.

Mrs. Elmo McMillan and daughter, Beverly June, returned Saturday to their home in Salem after spending the summer her. Mrs. McMillan was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emil Swanson, who will visit for a short time in Salem. Fred Pointer of Lexington drove the car for the ladies.

Fred McMurray and his sister, Mrs. Ray Robison, drove to Clarkston, Wash., Sunday, returning on Tuesday. While there they visited relatives and on the return trip were accompanied by Mrs. Emily McMurray who had been spending some time with her children residing near Clarkston and Lewiston.

In the letters which the friends here receive from Mrs. Edward A. Lindeken, she states that they are pleased with their home in Woodburn and each week enjoy reading the Heppner Gazette Times. She also states that her son, Carl, is a member of the Hubbard community band, an organization of thirty pieces which was one of the bands furnishing music at the state fair.

In the football game Friday at Arlington the score was 18-0 in favor of Ione. This was the first game of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beckner and two nephews, Eugene and Harry Normoye, departed early Tuesday morning on a motor trip to the old home in West Virginia.

Faye Luttrell and Vernon Munkers picnicked in the mountains Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles, Mrs. Chas. Inderbitzen and Miss Betsy Asher went to Condon Sunday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Earl Warner and George Bradley each brought in a deer from the mountains during the week. Lawrence Copenhaver injured his

Exposition to be Better Than Ever

Arthur L. Fields, president, Portland Chamber of Commerce, samples milk of Hazel Col. Rag Apple DeKol, prize winning cow to be exhibited at Pacific International, Portland, October 15-22. Harry L. Corbett, past president, Pacific International, at the pumps.

Western livestock exhibitors will have a better chance of winning cash prizes and awards this year at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition's competition for the $75,000 premium list, provided by the state, Multnomah county and breeders' associations, according to O. M. Plummer, General Manager of the Pacific International. The Exposition will be held in Portland, Oregon, October 15-22, inclusive. While the show is expected to be even more complete than in the past, eastern exhibitors will have smaller representations than usual. This will leave the awards open almost exclusively to western entrants.

Besides the Dairy and Beef Cattle Shows which always occupy an important place in the Livestock Exposition, an unusually fine collection of pure bred animals in all other divisions, including sheep, goats, heavy draft horses, dogs, poultry, rabbits, fish and game will be exhibited. There will also be the usual Industrial Show, Dairy and Land Products Show, Wool and Mohair Show, the Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club exhibits and Smith-Hughes Vocational Education exhibits and activities.

In addition to these, this year's Exposition offers as a new and thrilling entertainment feature the country's leading rodeo, McCarty-Elliott, with their complete string of bucking horses including the famous "Midnight", the mount that "has never been ridden". At least twenty-five championship buckaroos and women riders will compete for the $10,000 in prize awards, in the Exposition's big arena, the first indoor rodeo held in the Pacific Northwest, giving the public a close-up view of all events. The rodeo will show at eight matinee and seven evening performances.

This is the twenty-second annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, the Pacific-west's great educational event, and its way of drawing the spotlight of the world on it as a country outstanding in agricultural products.

Reduced round trip fares to Portland for the Exposition, October 15-22, have been announced by all railroads.

leg one day last week while putting up hay at the R. B. Wilcox ranch. Friday evening after school Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingles, Mrs. Chas. Inderbitzen and Miss Betsy Asher motored to Pendleton, where Mr. Ingles attended a principal's meeting.

Friday afternoon at the school the first and second graders, assisted by their teacher, Mrs. LaVelle White, entertained their mothers. The youngsters served refreshments to the guests.

Lena Blahm of Heppner was calling on friends in Lexington Wednesday.

On Friday afternoon the members of the seventh and eighth grades surprised their teacher, Mrs. Frank Turner, with a party, the occasion being her birthday. The young people served refreshments which had been smuggled in during the noon hour. Mrs. Turner was presented with a lovely clock.

Mrs. Jack Hynd Jr. of Ceell has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Shelby Graves.

Fred Lucas and Lester White have gone to the mountains again in quest of deer, as also has Orville Cutsforth.

Recent guests at Lucas Place were E. E. Broughten and J. H. Broughten of White Salmon, Wn.

Mr. Carty of Portland, A. B. Montgomery of Portland, M. B. Vincent of Walla Walla, T. Gaiser of Arlington and Bert Snyder of Yakima. A football game took place Tuesday afternoon between the high school boys and the boys of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, with a resulting score of 6-0 in favor of the grade boys.

Miss Jessie McCabe has as her guest this week her friend, Miss Hamm of Washougal, Wash.

Rev. and Mrs. Sias are spending the week in Fossil.

Mrs. Kathryn Slocum is contemplating moving to Heppner soon.

A. B. Montgomery, who is with the Oregon-Washington Joint Stock Land bank of Portland, was attending to matters of business in Lexington last week.

source, a sure source, of inward peace and calmness. The great God is that source. "He that believeth." He who has set his mind on God, in simple faith and trust, has that inward peace and calm. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee." If our hope of peace and rest and inward calm is stayed on material things and possessions, little peace or rest will be found. The mind of man must be stayed on God if man would show surcease from fret and worry. And the man whose mind is stayed on God has the peace and quietness of God in his soul.

Do you go to Church? Do you have a Church home? If you do not attend Church, and if you do not have a Church home, then we cordially invite you to come and fellowship and worship with us. Attend our Bible School and services of worship. Come and test the welcome of this friendly Church. For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: For the morning worship, "The Hands of Christ." And for the evening service, "Casting on the Right Side."

How Haste Makes Waste. "He that believeth shall not make haste." Isaiah 28:16.

Some people are always in a feverish haste. They go at everything they do in a great hurry and flurry. They never seem to be able to do anything quietly and calmly.

The Hebrew for "make haste" may be translated "fuss." "He that believeth shall not fuss." The meaning is as when we say a person is "fussed up." Some people are "fussed up" all the time. They acquire a nervous, restless disposition. Over the smallest matters they become excited, flustered, fretted.

This unfit them for their best work. None of us can do his best work in a feverish, restless state of mind. Nothing hinders more in life than restlessness. It disquiets the mind, so that we cannot think clearly. It weakens and unnerves us. There is such a thing as "haste that makes waste."

The man who accomplishes the most is the quiet, calm man. He does not fume and fret and froth and fuss over what he has to do, but he gets it done all the sooner and all the better. We can only do our best work when we have peace and calmness in our heart. And there is one, and only one Breach." 6:30 p. m., Epworth League. 7:30 p. m., Song service and gospel message, "The Boiling Heart." Joshua 24:15, "We will serve the Lord." The church asks some of our time. It does not ask much—only a few hours in the entire week. But even that is sometimes more than we are willing to give. Time spent for work and recreation sometimes absorbs all the time we have for the church. The plea of necessary work and of desirable recreation may be valid in its place but if we let it, bit by bit, crowd out the church, as the camel crowded the Arab out of the tent, we are putting secondary things in primary place. "Do you let the secondary things of life go thundering through on the main line while the principal things of life stand on the sidetrack? If you do, switch the trains."
