A GOOD TEAM.

HEPPNER high school's football team "clicked" in the game against Athena last Friday afternoon and came out on top with a 20-0 win.

CHANGING THE CONSTITUTION. CHANGING the Constitution is a legislative matter exclusively.

These things being true how really illogical and absurd it is for any voter to allow his ballot for President to be influenced by the utterance of a national platform on the question of prohibition!

But we are electing a President, a man who shall be the leader, not only of America but of the whole world.

"In the race after false gods of materialism men and groups have forgotten their country. Equality of opportunity contains no conception of exploitation by any selfish, ruthless, class-minded men or groups.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

MARY A. NOTSON, Reporter.

Kansas, a pioneering state in the cause of prohibition, is made the butt of many jokes because of its dry attitude.

"The representatives of Organized Labor have in the present economic crisis a heaven-sent opportunity to press for economic reform—unemployment insurance, better labor management, a shorter working week, a lower tariff, higher social services, or what not. They prefer to put their trust in beer."

A large proportion of the accidents are found to be caused by the folks who insist so much on "personal liberty" with respect to liquor that they proceed to incapacitate as safe auto drivers, wholly regardless of the consequences to others.

James B. Clark. If prosperity can be restored by legalizing beer, why is it that England and Germany are not prosperous? They certainly have an abundance of beer, yet conditions are much worse in those countries than in the United States. Alcohol is a toxic poisoning. Even very small quantities affect the nerves. Sir Arthur Newsholme, eminent British medical authority, says that one tablespoonful of whiskey or one glass of beer will slow down the muscular reaction from the normal rate of one-fifth of a second to two-fifths of a second, and in some instances to four-fifths of a second.

Bringing Her Into Port

OPTIMISM URGED BY DR. W. J. KERR

Spirit of Service, Achievement Advocated; Education Never More Vital Than Now.

Students at Oregon State college were urged to view the future with optimism and determination by Dr. W. J. Kerr, new chancellor of higher education, in his first general address to the student body this year.

"Never forget the gratitude you owe to parents or others who are sacrificing to make it possible for you to be here to receive these great educational advantages," he added.

Green Feed Helps Turkeys

Grants Pass—Large supplies of green feed available for turkeys raised in Josephine county is a great advantage in keeping the birds healthy and in cutting the cost of production, according to opinions of experts who made a recent county "turkey tour" arranged by the county agent.

Efforts are being made here to form a unit of the Oregon Turkey Producers Cooperative association.
