MINIOTH AND STREET

LEXINGTON

Among Lexington people in Port land this week are Lonnie Henderson, Mrs. Sarah White and daughter La Verne. H. N. Burchell of Sheridan and Charlie Burchell of Corvallis were transacting business in Lexington the first part of the week. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burchell. The high school girls are divided into two teams, the Pirates and the Cobras, for volleyball. They played their first game Monday afternoon with a resulting score of 31 to 27 in favor of the Pirates. Those playing were, Pirates: Faye Luttrell, Erma Lane, Rose Thornburg, Betty Doherty, Gladys Rean ey and Tillie Nelson; Cobras; Ferr Luttrell, Edith Tucker, Edith Edwards, Belva Bundy, Zelma Bundy and Helen Breshears.

The Boy Scouts were busy Satur day building a fence around their cabin and making other needed im provements.

James Leach left Monday by auto for Portland where he will spend the winter.

N. A. Leach of Portland was look ing after property interests in this city Wednesday and Thursday. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnett.

Lexington was well represented in Portland over the week end. Among those going down to the city were Miss Betsy Asher, George Gillis, Mrs. A. Reaney, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Miller, Harry Dinges and son, Danny, and Miss Eula McMillan. Miss Asher, Miss McMillan and Mr. Gillis returned Sunday evening but Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Reaney, Mr. Dinges and Danny did not arrive in Lexington until late Monday

Mrs. Sarah Booher has as her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parvin, also of Palouse. Mrs. Booher was not expecting these relatives, fine articles and beautiful pictures so she was very pleasantly surprised when they came in Monday and adventurous expeditions.

Thornburg has returned from Portland where he has been tive articles on all the topics of the during the past week.

David Hynd and his sister, Miss Annie Hynd and Miss Nellie Doney of Rose Lawn ranch, Sand Hollow, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breshears, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stockard and son, Shirley, of Hermiston were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sunday. On their way home they stopped in to see Mr. and Mrs.

IN THE HEPPNER taken from the leading current

In this column it is intended to tell you each week about some new books or magazines which may be borrowed from the Heppner Public library. It is hoped to acquaint more people with this growing institution and the number of worthwhile books on the shelves.

Recently the library has subscribed to five new magazines and these will be loaned out to the borrowers. This list includes the Naguests this week her daughter, Mrs. tional Geographic, Time, Reader's Effie Parkins of Palouse, Wash., Digest. The Saturday Evening Post and Popular Science.

A very devout preacher was promotetd to a position of higher standing in the church. As he was entering his new position he said, "I shall stand fast in the faith and not be afraid. I shall neither lament a past which is no more, nor dream fatuously of a future which is not here. Man's duty bears on a single point—what shall he do in the present moment? The present then is the only moment to consider; it is God's will that today we worship, that today we extol, and be it with fear and trembling in our hearts, courageously perform."
"Fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Let us live now so in the tomorrow there will be no regrets. This is our day of service, our day to exalt righteousness, our day to teach and preach the unsearchable riches of Christ. Let us not fail the Lord in these critical days but prove our loyalty and love for Him. You are welcome to all our ser-
