

Heppner Gazette Times

Volume 49, Number 33.

HEPPNER, OREGON, THURSDAY, Oct. 27, 1932.

Subscription $2.00 a Year

BANK MORATORIUM DECLARED TODAY

First National Closes in Good Condition; Farmers Bank Open.

ATTITUDE HELPFUL

Stringent Situation Over Eastern
Oregon Said Cause; People Hold
Key to Local Stability.

As set forth in the proclamation of Mayor McCarty, published today, a moratorium has been declared for a period of 30 days, from October 27 to November 26, inclusive. In this proclamation the mayor sets forth fully the reasons for such action, and is falling in line with a number of other cities in the interior territory that are now facing serious financial difficulties.

Up to date the banking situation at Heppner has been such that business has gone along normally, the reduction in total business and resources shown as statements were published being only in keeping with the general depressed condition and slump brought about by lack of marketing of the products of the territory which the banks serve.

Just recently banks at Pendleton, La Grande, The Dalles, Arlington and other points in eastern Oregon have taken advantage of holiday proclamations, and this has no doubt been the cause of apprehension on the part of the people having money on deposit with the local banks as to their security; it has also caused many stories and rumors which have been to the detriment of the financial institutions, and whether true or not were working an extreme hardship at a time when the officials and directors of these banks were doing all in their power to meet the demands of an extreme situation.

The First National bank of Heppner was forced as a precautionary measure to take advantage of the moratorium, and did not open for business today. We are informed by the officers of the bank that at the close of business last night the reserves were all up to the legal requirements and the bank is in a liquid condition and fully able to carry on the ordinary and normal business of the territory it represents. There are pending a number of very important loans that only await the completion of the necessary details and the funds will be available, and this in sufficient volume to greatly relieve the stress. The bank will remain open for those who wish access to their safety deposit boxes, but there will be no receiving of deposits or cashing of checks and drafts. It is fully expected that at the close of the holiday, or possibly before, business will be going forward as usual in the oldest financial institution of the county. In the meantime, the splendid cooperation of the bank's clientele is appreciated, and its management knows that with the continuation of this all difficulties will be overcome.

This paper, speaking from the standpoint of the best interests of the entire community, will say that there is nothing to be gained by creating distrust of the financial institutions of our little city. Heretofore they have passed through very trying times of stress and panic, to some of which the present is perhaps comparable, but no worse, and they will come through again. So why not be sold on our community and its resources, financial and otherwise, and face the music like the loyal people we are, paying no attention to those few who can always see nothing but the dark side of every cloud that arises.

The Farmers & Stockgrowers National bank is proceeding as usual, and its officials announce that for the present at least there will be no advantage taken of the moratorium. There is no need of the part of the depositors to get nervous, and should this condition continue the city will be served with banking facilities.

PURCHASE FINE BULL

The fine stock of Alfalfa Lawn dairy, the main source of Heppner's milk supply, was added to this week by the purchase of Troutmere Alfalfa, registered Guernsey bull, from the Troutmere farms, Palo Alto, Cal. The animal was purchased by Wightman Bros., Alfalfa Lawn dairy proprietors, at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland this week. Troutmere Alfalfa's registered Guernsey dam was a high producing animal with a production record of 647 pounds of butterfat in 305 days under official test as a three-year-old. She is a granddaughter of Lover Bold, famous Guernsey sire. Wightman also purchased a registered Hampshire gilt at the exposition from the farms of J. M. Pruitts of Cambridge, Idaho. Papers on these animals have not yet been received.

With the close of the deer hunting season Tuesday Heppner saw a final influx of successful hunters returning from their hunt the first of the week. Among local sportsmen getting their buck were Harold Case, Claude Cox, Billy Cox, Earl and Len Gilliam.

IONE

JENNIE E. McMURRAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowell and two children of Kennewick, Wash., have arrived in Ione to spend the winter with Mrs. Rowell's father, George Frank.

Mrs. Wallace Matthews, guardian of the Camp Fire Girls, was hostess at a waffle party last Thursday evening at her home on Third street. Camp Fire Girls present were Annabelle and Charlotte McCabe, Vivian and Genevieve Ball, Betty Bergvin, Maxine McCurdy, Valjean Clark, Mildred Lundell, Bethel Blake, Sybil Howell, Virginia and Katherine Griffith, Miriam Hale and Bertha Akers. Special guests were Helen Lundell, Dorothy Howell and Margaret Ely. The next meeting of the camp will be Saturday at Mrs. Matthews' home. Mrs. Bart Mason, assistant guardian, will be present and the girls will begin work on their headbands.

Following the regular lodge session Thursday evening the Rebekahs held a jolly Halloween party. The lodge room was appropriately decorated and Halloween games were played until refreshments were served; after that dancing was enjoyed.

Mrs. Roy Brown, her daughter, Mrs. Harold Guiland, and grandson, Phillip, spent the week end with Mr. Brown on the ranch near Stanfield.

Guests at the Louis Bergvin home Saturday and Sunday were Mrs. Anna Wright, Roberta Wright, Adria Brinton, Byron Brinton and William Duncan, all of Baker. When they returned to their home they were accompanied by Mrs. Bergvin who will spend a week with her mother, Mrs. J. C. King.

Little interest was taken in the special school election held Saturday at the school house for the purpose of voting on the budget as prepared by the board. Twelve persons were present and eleven votes cast, ten yes and one no. The estimated cost of running the school for 1932-33 is $19,311.23. The per capita cost for educating children in the Ione grade school last year was $59.80 and for high school pupils $199.25.

Mrs. Tom Grabbill is suffering with a badly sprained ankle, the result of a fall she received while engaged in her home work.

Mrs. Sam Hatch was hostess at a delightful luncheon Saturday afternoon honoring Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande. At this time the members of the Women's Topic club had the pleasure of listening to an interesting talk by Mrs. Pierce. During the afternoon Mrs. Pierce spoke at a public meeting in Masonic hall. Her talk was based on the proposed constitutional amendments and measures to be submitted to the voters of Oregon Tuesday, November 8. Again in the evening Mrs. Pierce spoke at a public meeting in Legion hall. Her talk of the evening was preceded by an address by ex-Governor Pierce.

Many of our people attended the pioneers' reunion at Lexington Saturday and report a large crowd and fine entertainment.

The football banquet given Saturday evening by the Girls' league was indeed a happy affair. The Congregational church dining room was beautifully decorated in the high school colors. The center piece for each table was a realistic football field peopled by husky football players made of jelly beans and toothpicks. The menu was chicken, dressing, gravy, potatoes, corn, salad, pickles, jelly, pumpkin pie and coffee. The program consisted of Victory song, words of welcome by Margaret Ely, response by Joel Engelman, and Nuts to Crack. Guests were Coach Tucker and the squad: Earl Pettyjohn, Leo Llewellyn, Joel Engelman, Bert Akers, Lloyd Morgan, Howard Eubanks, Donald Heliker, Robert Batts, Walter Bristow, Charles Carlson, Clifford McCabe, Donald McElligott, Arthur Bergstrom, Charles O'Conner, Ellis Pettyjohn, Paul Pettyjohn, Lew Pettyjohn, Harlan McCurdy, Lewis Beezley and Henry Buschke.

Mrs. J. E. Swanson returned home Sunday after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Elmo McMillan, at Salem. Mrs. Swanson was accompanied by a friend, Miss Irene Miller, who will be her house guest for a while. Tebe Wiles has returned from Hood River where he had employment during the apple harvest. Miss Ruby Padberg returned home Friday after a pleasant week in Condon with Mrs. James Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson were in an auto accident Wednesday of last week when Mrs. Peterson who was driving, received a severe chest injury and a cut on the arm from broken glass and Mr. Peterson received bruises and cuts. Mrs. Peterson lost control of the car when on the highway near home and the car overturned with disastrous results to the occupants.

The Boy Scouts had their first meeting Tuesday following the summer vacation. Alfred Balsiger resumed his work as scoutmaster, with Lake Becker as assistant. Fred Mankin had been acting scout master during the summer when Balsiger was employed in Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barlow are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Barlow's sister, Mrs. Lee Howell. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow have been employed on the Grant Olden ranch since the harvest rush was over at Jordan elevator.

Charles Sorber, one time leading carpenter of Ione, was greeting old friends in town one day last week.

(Continued on Page Six)

Hugh Brady, Independent, Gives Stand for Congress

Hugh Brady of La Grande told the Heppner Lions club at its Monday noon luncheon the highlights of his platform as an independent candidate for congress from the second Oregon district. He declared that Butler, republican nominee, could only point to the administration as his record of achievement, while filling the office, and that Pierce, democrat, promised to employ his wife as secretary at a salary of $500 a year in addition to his own salary of $10,000, should he be elected. Pierce's promise was given as an example of the salary graft which Brady condemned and at which he aims in a platform plank endorsing a horizontal cut of fifty per cent in all government salaries of $10,000 or over.

Brady's platform endorses repeal of eighteenth amendment; immediate cash payment of soldiers' bonus; making enlarged banking institutions of U. S. postal savings bank; developing of Columbia river; legislation for rehabilitation of agriculture, livestock and lumber industries; moratorium on grazing fees; inspection and labeling of American manufactured woolsens showing content of virgin American wool; old age pension and unemployment insurance, and federal regulation of bus lines.

Earl W. Gordon, play committee chairman, announced working committees to help in staging "Safety First." Lions play to be given November 4 and 5, as follows: properties, M. L. Case, Earl Eskelson, Frank Turner, Spencer Crawford; country store, C. W. Smith; tickets, Gay M. Anderson, Dr. A. D. McCurdy, Edward F. Bloom, P. W. Mahoney; back stage, Al Rankin, C. R. Ripley, Earl Eskelson. Mrs. Crockett Sprouls and Miss Doris Hiatt favored with two pleasing vocal duets accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Ripley at the piano.

ELMER MUSGRAVE KILLS BIG BUCK

Leads for Hardware Company
Prize; Good Season Reported
With Last Minute Influx.

Elmer Musgrave of Hardman will win the fine rifle offered by the Peoples Hardware company for the heaviest scored deer weighed in over their horns and may make a strong bid for the $50 cash prize offered by the Peters Arms company for the heaviest scored deer killed in the state of Oregon, unless a buck weighing more than 244 pounds shows up. That is the weight of Musgrave's buck, so far the heaviest entered in the local contest.

All told 17 bucks were weighed in over the local hardware company scales, the largest number since the inception of the contest several years ago. This represents but a small proportion of the total number brought into Heppner as only those who believed their deer had a chance to win the prizes went to the trouble of weighing them in the contest.

E. A. Bennett of the hardware company believes the past season has been a very successful one, with easily as many deer killed as in past years. Hunting conditions were poor early in the season because of the extremely dry condition of the forest. But good rains later assisted the hunters with an increased proportion of successful hunts as the season closed.

Mr. Bennett, himself, among those making their bags, said he was alarmed before the season opened by reports of many deer having been winter-killed. His fears of the game being decreased faded, however, on finding more sign of bucks and easily as many doe with fawn on his trip to his accustomed hunting grounds. His report is largely substantiated by other veteran hunters.

All those who weighed in bucks at the hardware company during the season with the weight of their bag, hog-dressed, are: W. O. Bayless 198, Milton Spurlock 216, James Monahan 189, Max Buschke 220, Mrs. Chas. Latourelle 220, Pete McMillan 217, Fern Hinton 223, Sam Gross 223, Merle Cummings 216, Wm. Greener 222 1/2, Wayne Neil 230, Bill Buschke 221, Fay Pettyjohn 221, Fred Mankin 187 1/2, Ollie Salling 185, Elmer Musgrave 244, Harold Case 216.

Morrow Oil Company To Hear Co-op Plan

Homer Young, representative of the Union Oil Co. Cooperative of North Kansas City, will tell of his company's plan of supplying gasoline and oil needs of farmers at a meeting of members of the Morrow Oil company and other persons interested in purchasing gasoline and oil in Lexington at 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, according to an announcement of officers of the local company.

The company represented by Mr. Young is said to be now supplying more than a 1000 consumer companies through their cooperative plan. The Umatilla Oil company, an organization similar to the local company, is being supplied by them.

Mr. Iramonger of Fossil and party passed through Heppner yesterday morning with a pair of perfectly matched bucks tied to their car.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the present prices of wheat and all other farm commodities in the vicinity of the City of Heppner are generally lower than the prices of production, and

WHEREAS, the present depression has caused the withdrawal of money from financial institutions to such an extent that loans from such institutions are limited, and individuals are hoarding their savings to the extent that money is practically withdrawn from circulation, and

WHEREAS, it has become practically impossible for the individuals and other institutions to meet their maturing obligations without forcing on the market an immense amount of grain and other commodities at the ruinous prices and the resulting financial disaster to the citizens of Heppner and of the surrounding community generally, and if withdrawals and other activities can be suspended for a short period, and the citizens generally can be permitted to market their products in an orderly manner and without forced sale and sacrifice to meet their obligations, the stability of the community can be assured.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, W. G. McCarty, as Mayor of the City of Heppner, by virtue of the authority in me vested to act for the common good, peace and happiness and financial welfare of our citizens, do hereby declare and appoint

Thursday, the 27th day of October, 1932,

Friday, the 28th day of October, 1932,

Saturday, the 29th day of October, 1932,

Monday, the 31st day of October, 1932,

Tuesday, the 1st day of November, 1932,

Wednesday, the 2nd day of November, 1932,

Thursday, the 3rd day of November, 1932,

Friday, the 4th day of November, 1932,

Saturday, the 5th day of November, 1932,

Monday, the 7th day of November, 1932,

Wednesday, the 9th day of November, 1932,

Thursday, the 10th day of November, 1932,

Saturday, the 12th day of November, 1932,

Monday, the 14th day of November, 1932,

Tuesday, the 15th day of November, 1932,

Wednesday, the 16th day of November, 1932,

Thursday, the 17th day of November, 1932,

Friday, the 18th day of November, 1932,

Saturday, the 19th day of November, 1932,

Monday, the 21st day of November, 1932,

Tuesday, the 22nd day of November, 1932,

Wednesday, the 23rd day of November, 1932,

Friday, the 25th day of November, 1932,

Saturday, the 26th day of November, 1932,

as legal holidays within the City of Heppner, Oregon, and during the period of such holidays to earnestly urge that every citizen of the City of Heppner and community at large to join in a sincere and determined undertaking to preserve the credit and standing of our citizens and institutions, and urge that all banks within the City of Heppner having control of grain and other commodities refrain from forcing the same or urging the sale thereof at the present low prices of enforcing the collection of obligations secured by such commodities.

WITNESS my hand this 26th day of October, 1932.

W. G. McCARTY, Mayor.

TO IMPROVE HERDS.

Going to Portland Tuesday, Jay Hiatt will pick up a truckload of young bulls, purchased at the close of the International Livestock exposition last week. Of this number Mr. Hiatt is getting six head of registered Holsteins, and R. A. Thompson three head of registered Short-horns. The Holsteins are from the farm of Wm. E. Emery of McCleary, Oregon. Mr. Hiatt figures on disposing of the animals to various cattlemen for use on the cattle reserve. Mr. Thompson will place his stock with his cattle on the Sanford canyon ranch.

RASCAL PLACES SECOND.

Al Rankin's Rascal, otherwise known as Rankin's Sonny Boy, prominent local English bull pup owned by the proprietor of Hotel Heppner, placed second in his class at the kennel show held in connection with the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland last week. Mr. Rankin was well pleased with the honor considering that Rascal was the youngest of the many dogs entered in his class. It was hardly in the cards for him to place first," Al said.

TO HONOR ANNIVERSARIES.

Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star is holding a pot-luck dinner at Masonic hall Friday (tomorrow) evening, in honor of the 50th wedding anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Justus and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilliam. Members of the order are urged to be present, the word given out by Mrs. Florence Hughes, worthy matron.

Produce Market—At Mrs. Mary

Bartholomew's place. Winter potatoes, apples, cooking squash, sweet cider, fall turnips. Reduced prices. Will trade for wheat. 33tf.

Firms Respond 100 Pct. In Behalf Country Store

More than $100 worth of merchandise will be given away in seat prizes the two nights of "Safety First," Lions club production, on the nights of Friday and Saturday, Nov. 4-5, as the result of a 100 percent response of all business firms contacted to support the "Country Store," one of the features of the evening. C. W. Smith, in charge of the feature, says other contributors are welcome, announcing those signed up as follows:

Gazette Times, Gordon's, Huston's Grocery, Peterson's Jewelry, Case Furniture Co., Elkhorn Restaurant, Hiatt & Dix, Wilson's, Mrs. M. L. Curran, Pacific Power & Light Co., Patterson & Son, J. C. Penney Co., Thomson Bros., Ferguson Motor Co., Gilliam & Bisbee, E. N. Gonty, M. D. Clark, Peoples Hardware Co., MacMarr's Vaughn & Goodwin, Humphreys Drug Co., Sanitary Bakery, Burkenbine's Market, Central Market, Morrow County Creamery Co., Meatee & Allen, O'Donnell's Pastime, Standard Stations Inc., C. W. Barlow, Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., P. A. Molahan, Bert Kane, Hughes & Hughes, Shelly Baldwin.

Plans for the presentation are progressing apace, promising a big entertainment each evening, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 4-5.

LAY MEETING PLANS.

C. W. Smith, secretary of Eastern Oregon Wheat league, and members of the Condon Commercial club met at Hotel Condon Tuesday evening to lay plans for staging the annual meeting of the league in the Gilliam county city on December 2-3. Mr. Smith told the club members what facilities would be required for staging the meeting, and the members in turn promised enthusiastic cooperation in providing everything asked. Mr. Smith was accompanied by Jasper Crawford of the Gazette Times.

ELKS WILL HOLD ELECTION PARTY

Local Lodge Arranges to Hear Returns, With Social Program and Message from Grand Ruler.

A large attendance is expected at the Elks club rooms Tuesday evening, November 8th, at which time an Election party will be held in connection with a special social program featuring an address by the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, Judge Floyd E. Thompson of Moline, Illinois. A dance and dinner will provide a diversity of entertainment.

Judge Thompson's message establishes a precedent as it will be the first time that a Grand Exalted Ruler of the order employs the medium of an electrical phonograph transcription to talk to all of the 1,500 Elks clubs throughout the United States at one time. The address will be given precisely at 11 p. m., which is an hour of special significance for the Elks.

In addition to a delightful program of social activities, the members and their friends, who are also invited, will hear a minute-by-minute broadcast of the latest election returns and the fine spirit of fair-play to which the Order of Elks is dedicated, being strictly non-political and non-sectarian assures all who attend a most enjoyable evening. "No matter who wins," says Exalter Ruler D. A. Wilson, "it is going to be a fine party. The Order of Elks has no political preferences but instead is pledged to a 100 percent Americanism which accepts the choice of the people and loyally supports that choice."

It is anticipated that Judge Thompson's address will be both interesting and informative as he is considered to be one of the nation's outstanding speakers, a record which he earned in his tenure of many important elective offices of his state, the last of which was chief justice of the supreme court of Illinois.

The regular meeting of the lodge will be held tonight.

Large Crop of Turkeys To be Harvested Here

As the close of the season arrives, Chas. Klinger, perhaps the largest producer of turkeys in the county, will begin the task of getting his poultry on the market. Mr. Klinger has raised a total of 1700 turkeys this year, and he will soon start the kill of 1500 of these for the Portland market in order to get the advantage of the Thanksgiving season prices. To get the birds ready will require the constant work of six men for a few weeks, and Mr. Klinger, himself, will look after transportation to market.

Last fall the Portland prices were good, and Mr. Klinger expects to find ready sale and a profitable return from the early market this season. Visiting Heppner Saturday, Mr. Klinger reports a splendid rain over the north Lexington wheat belt Thursday night.

Mrs. John Wightman is spending the week end at the home of J. B. Huddleston and Miss Bees Huddleston at Lone Rock. She met them at Condon Tuesday evening and attended the old time dance given by the woolgrowers auxiliary of that city.

For sale, weanling pigs. James Higgins, Lena. 33-34p

B-P WOMEN PLAN NATIONS BANQUET

Portland Personnel Director Will Speak at Affair November 7;
Extensive Plans Announced.

In line with one of its objectives, sponsoring of better understanding between the nations, the local unit Business and Professional Women's club will stage an International Relations banquet at the Parish House on November 7 at 7 p. m. The main speaker will be Miss Avis Lobdell, personnel director of women employees of the Union Pacific system in Portland, who is working in the interests of better international relations. Other speakers will be Mrs. Florence Draper of Klamath Falls, membership chairman, and Mrs. Loda Parker of Klamath Falls, extension chairman, of the state organization of the club.

Mrs. May Ross Walker of Portland, who will be in Heppner on that date as an instructor at county institute, has been asked to lead the community singing at the banquet. One minute speeches given by local people, a highland fling and the Missalidine trio playing songs of all the nations will round out the program. Flags of all nations and curios from different parts of the world will furnish the international motif in decorations.

Ladies of the Episcopal church will prepare the banquet. Tickets at 50 cents a plate will be on sale next Saturday at Humphreys Drug store. Members of the local club dressed in costume will act as hostesses.

Committees on arrangements are international relations, Mrs. W. O. Dix, Mrs. Adelyn O'Shea, Beth Bleakman, Lucile McDuffee, Katharine Peterson, Mrs. E. F. Bloom, Mrs. Edwin Ingles, program, Madge Copeck, Mrs. Anne Merrill, Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, Audrey Beymer, Dorothy Straghan.

PROCLAMATION.

Another Halloween is at hand with its temptations to youth to overstep the bounds of safety in the engineering of pranks on this colorful holiday, and it again becomes my duty as Mayor of the City of Heppner in the office of guardian of the peace, health and safety of the city to discourage such overt acts.

Therefore, I, W. G. McCarty, Mayor of the City of Heppner, do hereby encourage any proper observance of Halloween and wish for the young people of the city a happy time on that day; but the molestation, destruction or displacement of property will not be countenanced, and any offenders will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Blockading of walks or highways is a serious offense, being an extreme menace to human life, and especially discouraged. For the full enforcement of this proclamation every freeholder of the city is hereby given police authority with full power to arrest anyone found in willful violation of the city statutes or whose actions are of a suspicious nature on Halloween.

Issued this 27th day of October, 1932.

W. G. McCARTY, Mayor.

Local Physician-Poet Has Works Published

"Gruy's Lines in Verse" by Dr. Gray, a copyrighted edition published by the Metropolitan Press of Portland, making its appearance in Heppner this week is a book of poems written by Dr. A. B. Gray, local physician-chessman-poet. Dedicated to the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, the book shows Dr. Gray to be a devoted advocate of the New York governor's cause. In his preface Dr. Gray says:

"Inspiration expressed in writing may show only another's thought in just another form. . . . My efforts, however, ranging from the emotional to the frivolous, have, at no time, forced the writer to lessen his faith in his fellow man, his home, his government, nor his God. . . . No man, creed nor man-made organization is without fault. Some one has explained: 'A chain is just as strong as its weakest link.' In my faith, therefore, I must link myself as directly to that faith of man symbolizing the wonderful teachings we daily observe of this widespread work about us—called by man—Nature."

NOTICE.

The Board of Directors of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank of Heppner, Oregon, have decided not to declare a moratorium and will continue to operate and ask the cooperation of the people of the community of Heppner and from the people of the towns and country surrounding.

DANCE SCHEDULED.

F. E. Barker, dance manager of Lexington, announces a big Halloween dance to be held at Leach hall in that city next Saturday night, October 29. At this time he is instituting a "Queen of the Dance" contest, inviting all to come and vote for their favorite "queen." Mr. Barker announces there will be no dance at Lexington on November 12, the date being left open for the American Legion at Heppner.

Miss Lucille Hall is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Gordon.

ROYAL RECEPTION GIVEN STUNT NITE

Library Receives $93.60
Gross From Organizations' Offering.

HUMOR MARKS SKITS

Local Folks Assume Wide Array of Roles in Varied Entertainment;
Music and Dances Diversity.

The school gym-auditorium was packed last evening to receive "Stunt Nite," an entertainment presented by various organizations in behalf of the Heppner public library. Gross proceeds to the library amounted to $93.60, and the audience netted two hours of wholesome, lively entertainment.

Scott McCurdy, selling 118 tickets, received the football from Gordon's. Hard work of the committee in charge was largely responsible for making the entertainment a success. It was J. T. Lumley, Mrs. Charlotte Gordon, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Clarence Hayes.

The Heppner school band under the direction of Harold Buhman started off the show, receiving a big hand. Band members are Juanita Morgan, Jenny Swindig, Edna Crump, Charles Cox, Ronald Coblanz, Irene Beamer, William McCaleb, Ray Coblanz, Harriet Hager, Bernard McCurdy, Virginia Swindig, Omar McCaleb, Leah Mahrt, Richard Hayes, James Driscoll, Donald Jones, Larry Moore, Nancy Cox, Billy Schwarz, Joe Green, Marie Scrivner, William Cochell, Marian Oviatt, Lowell Winters, Floyd Jones, Marvin Morgan, Howard Cleveland and Ernest Clark.

Next came the Boy Scouts with "The Fatal Quest," a short comedy-drama skit in three acts, coached by Orrin Blasee. Participating were Dick Benton, Chester Christenson, Jackson Gilliam, Howard Bryant, William Thomson and Blasee's dog. It got a big hand.

Mrs. E. F. Bloom and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson in vocal duet, accompanied by Mrs. J. O. Turner, represented the Eastern Star, and were well received.

The Bookworms brought another comedy skit in dialogue with setting in a restaurant: ladies at table, Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Mrs. C. W. Smith; eccentric couple, Mrs. Harold Case as gentleman and Mrs. Philip Mahoney as flirtatious young feminine companion; Mrs. Spencer Crawford, waitress; title, "While You Wait." It got a big hand.

Dean T. Goodman Jr. in ghost attire represented "The Discontented Ghost," bringing the low-down on some of his young friends on behalf of the Degree of Honor juveniles and making a big hit.

The Lions offering came next with Ray Ferguson and Jay Crawford staging a "Death Defying Apache Dance" accompanied by E. F. Bloom at piano.

Katherine Thompson's "Girls Have a Hard Time" was a clever little comedy skit for the Rebekahs, completely winning the audience.

"Big Business" came from the Episcopal Auxiliary, with Virginia Dix, Adele Nickerson, Nancy Cox and Della Ulrich portraying the roles. It gave everyone a hearty laugh.

The Christian church presented Mrs. Crockett Sprouls and Doris Hiatt in a pleasing vocal duet with Mrs. J. O. Turner accompanying. "Cinderella Up to Date" was a reading with action in pantomime offered by Degree of Honor. Mrs. Andrew Baldwin was reader and portraying action of the poem were Mrs. Paul Aiken, Mrs. Ozora Vance, Harold Ayers, Mrs. Glen Sherer, Audrey Beymer, Mrs. C. R. Ripley, Berdine Vance, Ruth Furlong, Mary Driscoll and Laura Gilman. Impersonation of local people, the highlight of the comedy, brought down the house.

The ingenuity of the Women's Study club pantomime, "The Kitchen Symphony," marked it as one of the outstanding attractions of the evening, and the applause received would place it first in popularity with the audience. In ridiculous costume members of the club depicted a symphony orchestra with each member playing a musical instrument concocted from kitchen implements. Leta Humphreys wielded a rolling pin as leader. Orchestra members were the Mesdames Floyd Adams, Earl Gilliam, C. W. McNamer, W. O. Dix, E. F. Bloom, E. R. Huston, Charles Cox, J. O. Turner, Geo. Mabey, Lucy Rodgers, Jeff Beamer, Glen Jones, Harold Case, J. D. Cash, Ted Lumley, A. A. McAtee, F. W. Turner, Jennie Swindig and Marian Oviatt furnished musical accompaniment from back of curtain.

An acrobatic balancing performance by the Bauman brothers, Clarence and Harvey, was the offering of the Legion, getting a big hand. Clarence did daredevil head-standing stunts, while Harvey exhibited combined strength and balancing feats, among which was the balancing of his young nephew seated on the end of a pole on his chin.

A clever stunt by the high school boys' quartet, and a song by the octette was the high school offering.

(Continued on Page Six)