O.S.C. Homecoming Set For Nov. 5 at Corvallis

Homecoming days at the colleges are here again, with Oregon State college one of the latest to announce plans for its big celebration at Corvallis November 5. This being the date of the annual state championship football game between the Staters and Webfoots, a big crowd is automatically assured.

The first big event for visitors will be Friday night when the spectacular football rally is held. After the game Saturday the annual alumni banquet is scheduled at the Memorial Union building. The executive committee of the state editorial association will follow its usual custom and hold a meeting on the campus Saturday morning.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF WARRANTS OF SCHOOL DIST. NO. 19.

Notice is hereby given that outstanding warrant of School District No. 19, Morrow County, Oregon, numbered 14, will be paid upon presentation to the Clerk of said district. Interest on this warrant ceases on this date.

Anyone holding warrants against this district should notify the undersigned clerk at once; they are to be called just as fast as funds come to hand, and the clerk desires to have a list of the present holders of any such warrants. J. E. HAMS, Clerk. Hardman, Oregon, Oct. 20, 1932.

J. J. Wightman and Chas. Swindig, who were in Portland last week for the Pacific International Livestock exposition, took time off to attend the O. S. C.-W. S. C. football game in Corvallis. They report a mighty good game and a hard one for the Oregon Staters to lose. An "Oregon mite" predominated, making the playing field not unlike a quanguire.
