

LEXINGTON

P. T. A. meeting will be held on Monday evening, November 21. There is to be a program before the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth entertained a group of their friends at a delightful party Saturday evening. After a pleasant evening spent in playing "500" the hostess served delicious refreshments to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and son Lyle; Mr. and Mrs. Myles Martin and children, Orlo, Bernice, Willard and Elroy; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Nichols; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer and son Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. George Peck and son Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slocum and daughter; Mrs. William Van Winkle and sons; Miss Clara Nelson, George Gillis and Norman Nelson.

The P. T. A. executive committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Ed Kelly on Wednesday evening, November 9.

Don't forget the grange meeting and card party at Leach hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 12. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock and the business meeting will begin promptly at 7 o'clock. Officers for the coming year will be nominated. Immediately after grange there will be a card party to which the public is invited.

November 18 is the date of the play, "Dangerous Men" to be presented by the student body of Lexington high school. This play is being directed by Miss Betsy Asher and promises to be a good one. You will hear more about these dangerous men later, but meanwhile remember the date, November 18.

The relief work is progressing nicely under the leadership of Mrs. Elmer Hunt, chairman of the relief committee for Lexington. The ladies have made quite a number of garments but are now in need of more materials to work with, so they are making a drive this week to get more donations. The Boy Scouts are assisting in this work by calling at the houses in town and collecting the bundles.

Jack and Marion Scott of Everett, Wash., are visiting with relatives here and at Heppner this week. The boys are nephews of Mrs. W. B. Tucker and Mrs. W. L. Copenhaver.

The city council met at the council chambers Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing the budget for next year. The budget, as decided upon at this meeting, is less than last year. This will make the city taxes somewhat lower than last year.

William Lees and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lees, came over from their home at Ontario Monday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lucas until Wednesday when they returned home. Mrs. Lees will be remembered as Miss Lovell Lucas, formerly of this city and at one time a student of Lexington high school. Mr. R. E. Lees, who is an attorney, attended court in Pendleton while here.

T. L. Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barker spent a part of last week visiting with Mr. Barnett's brother, Charles Barnett, who operates a rooming house in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCarty of Heppner visited at the W. B. Tucker home Sunday.

The freshmen gave the upper classmen a return party Friday evening. Each class put on a skit for the amusement of the guests. The seniors' skit was judged the best and as a prize the freshmen presented them with a tin drinking cup which was made of a tin drinking cup with another handle soldered on opposite the regular handle. As a part of the evening's entertainment the guests were required to explore a haunted house. Games were played in the gymnasium until a late hour when refreshments of doughnuts, cup cakes and cider were served. Guests were the teachers and members of the three upper classes in the high school and all reported a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Ola Ward and Mrs. Eva Lane entertained with a delightful party at the Ward home Saturday evening honoring Mrs. Minnie Leach McMillan and her daughter, Miss Opal Leach, who are leaving for California soon. Guests were Mrs. Minnie Leach McMillan, Miss Opal Leach, Miss Dona Barnett, Mrs. Trina Parker and Miss Erna Lane.

The first, second, third and fourth grades want to fix up their school rooms with some nice new curtains and some paint for the desks, so to raise money for this they gave a big Halloween program on Monday evening. The stage was all arrayed in Halloween decorations and jack-o-lanterns. The program consisted of a poem by Kenneth Jackson, a song by Colleen McMillan, a recitation "The Goblin Man" by Clyde Edwards, a ghost dance by the first and second graders, and a playlet, "Babs and the Broomstick" by some of the members of all four grades.

Mrs. Maude Pointer, who has been visiting with her brother, Orville Cutsforth, returned to her home in Salem Saturday. She was accompanied by her little niece, Faye Cutsforth, who will spend several weeks with her aunt before returning to her home here.

Bernard and Delvin Cox of Longview, Wash., were recent guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox.

A. W. Cheney and son, D. A. Cheney, of the East Side Printing company in Portland, were week-end visitors at the W. B. Tucker home in Blackhorse. They hunted pheasants Sunday.

Mr. Collins, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company lineman, was in town Tuesday doing some telephone repair work.

Joseph Eckelson of Salem is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Carol Ingles, Mrs. LaVelle White, Miss Betsy Asher and Miss Eula McMillan participated in the "Stunt Nite" program at Heppner last week. They had parts in the skit, "Business Girls Ain't What They Used to Be," which was put on by the Business and Professional Women's club of which they are members.

J. H. Frad of Portland has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arnold Pieper of Blackhorse.

Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lucas were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones of Heppner.

Mrs. A. Reaney has been very ill at her home below town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Copenhaver of Sand Hollow spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tucker.

Hallowe'en came and went very quietly in Lexington this year. Very few pranks were played and none that were damaging to property.

Recent guests at Lucas Place were S. W. Tracey of San Francisco, L. B. Ketchens of Pendleton, C. H. Hammond, M. B. Vincent, Walter Flick and L. W. Behrens all of San Francisco. The last four men are employees of the Standard Oil company of California and are here in the interests of Flamo gas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Nichols were dinner guests at the Barnett home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever and family went to Portland Thursday. Mr. Schriever has returned but Mrs. Schriever and the children remained in the city for a longer visit with relatives.

Mrs. Ed Burchell departed by train Tuesday night for Corvallis where she will spend homecoming week with her son Edward who is a freshman in the college there this year.

Mrs. Lloyd Matteson of Ritter is visiting at the Thornburg home this week.

George Mead was up from Hermiston Saturday attending to matters of business.

Mrs. Shelby Graves and two daughters spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pettyjohn at their home near Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer of Heppner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lucas on Saturday evening.

George Ruhl and Oscar Lims came up Sunday from their home at Estacada and are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruhl of Social Ridge.

Mrs. Trina Parker, Mrs. J. F. Lucas, Miss Dona Barnett and Miss Lucille Beymer were among Lexington people who attended the "Stunt Nite" program in Heppner Wednesday evening of last week.

The Cecil McCormick family have been ill at the Claude White ranch.

tored to Stanfield Wednesday of last week for a brief visit with Mrs. Ring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rowell. Accompanying them as far as Hermiston were Mrs. Edward Keller and Mrs. Laxton McMurray who spent the time shopping.

Elmer Musgrave of Hardman, winner of the rifle offered by the Peoples Hardware company of Heppner for the heaviest deer weighed in over their scales, was a visitor in our town Friday.

Hank Adams passed through town Saturday on his way to his wood camp in the mountains near Parkers Mill. Mr. Adams had been a patient in at veterans' hospital, Portland, for some time where he was taken for treatment for pleuropneumonia. He is not yet as well as he would like to be as he is now suffering with a dislocated knee.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith and children of Morgan spent Sunday at the C. H. Bartholomew home on Butter creek.

Our high school football team lost the game Friday at Moro, the score being 12-0. Friday, November 4, they play Heppner at Heppner, and Armistice Day will play Pilot Rock on the home field.

The Willows Grange dance at Cecil Saturday night was well attended and those present report a good time.

On November 12 they will hold election of officers and the business meeting will be followed by a social hour. On November 19 the men of the order are to serve "eats" to the members of Willows Grange and their families.

The Rhea Creek Grange presented an interesting program Saturday night at the Rhea creek hall. A dance followed the program.

Those in attendance from here were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell, Sybil and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay and Helen, Mrs. Helen Farrans and Art Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baldwin were Lexington visitors Saturday where they called at the home of Mr. Baldwin's grandmother, Mrs. A. Reaney, who recently suffered a slight paralytic stroke.

Garland Swanson motored to Salem Saturday, returning Monday. Going with him to the capital city were Miss Irene Miller who had been a house guest at the J. E. Swanson home, and Mrs. Maud Pointer who had been transacting business and visiting friends in Lexington. Both ladies reside in Salem.

Friends here have received the announcement of the birth of a daughter in September to Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Laughlin of Vader, Wash. Mrs. Laughlin will be remembered as Miss Mildred Head who was grade teacher in our school and daughter of W. W. Head, former pastor of the Congregational church. The little lady, who has been given the name of Margaret Jean, is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Head of Cathlamet, Wash.

Remember the date of the annual high school carnival, November 18. You are assured a good time if you attend.

Charley Botts, Bert Botts and Clarence Nelson motored to Yakima Tuesday, returning Wednesday. On the return trip they were accompanied by Mrs. Charley Botts and two children who have been visiting for the past three weeks with James Botts, Mrs. Lem Cooley and Mrs. Jack Griffith, children of Mrs. Botts who reside in and near Yakima.

Rhea Creek Grange.

By MARGARET BECKETT.

The H. E. club of Rhea Creek Grange met at the home of Mrs. Frank Parker Saturday, Oct. 29, with twelve ladies present besides the hostess. The time was spent in sewing and business meeting. Election of officers for the coming year was held, with Pearl Wright as chairman, Mae Fryrear, vice, and Eva Wright, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the home of Eva Wright on the third Thursday in November.

A large crowd gathered at Rhea creek hall Saturday night for the program and dance, with the Misses trio playing. Everyone reports a good time.

Rhea creek grange meets Nov. 6, and it is hoped that all grangers will be there early, as election of officers takes place, and in the afternoon there will be speakers to explain the amendments to be voted on at the coming election. The public is invited to the afternoon meeting.

FOR THE PLACE

We, the undersigned citizens of Morrow County, desire to commend for re-election Hon. Calvin L. Sweek as Circuit Judge of the Sixth District.

We have known him for 18 years, 16 of which he resided in our county where he practiced law.

He was always ready to do his part for the public welfare. He served in the City Council of Heppner and as a member of the Board of Education.

He is a man of sterling integrity, fair-minded, clean in life, thoughtful of others and a square dealer.

He was educated at the University of Oregon and Oregon State Agricultural College and the Law School of University of Michigan. He is an able lawyer, and has proved himself of fine judicial temperament. We feel that he should be retained on the bench.
