ROOSEVELT TAKES 345 LEAD IN COUNTY

Steiner, Pierce Favored;
Repeal Measure Close;
Merger Swamped.

SWECK'S LEAD BIG

Two-thirds of County Vote Pled in Drizzling Rain in Deciding Men and Measures on Ballot.

Two-thirds of the registered voters of Morrow county braved the continuous drizzle on election day, Tuesday, to turn the county democratic for the first time since it supported Woodrow Wilson against the Republicans and Bull Moosers in 1912. Normally republican by a heavy majority the county gave Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Nance Garner a plurality of 345 votes over Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis for the presidency. The vote: Roosevelt 924, Hoover 579.

But while choosing the democrat standard bearers the county was apparently not influenced entirely by the prohibition issue as it upheld the present state enforcement agencies by a vote of 794 to 671.

The total vote for president here was 1596, an almost exact two-thirds of the registered vote of 2399, 2399.

The county split its party preference in the choice of U. S. senator and congressman. Steiner, republican, received 870 votes to democrat Gleason's 531 for the senatorship, while Pierce, democrat, beat Butler, republican 765 to 643 for congressman.

In the single contest on the county division of the ballot McMurdo with 800 votes won over Case with 710 for coroner.

For circuit judge Morrow county supported its former citizen and incumbent, C. L. Sweck, by a majority of 1030. Sweck's vote was 1288 to Schanep's 258.

The only upset locally for state offices was in the support of Maloney, democrat, for treasurer, who received 817 votes to Holman's 589. For secretary of state Hoss took the lead over Wisecarver, 909 to 579. For attorney general, Van Winkle polled 809 votes to Dobson's 543. For supreme court Bean lead Hewitt 1060 to 347. Bailey, unopposed for the other supreme court position, polled 1083 votes.

As a result of the voting Earl Snell of Arlington and J. O. Turner of Heppner, unopposed for the legislature, will represent the district at the session which convenes in January. In this county the vote was Snell 966, Turner 1127.

County officers elected unopposed were: district attorney, S. E. Notson, 1276; commissioner, F. S. Parker, 1299; clerk, G. M. Anderson, 1367; sheriff, C. J. D. Bauman, 1399; school superintendent, Lucy E. Rodgers, 1320. S. P. Devin was re-elected as constable in North and South Heppner precincts, being unopposed.

Morrow county voted on the various measures as follows:

- Voters' qualification, yes 767, no 497.
- Trial consent, yes 745, no 484.
- Six percent limitation, yes 623, no 436.
- Oleo tax, yes 816, no 583.
- Rogue closing, yes 407, no 828.
- Higher education appropriation, yes 224, no 994.
- Prohibition repeal, yes 671, no 794.
- Truck and bus bill, yes 448, no 961.
- Zorn unification, yes 241, no 1226.
- Debt control, yes 341, no 852.
- Tax supervising, yes 418, no 663.
- Income tax, yes 649, no 612.
- Power bill, yes 676, no 512.

Elks Lodge Stages Big Election Night Party

Heppner lodge 358, B. P. O. Elks, was host to a large number of invited guests at an election party Tuesday evening. Dancing was the main diversion of the evening, with music furnished by Herbert Hynd's Cecil orchestra. Election returns were announced on the dance floor at intervals, while many of the stag members of the party sat by the radio in the club room receiving more complete returns.

At 11 o'clock, an hour significant in Elksdom as commemorating departed brothers of the order, D. A. Wilson, exalted ruler, delivered the "11 o'clock Toast." This was followed by an address by the grand exalted ruler, reproduced by electrical transcription over the radio, which was scheduled to be given at the same hour in all lodges of the county. Patriotic music was then played, followed by Mr. Wilson's recital of "The Tribute to the Flag," and the ceremony ended with all reciting "The American's Creed." A light lunch of sandwiches and coffee was served at midnight.

SWECK ELECTION ASSURED.
On top of his lead in Morrow county of 1030 votes, C. L. Sweck, circuit judge, carried Umatilla county by a heavy majority. The vote there is Sweck 4826, Schanep 2457.

IONE

JENNIE E. McMURRAY.

Following the regular Odd Fellows meeting at their hall Saturday night, the ladies arrived bringing with them a delicious pot-luck supper. After this was served, games and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour, and all those present report a most enjoyable time.

On last Thursday evening just before their departure for their new home at Lostine, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shipley were given a farewell party at the Walter Corley home in upper Ione. Guests present were Mrs. Frank Engelman, Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson, Mrs. Helen Farrea, Cole Smith and Walter Corley. Mr. and Mrs. Shipley have decided to engage in farming and will operate a ranch just outside the city limits of Lostine.

The Women's Topic club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Griffith at Morgan. The subject studied was a continuation of Australia and New Zealand. In answer to the roll call each lady described some native bird or animal of the two countries being studied. Cities of Australia and New Zealand and plans for the Capitol city, was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Walter Corley. A paper on South Australia was read by Mrs. Victor Rietmann. Although the meeting was interesting and instructive. Refreshments followed the study hour. The next meeting of the club will be a social meeting and will be held November 19. The next study meeting will be December 3 and will be at the home of Mrs. Harlan McCurdy.

Guests present at Mrs. Griffith's home were Mrs. Louis Bergvinn, Mrs. Walter Corley, Mrs. Inez Freeland, Mrs. Henry Gorgor, Mrs. Sam Hatch, Mrs. Roy Lueddell, Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. D. M. Ward, Mrs. Bert Mason, Mrs. Dwight Ward.

An Armistice Day program, to which the public is invited, will be given at Legion hall Friday evening. One interesting number on the program will be a roll call of all ex-service men; another will be the assembly singing of old war songs. The program is sponsored by the Legion auxiliary, the dance which follows will be given by the Ione post, American Legion.

Sunday guests at the Sam Hatch home were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hossler of Stanfield.

The first of last week Mrs. John Farris enjoyed a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, and her sister, Mrs. George May, all of Medford. Accompanying the party from Portland was Miss Dorothy Clark who will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Farris.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowell moved to Stanfield one day last week for a brief visit at the home of Mr. Rowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rowell.

Election day was certainly wet in Ione notwithstanding the way the votes were cast. This part of the country was visited by a soaking rain.

ARMISTICE STORIES TOLD BY VETERANS

Lions Meeting Features
Anniversary With Appropriate Program.

FRENCH SIDE CITED

Mrs. Will Morgan, Native of France,
Was German Prisoner; School
Participates; Play Reported.

"How I spent Armistice day, and my reactions" was the theme of seven world war veterans who attended Lions club meeting Monday, one a native French woman now living in Heppner who was held prisoner for a year and a half by the Germans. This feature and appropriate musical and reading numbers were given in commemoration of the anniversary of the World war armistice next Friday, the program having been arranged by S. E. Notson, program chairman.

Nine high school boys assisted in the program. Armin Wihlon read "In Flanders Fields," Francis Nickerson read another favorite war poem, "Young Fellow, Me Lad" by Robert W. Service, and the boys' octette accompanied by Miss Charlotte Woods sang "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching." Composing the octette were Eddie Kenny, Wray Langdon, Billy Schwarz, Francis Nickerson, Marvin Morgan, Claire Phelan and Billy Cochell.

Play Cast Thanked.

A vote of thanks was given members of the cast of "Safety First." Lions play presented last week, and a financial report which showed net profits to the club of $30. Of this amount $20 was voted to be paid on indebtedness that had been contracted in work at the city park. An invitation from D. A. Wilson, exalted ruler, was given members of the club to attend the Elks election party held Tuesday evening.

Stories of the war veterans were featured by pleas for a more sympathetic public understanding of the problems of the ex-service men. It was emphatically denied that conventions of ex-service men were held for the sole purpose of "getting drunk." Service men are sober and sincere in their attempt to rehabilitate themselves and contribute their bit to the public good. It was said, with citing of the recent American Legion and auxiliary national conventions in Portland as an example of their sincerity. Incidents connected with past conventions that were held up to public disrepute were disclaimed as having come from a younger element who took advantage of such occasions to get on a "spree."

Armistice day in 1918 caught the service folk in various parts of the world. Spencer Crawford, Lions president, was in Heppner at the time and shared in the general rejoicing prevalent here.

Celebrates in St. Paul.

Chas. W. Smith, county agent, was on a troop train crossing the middle western states. The men on the train were not permitted to participate in the wild celebrations being staged in the towns through which they passed, until they got to St. Paul that evening. There they did join in the hilarity, though he believed not with the same depth of feeling that the fathers and mothers of service men did.

F. A. McMahon, state policeman, told one of the most engrossing tales. A "gob" in a port city of France, he was slipped up on by his first initiation into the insidious effects of champagne a luxury ordinarily beyond the means of a midshipman. He walked off the end of a pier three times and only survived to tell the story because a grabhook in the hands of trusty brothers of the deep was near at hand. While jittingy his captain to camp, his senior officer was dumped out of the back seat when he attempted to stand up—also the effect of champagne. Mac said he didn't know the armistice had been signed until three days afterward, verifying a popular conception that water on top of champagne acts like so much more champagne. He denied that debauchery was common among American troops, and championed much of the drinking on the ground that drinking the terrible water of the country gave the boys French itch, and that their horrible experiences in the trenches justly increased a desire to forget.

Some Are Disappointed.

C. J. D. Bauman, sheriff, was a marine guarding T. N. T. on a small island off the Rhode Island coast in Nantucket bay when the armistice was signed. He was sorry to hear the news as it meant his chances of getting "across" were blasted.

Edward F. Bloom, city school superintendent, said he did not know when the armistice was signed, but for a different reason from that given by McMahon. He cited the false report of the armistice signing given out three days before it actually occurred as taking much of the zest from the actual occurrence and the authenticity of the second report for several days afterward.

W. E. Moore, cashier First National bank, was on detached duty in Portland. It was some celebration there, he said, probably the big-

City Budgeteers Work; Income Found Shrunk

While a cut was made in the amount to be expended by the city next year in practically every department, the budget committee which met Monday evening found it was still necessary to increase the tax rate over last year because of the decrease in estimated receipts based on receipts for the present year. In checking over expenditures for the present year it was found that in no department had the city used up the entire amount budgeted. Expenditures had been kept within receipts in order to keep the city on a cash basis.

Citizens sitting on the committee with the full council were Charles W. Smith, W. E. Moore and Earl W. Gordon. The proposed budget for the coming year is published in another column of this issue.

Needed street work in the city this fall was discussed at the regular council meeting which preceded making of the budget, but action was deferred until after the budget had been made as funds were said not to be available to go ahead with the work at present. The council ordered the bridge by the Legion swimming tank, which is now closed, to be removed and the creek fenced on either side.

Certain Evidence Given Of Democratic Victory

For a long time in Morrow county election day has been looked forward to because it inevitably brings rain. Folks were not disappointed Tuesday when they awoke early in the morning to find a typical "Oregon mist" crowding Old Sol's beaming countenance from the heavens. As the day progressed the rain became heavier, giving the entire county a good soaking.

As some good republicans looked askance at the results of the election, they opined: "Whether any good comes from the election, things are going to be helped by the rain."

Farmers in town to cast their votes who were interviewed expressed satisfaction at the fine progress being made by growing crops, and the greasish linge giving the landscape is an indication that fall range may not be entirely lacking.

One large collie dog was noticed sitting supinely on the pavement in the middle of Main street when the rain was heaviest, apparently oblivious to the downpour. Presently, however, he arose and walked placidly to the shelter afforded at the doorstep of Gordon's and rested himself on his haunches. He was satisfied the country had gone democratic.

FRANK LIEUALLEN PASSES.

Just as we go to press, word is conveyed to us of the death at Athens at 4:30 yesterday afternoon of Frank Lieuallen of this county. Mr. Lieuallen had been in failing health for many months and had been at Athens for some time under a doctor's care, and for a while had shown marked improvement. Just recently, however, there was a turn for the worse and his passing came yesterday afternoon. Funeral arrangements are being completed and will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church in Heppner. Joel R. Benton, pastor, officiating, and interment will follow in Masonic cemetery. Mr. Lieuallen had long been a resident of this county and was a native of Umatilla county. A full obituary notice will appear in next week's paper.

gest time the city will ever see. Like Bauman he saw his hopes of getting to France upset.

An insight into the wartime life of the French people was given by the story of Mrs. Will Morgan, native French woman now living in Heppner, and Lions guest, whose paper was read by Mrs. C. R. Ripley. It follows:

Woman's Story Given.

I have been asked by Lion S. E. Notson and Lion Chas. W. Smith, to appear here today and narrate some of my experiences during the World War.

Having lost my brother, several other relatives and numerous friends during the War, it would be rather difficult for me to tell everything that happened and some of the terrible things that were seen as it would only bring back a lot of memories; therefore, I will tell you about the time I was taken prisoner by the Germans.

France entered the World War August twenty-eighth, 1914. I was at that time living at Dun Muns. The Germans fought there for a month and finally set fire to the town and took the French people prisoners. They intended to kill all the French people, but after considerable talk killed the men and boys and held the women prisoners. We were held for a year and a half were not allowed to go any place, had to work for the Germans and were forced to bury the soldiers who were killed. We had to start work at seven o'clock in the mornings, do all the cooking and take care of the injured, and if we did not do as we were told to do we were apt to be shot.

On one occasion when a picture was being taken of the French prisoners, a German captain asked me to dance, which I refused to do by telling him something in his own language—something I had been told by one of the Germans to say and which I afterwards found out

LANDSLIDE SHOWN FOR DEMOCRATS

Huge Roosevelt Victory
Indicates Largest Vote
In History of U. S.

OREGON CARRIED

Pierce, Steiner Win; Six Measures
Win While Seven Defeated;
State Officers Republican.

Election returns from the outside are indicative of the greatest democratic landslide in history, latest returns showing Governor Roosevelt likely to receive 472 electoral votes, the largest vote ever received by a candidate for the presidency. Hoover's electoral vote is reported at 59. The popular vote is given as Roosevelt, 47,248,872 and Hoover, 12,588,841, with returns still incomplete. Oregon's vote was given as Roosevelt 125,944; Hoover, 80,678. States given in the Hoover column were Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and Vermont.

Coincident with the election of Roosevelt, reports show democratic gains all over the country that will give them comfortable control of both houses of congress.

Oregon voted fifty-fifty on its representation in congress by the election of Pierce, democrat, for congressman in the second district, and Martin, democrat, for congressman in the third district, while giving Steiner and Mott, republicans, a good majority for senator and congressman respectively, the latter from the first district.

As returns continue to come in, it is reported that there is little likelihood of change in any of the trends. Election and passage of the following men and measures is indicated in the state contests: Secretary of state, Hal E. Hoss, republican.

State treasurer, Rufus C. Holman, republican.

Attorney general, I. H. Van Winkle, republican.

Supreme court, H. J. Bean and J. O. Bailey.

Voting qualification amendment. Trial by jury amendment. Tax limitation amendment. Prohibition repeal. Income tax. Water power amendment.

The measures indicated to be defeated are: Oleo tax. Rogue closing. Education appropriation. Bus bill. University removal. Tax control. Tax supervision.

Anderson Elected Mayor; 2 New Councilmen Chosen

Gay M. Anderson was elected Heppner's new mayor in the election Tuesday, winning over Dean T. Goodman by a vote of 261 to 183. As a result the city will retain the services of both Mr. Anderson and Mr. Goodman for the coming two years, as Mr. Goodman is a hold-over councilman.

Two new councilmen will be seated as a result of the balloting. They are Dr. A. D. McMurdo and Chas. W. Smith, both running unopposed, who will succeed L. E. Blaise, retiring councilman who has served the city faithfully for many years. The third councilman named was Frank Shively, unopposed, running to succeed himself. E. R. Huston was reelected recorder and W. O. Dix treasurer. The vote: McMurdo 380, Shively 365, Smith 347, Huston 363, Dix 366.

The retiring mayor, W. G. McCarty, was not a candidate for reelection. Having served the city for two terms, he chose not to run. The city election was unexciting, being free from any kind of organized campaign.

GILLIAM OFFICERS NAMED.

Returns received from Gilliam county this morning show Butler outran Pierce for congress there by seven votes, 599 to 592, while Brady, Independent, received 71 votes. W. F. Jackson, democrat, led his republican opponent, J. P. Yates, for the state senatorship, in that county 675 to 567. The district comprises Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties. District and county officers named were: district attorney, D. N. Mackay; county commissioner, Earl P. Hoag; judge, J. D. Burns; sheriff, Frank E. Bennett who defeated the incumbent, M. V. Logan; clerk, John S. Baker; treasurer, Myrtle Ferguson; assessor, Blain Malesy; school superintendent, Florah Schroeder; surveyor, S. F. Walters; coroner, J. W. Burns. While Judge Parker, incumbent, carried Gilliam county in the circuit judgeship race in Gilliam and Wheeler counties, by a vote of 813 to 534, Carl Hendricks of Foster was elected due to his big lead in Wheeler county, a vote of 973 to 267.

Mrs. J. A. McClure, 64, of Tilton, Wash., sister-in-law of Mrs. Alice Adkins of this city,
