THE FARMERS' CONFERENCE. to meet in Washington on December 7th, but we don't see how any harm can come from it, and there is a possibility that a great deal of good may come.

We will feel a lot more confident about the possible good, however when we find out just who is going to represent the farmers. If the plan is carried out of having only real "dirt farmers," really representative of the farming communities of all parts of the country, we think a great deal of good can be done We will be very distrustful if there are politicians and office seekers pretending to represent the farmers at this conference. We have no confidence at all in a great many of the persons who have in the past been spokesmen for agriculture in Washington

We think it will be of the greatest value to have the actual farmers who know precisely what they are talking about right there in the national capital to tell their own story directly to members of congress and administrative officials, One caravan of farmers is already enroute from the Pacific Coast for Washington. We under-stand that there will be farmer delegations from about thirty states arriving in Washington in six marching delegations. So far as marching delegations. their program has been formulated, we understand that they want to get assurances against evictions from their farms, a moratorium on debts which they cannot pay and cash relief to relieve hunger. Those are reasonable proposals, although we are not at all sure that it is necessary for the farmers to march in a body to Washington to get them

We are glad to learn that the police officials of the District of Columbia are preparing to cooperate in every way with the farmer delegates and we hope, and confidently believe, that there will be no repetition of the disorder of last summer.

If out of this demonstration comes a sound, intelligent, practical plan for helping farmers who need help without wasting money on impractical schemes or throwing it away for the benefit of those who do not need it, this farmers' con vention ought to be a success BUY YOUR CHISTMAS SEALS.

I value to the community at large and to individuals of the work which the National Association for the Prevention of Tubercuosis has for the heavy-burdened who will find omplished, and is still accomlishing, in combating the dreaded sease which is popularly known as "the great white plague." There is no disease, doctors tell is, that is quite so universally prevalent as tuberculosis. Indeed, Dr. Logan Clendening, one of the foremost writers on medical topics, states in one of his books that probably every human being has at one time or another been infected with the tuberculosis bacillus. Most people recover without help, but there is a very high percentage who, unless the course of the disease is checked, are certain to die at an early age, The prevention and stamping out of tuberculosis is largely a matter of education. We know a great deal more about this disease than our parents did. Curing is not a matter of climate so much as it is WE DON'T know, because nobody knows, just how much will be accomplished by the Farmers' Na-tional Relief Conference which is to be reasonably assured. Its prevention is easy when everybody who may be exposed to it understands the elementary principles of sanitation.

This education is the work of the Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which is supported by the pennies paid by millions of Americans every year for the Christmas seals with which to decorate Christmas letters and packages. Anything from one cent up is an acceptable contribution. There is no better evidence of the spirit of helpfulness than to put these Christmas seals on the envelopes of all of your Christmas cards and packages.

Supplying a week-to-week inspiration every human trial paralleled in the experiences of "The Man Nobody Knows"

THE SOCIALBE MAN A wicked falsehood has come iown through the ages. It reappeared in an English book is recently as 1925. The author, in Tuesday describing a visit to the high spirit-ed Lord Fisher, tells of finding him less jovial than usual. Obviously something was weighing on his mind, and he soon revealed it, "You know that Pilate was suc-eeded as Governor of Jerusalem by Lentulus," he remarked in dull tones. . . . The new Governor gave Christmas candy. a minute description of Jesus, concluding with the statement, "No-body has ever seen him laugh." With that wretched remark Lord Fisher lapsed into meditative silence. He wanted to be reverent; he had been well grounded in the ple converted. traditions of his church: he would do his duty as a Christian and an Englishman, no matter what the cost. But to worship a Lord who never laughed-it was a strain. Lord Fisher made no pretense about that.

The quotation from Lentulus is a forgery, penned by an unknown imposter in a later century; yet how persistently it has lived, and with what tragic thoroughness it has done its work.

How many millions of happyminded folk when they have thought of Jesus at all, have had a feeling of uneasiness. "Suppose," they have said, "he were to enter the room and find us laughing and enjoying ourselves! When there is so much suffering and sin in the world, is it right to be happy? What vould Jesus say? . . .

With such compunctions cheerful folk have had their brighter moments tinctured. The friendliest man who ever lived has been shut off by a black wall of tradition from the great companion. It is not hard to understand when you remember the character of the early theologians. They lived in spection, to whom every simple thing was symbolic of some hidden mystery; and life, itself, a tangle

His death had been money to Ohio for tires and wonder planned from the beginning of the world; the human race was hope-lessly wayward; God knew that it would be and nothing would turn Him from His vindictive purpose to destroy it but the sacrifice of an in nocent Son.

Sunday School Description of the sector of critical importance. The race probem is acute. Those dealing with it realistically live in an atmosphere of prejudice, hatred, and bitterness.

We have in this country over ten million Negroes, about three and a half million Jews, some 337,000 Indians, over 180,000 Orientals, besides large numbers of Mexicans. The presence in our midst of so many colored folk is a source of continual friction leading, at times, to hideous outbreaks,

Wednesday, the 30th day of Novem-ber, 1932 Thursday, the 1st day of December, 1932 More than 3,500 Negroes have been lynched in the United States. Friday, the 2nd day of December, 1932 Saturday, the 3rd day of December, 1932 Our black brethren are also subjected to severe economic discrim ination and rigid segregation. And although slavery has been outlaw-ed, it still exists in the South in the Monday, the 5th day of December, Tuesday, the 6th day of December, 1932 form of peonage. Anti-Semitic feeling runs high, forcibly express-Wednesday, the 7th day of December, ing itself in the strict exclusion of Hebrews from certain real-estate Thursday, the 5th day of December. developments, college and social Friday, the 9th day of December, 1932 Our disgraceful treatment circles. of the Indian is well exposed by Saturday, the 10th day of December, Helen Hunt Jackson in her book "A Century of Dishonor." So bit Monday, the 12th day of December, ter has been the feeling against Orientals that at one time there 1932 Tuesday, the 13th day of December, 1932 Wednesday, the 14th day of Decem-ber, 1932 Thursday, the 15th day of December, were nineteen Chinese hanging from lamp posts in Los Angeles

Now race prejudice is the out-ward sign of an inward disgrace. In the light of the Golden Text it has no place within those areas of life we call Christian. Fortunately many forces are at work to introduce a kindlier day. The scientist is able to show that the colored races are not inferior. Education has accomplished wonders. Guardians of the law can be just, as indicated by the recent order of the Supreme Court in the nortorious Scottsboro case. The Churches, also, are alive to the problem, and have studied it with intelligence and sympathy. The various minority racial groups, moreover, by their own courage and initiative, have done much to soften antagonisms and silence criticisms. were in town from the Johnson farm east of Ione Tuesday. Demand Instead of Supply Big Factor in Farm Slump

Both the general level of farm prices and the index of factory pay-rolls in the United States have declined 60 per cent since October, 1929, according to the monthly summary of the trend of demand, prices and costs of farm products peace and happiness and financial wel-fare of our citizens, do hereby declare Breithaupt, college extension econ-omist, said, "The decline in the purand appoint Monday, the 28th day of November, chasing power of consumers appears to be much more of a reason for the great decline in farm prices than the slight changes which have occurred in the total supply of farm products from year to year.' The report points out that more i than the usual seasonal increase has occurred since August in industrial production, factory em ployment and payrolls, and in general business activity. On the other hand, all of the gains made in the general level of wholesale prices from June to September have been lost and the general level of farm prices has declined over 5 per cent since mid-September,

The position of Federal Reserve member banks to make loans has continued to improve, but actual bank loans outside of New York City, and New York commercial in terest rates, have continued to decline

Some encouragement is to be had Friday, the 16th day of December, because the decline in farm prices Saturday, the 17th day of December, has been partly offset by lower
