wheat and for white club wheat, abandonment of proposed grades for tough wheat, development of a plan to bring out dry matter values of wheat, steps to improve the quality of contract grades and to prevent objectionable blending, revision of barley grades, investigation of the plan of state bonding of warehouses, appointment of a committee of four by the president of the league, with the president, to meet with the interim legislative committee that is charged with revision of Oregon's warehouse law and to present the views of the wheat league and make such recommendations in connection with the proposed law as seem feasible.

Was Last of Family Of Pioneer Residents

Relatives at Heppner have just received a clipping from a Kirksville, Missouri, paper, giving the account of the death at her home in that city on November 16 of Mrs. Mary J. Waddill, sister of the late James J. Adkins of Heppner and the last member of the family of early Morrow county residents, James and Susan Adkins, known to a great many of the old-timers who yet reside in this community. Mrs. Waddill was ill but a few days with pneumonia.

Mrs. Waddill was born November 14, 1843, in Kirksville, Mo., a daughter of James and Susan Adkins. She was a granddaughter of Jesse Kirk for whom Kirksville was named and had the distinction of being the first white child born there. She was married September 21, 1860, to Jacob F. Waddill, who died May 7, 1917. Eight children survive out of the family of twelve born to Mr. and Mrs. Waddill. Near relatives of Mrs. Waddill residing at Heppner are Mrs. V. Crawford and Mrs. Josie Jones, and the families of Mrs. Alice Adkins and Mrs. Mattie Adkins.

Local Scouters Attend Annual Council Meet

At Walla Walla Monday evening the annual meeting and banquet of the Blue Mountain council, Boy Scouts of America, was held with about 200 in attendance. Going over from Heppner were all the members of the local Scout committee and the scoutmaster, these being Chas. W. Smith, Dr. A. D. McMurdo, Edward F. Bloom, Clarence Bauman and Spencer Crawford, committeemen, and Marvin Wightman, scoutmaster. These gentlemen all returned Monday night following the ceremonies, except Mr. Bauman, who went to La Grande where he appeared as a witness in circuit court on Tuesday in the case of a party recently arrested by him at Irrigon and charged with purloining some personal property from the sanitarium at Hot Lake.

SOUTH SEAS PORT OF CALL

Whatever the weather may be in Heppner next Monday evening, the members of the Woman's Study club will be spending the time in the south seas, New Zealand and the Fiji island group being their port of call this month.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Thomson at 7:45 p. m., December 12. The roll call will be a one-minute report or reading about the Hawaiian or Samoan islands, which have already been visited by the club on its "Loading Through the Pacific" cruise.

TEACHERS TO MEET HERE

A meeting of the rural teachers of Morrow county is scheduled for Friday at the office of Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, county superintendent, where the morning session will be held, this to be an official meeting of the Rural Teachers' association. An afternoon meeting will be at the high school building when the local teaching staff will demonstrate the teaching of reading, music, and supervision of games.

MASONIC LODGES ELECT

Heppner lodge 89, A. F. & A. M., and Heppner chapter 26, R. A. M., elected officers on Saturday and Thursday last respectively, as follows: A. F. & A. M., L. L. Gilliam, W. M.; E. E. Gilliam, S. W.; Marvin Wightman, J. W.; Frank S. Parker, treasurer; Spencer Crawford, secretary; R. A. M.: J. J. Wightman, H. P.; Gay M. Anderson, King; Harry Tamblin, Scribe; Chas. Cox, C. of H.; Frank Gilliam, treasurer; E. R. Huston, secretary. Ruth chapter 32 O. E. S. will hold annual election of officers tomorrow, Friday, evening.

SNOW ON BUTTER CREEK

While there was just a flurry of snow at Heppner Tuesday night—enough to make the ground look white, some 5 inches fell over the Butter creek hills and reached on over into the Pilot Rock country, reports W. H. Instone of Lena who was in town Wednesday afternoon. There has been a sharp drop in temperature and an east wind prevails, but stockmen generally do not expect a very severe spell of weather at this time.

ATTEND LEGION CONFERENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford, Mrs. P. M. Gemmell, Mrs. J. G. Barratt and Elbert L. Cox motored to Arlington Tuesday afternoon, where they attended the conference for the 6th district of the American Legion and Auxiliary. The gathering was of much interest to Legionnaires and Auxiliary members, as it was attended by the state officers of both organizations. A fine banquet was a feature sponsored by the Arlington post and unit.

RED CROSS ISSUES S. O. S.

There has been more demand for children's underclothing and shoes and for men's overcoats than can be supplied by Morrow County chapter American Red Cross, reports S. E. Notson, president, who asks the county's citizens to take inventory of their stocks and to provide any of the needed articles, if possible.

company of San Francisco, Theodore Picker of Freewater and Fred Cook, also of Freewater.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson entertained at a delightful 500 party at their home Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Spurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Swendig, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Merle Kirk, Mrs. Helen Christenson, Evelyn and Virginia Swendig, Joe Delameter, Nolan Turner, Harold and Howard Evans, Vernon Brown, Clarence Bauman and Chet Brown. High score was received by Miss Virginia Swendig and Oral Scott, and consolation by Mrs. George Evans and Mr. Swendig.

There will be a basketball game between Boardman and Lexington at the local gymnasium Saturday evening, December 10. If you buy your tickets from the school children before the night of the game you can get adult tickets for fifteen cents. At the door the price will be ten cents for children and twenty-five cents for adults. The game will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. Mary Luntford who has been visiting relatives here, returned to her home at Kelso, Wash.

On Thursday, December 22, at 7:30 p. m., the school will present an operetta, "In Quest of Santa Claus." There is to be a Christmas tree with candy and nuts for the kiddies. This is free and everyone is invited. Little jars have been placed down town in Lane's Pastime, W. F. Barnett's store and the postoffice; every penny or nickel dropped in these jars will be used to buy candy and nuts for the kiddies and will help to make their Christmas tree a bigger success.

Mrs. Karl Hiller entertained a number of her friends one evening last week in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Hazel Budden and Mrs. Mary Luntford, and Mrs. Luntford's daughter, Mrs. Winola Williams. Four tables of "bug" were in play during the evening and the ladies enjoyed greeting old-time friends. High score was won by Mrs. Ola Ward and Mrs. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Galey Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saling were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Peck Sunday.

Mrs. Goldie Leathers has received word from her son, Loren, that he has been transferred to Salt Lake City, Utah, for a short time. Loren, or Peck, as he is familiarly known here, is with the Standard Oil Company and has been stationed at Idaho Falls.

Friends here have received word of the birth of an eight-pound son, Robert Willis, to Mr. and Mrs. Smith Towne at Chehalis, Wash.

Alma Van Winkle, Edith Edwards, Lucille Beymer, Rose Thornburg, Emma Lane, Naomi McMillan and La Verne White.

Billy Burchell was injured last week while playing football, necessitating his being taken to Heppner to consult a physician. It was necessary for him to remain out of school last week but he is able to be back at his classes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hackett departed the first of the month for Spokane, Wash., where they expect to make their home. Mr. Hackett has been station agent here for the past two years and while residing here he and Mrs. Hackett have made many friends who wish them every success in their new home. Ed Cummings has been appointed caretaker at the depot during the months when there is no station agent.

Tom McDaniel who was operated on at Heppner hospital last week is reported to be much improved.

Grace and Doris Burchell entertained a group of their friends at a party at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Galey Johnson, on Wednesday evening, November 30. The evening was spent in making candy and playing games. The guests were Faye, Fern and Ruth Luttrell, Naomi McMillan, Rose Thornburg, Edith Tucker and Emma Lane.

Miss Gladys Graves of Boardman was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, Shelby Graves, and family.

A progressive party was held for the Loyal Workers class of the Christian Bible school Friday evening.

The party met at the church and after playing a few games, proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gentry and on to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnett. Then they went on to Mrs. Ola Ward's home, to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Sias and thence to the home of Mrs. Sarah White. At each stop games were played and finally the party was conducted to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt where refreshments had been prepared by the committee in charge of the party.

This committee was composed of Mrs. Elmer Hunt, Miss Dona Burnett, Mrs. Trina Parker, Mrs. Sias, Mrs. Gene Gentry, Mrs. Ola Ward and Miss LaVerne White. The nature of the party was surprising to the class for whom it was given and to their teacher, Mrs. Sarah White, as they had supposed the party was to be at the church.

Those whose cars were used to transport the party from place to place were W. F. Barnett, Elmer Hunt, Lonnie Henderson and Vernon Munkers.

Vernon Brown of Heppner is visiting at the Roy Johnson home.

Teachers from here who attended the "hobby" dinner of the Business and Professional Women's club at Heppner Monday evening were Mrs. Edwin Ingles, Mrs. Frank Turner, Miss Betty Asher, Mrs. Lester White and Miss Eula McMillan. Mrs. Agnes Curran and Miss Helen Curran were hostesses.

Lawrence Reaney came up from his home at Salem Thursday and visited with relatives here until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and family of Echo have moved into the Kuns house.

Mrs. Omar Luttrell underwent a major operation at The Dalles hospital Thursday of last week. Mrs. Luttrell has been in that city for some weeks, receiving medical treatment and Mr. Luttrell went down last week to be with her at the time of the operation.

Have you any toys to give to the needy this winter? The relief committee is asking that all of those who have broken toys or toys that the children have outgrown send them to the school house as soon as possible where they will be mended by the Boy Scouts and will help to make Christmas merry for children whom Santa Claus may overlook.

Miss Vera Breshears was hostess to the Sunshine Sewing club at their meeting Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing and Miss Breshears served delicious refreshments to her guests.

John Harkke of Lyle, Wash., was a visitor at the Harry Dravall farm on Black Horse one day this week.

The Boy Scouts held their regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening. The attendance was not quite as large as usual, the cold weather probably preventing some from coming in from the country.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan came up from Cherryville Thursday, bringing with them Mr. McMillan's sister, Mrs. George Broadley, and his mother, Mrs. S. C. McMillan, who had been in Portland for medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan returned to their home Sunday.

R. H. Lane and Mr. Kilinger went to Portland Tuesday, taking with them a truck load of Mr. Kilinger's turkeys which he will dispose of while in the city.

Miss Olivia Baldwin had the misfortune to fall on a rock and cut her knee painfully one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barker are in Seattle this week.

College News Service Has 20-Year Record

While metropolitan dailies pride with pride to the multiplicity of news gathering associations that bring the doings of the world to their pages, weekly papers of Oregon, including the Heppner Gazette Times, have an exclusive service of their own that has now been coming to them every week without a break for 20 years.

This particular service doesn't compete with the A. P. and U. P. in chronicling the daily news of the world, but every week without a single break since its establishment in 1913 it has brought the latest developments, mostly in agriculture, from the experiment station and extension service at Oregon State college at Corvallis.

At a recent national convention of all agricultural college editors, the weekly news service from Oregon State was given first place in the annual contest.

Thinking Heavenward.

"For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad thru Thy work; I will triumph in the work of Thy hands. O Lord, how great are Thy works! And Thy thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this." Psalm 124:4-6.

Evidently the Psalmist spent a great deal of time thinking on the things of heaven and contemplating the handiwork of God. From such contemplation there came to him the grand conception of God's works and power which we find exemplified in his writings. To the Psalmist it was a blessed and elevating experience to become wrapped in the thoughts of God, clothed upon with the splendors and wonders of the universe.

Some people simply cannot appreciate such an experience. They seem incapable of these boundless and rapturous sweeps of vision and thought. They seem to have brains only for those things that are vulgar, coarse, frivolous, narrow and sordid. Their thinking is all earthward, never heavenward.

"A brutish man knoweth not." A brute is a creature of the lower order, of the dust; and there are many men who are nothing more than mere creatures of the dust, living upon the low, creeping level of the unthinking brute; moved only by fleshly desires, with never a thought above the ground. Steeped in the dregs of materialism, they have apparently become insensate to any high and noble thinking.

"Neither doth a fool understand this." He does not understand because he has never trained his mind for high thinking. Continually occupying his mind with materialistic and vulgar thoughts, he has become incapable of heavenly and spiritual conceptions.

Nevertheless, man is Divinely endowed with a capacity for a higher level of thinking than that of the brutish man and the fool. We not only sin against God, but we sin against our better selves, when we neglect to cultivate and develop this capacity. Like the Psalmist, we must train ourselves to THINK HEAVENWARD; and, contemplating the works of God, fill our souls with the larger and higher thoughts and aspirations that just naturally follow such contemplation. God help us to foundation our reading and thinking on His Word, then we shall be always THINKING HEAVENWARD.

Are you affiliated with any religious organization locally? If not, we cordially invite you to come and worship with us. We ask you to come and test the welcome of this warm, friendly Church and Bible School. For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: "For the morning service, 'Saving the World,' and for the evening service, 'How to Grow Tall.'"

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

The services continued the past week and a large crowd attended the Sunday morning service and remained for the afternoon Bible exposition and "God's grace sufficient." Over a hundred people partook of the bounteous basket lunch at noon at which the "Scripture cake," made of ingredients mentioned in a number of Bible verses, was a feature. The sermon of the morning was based on the text Romans 1:16, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ," and was heard by a very large number. A special musical number was sung by the quartette also. Next Sunday the 11th will be another big day with three services. A basket dinner will be enjoyed again after morning service. Meetings continue every evening this week and afternoons at 2:30. All are cordially invited.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.

Rev. M. G. Tennyson, missionary-in-charge, announces services at All Saints Episcopal church in Heppner next Sunday as follows: church school, 9:30 a. m.; holy communion, 11 a. m. Services will be held at Hardman at 7:30 p. m.
