Editorial

The boy scout organization is one of the greatest known clubs in history for molding the right kind of character. If a boy carries on his scout work in the right manner it is very educational, and it will also train him to be an excellent citizen.

Judging from their conduct at recent meetings the scouts don't fully realize the sacrifice made for them by their sponsors and the scout committee which consists of Heppner business men who devote their time to the betterment of the scout troop. Do we scouts appreciate their labor?

School Is Out
 Monday afternoon the Heppner school board met at the high school to determine what to do about the problem of the absences from school, and after careful consideration decided to postpone school until the third of January.

Class Notes
 The second year Spanish class has been divided into two groups led by Billy Cochell and Francis Nickerson. The students take a short quiz over the day's work and points are given to the side doing the best work. The contest will run until the end of the six weeks when the losers will entertain the winners.

The advanced secretarial training class is proof-reading, typing, and mimeographing the World History paper, "The Roman Forum." Mary Thomson and Viola Brown are working as co-editors, Valis Jones as the reporter, and Doris Cox is the proof-reader. This paper will be published some time after Christmas. It is being typed and organized like a newspaper and has an attractive cover.

The beginning typing classes are taking paragraph centering as a project this week in preparation for the writing of business letters. The sophomore English class is writing short stories following the short story reading contract just finished.

The geometry students have finished Book I with a stiff quizz and are ready to start on Book II. The pictures in the commercial and English rooms have at last been centered and hung straight. The English room has a display of posters and lists of non-fiction books to encourage outside reading.

Echoes From the Typing Room:

"Isn't it terrible the way Miss Coppock makes us work?"
 "Rather! Why, I typed so many letters yesterday that last night I finished my prayers with 'Yours truly.'"
 "What a horrid scar Ted has on his nose!"
 "Horrid? The idea! Why, he got that in a football game!"
 "Can you imagine anything worse than a giraffe with a sore throat?" asked Frank.
 "Yes, a centipede with corns," replied Anson.

Electric Battles Fought by Benziners
 There was electricity in the air at the last meeting of the Benzine Ring. Mr. Lumley furnished the supply with a static machine. The members tested themselves to see what they would stand. Some members fought one another with the current; whenever the opponents came within a few inches of each other, sparks would leap between them. On the face and back this could easily be felt. The entertainment committee tried to make some "Pharoahs" serpents but they didn't work. A report on superstition was given by Kathryn McLaughlin.

Booster Club Has Party
 Did you blow soap bubbles at the Booster club party Saturday night? Reese Burkenbine blew the largest bubble and was awarded a pumpkin pie. Hazel Beymer took charge until officers were elected which are: Jimmie Furlong, president, Hazel Beymer, vice-president, Bee Thomson, secretary-treasurer. One member was chosen from each class to form an executive committee: Senior, Curtis Thomson; junior, Marvin Morgan; sophomore, Howard Furlong, and frosh, Howard Bryant.

Grade News
 The third grade children are now making Christmas presents for their fathers and mothers. In the past week they have done acts of service by taking down presents to Harry Ring, who is sick.

Frosh Win Song Contest
 An assembly was held recently to sing songs the classes had modeled. There were yells given also. The freshman class had the winning song which was written by Elinor Adkins. The judges for the songs were Mrs. Jesse Turner, Mr. Buhman and Mrs. Bloom. The juniors got honorable mention for their song, written by Anabel Turner. The judges advised that the senior class song written by Hazel Beymer be kept in the official song book.

The winning song is as follows:
 "We're loyal to you Heppner Hi; You're purple and gold, Heppner Hi;
 We'll back you to the stand, Against the best in the land, For we know that you can stand, Heppner Hi, rah! rah!
 Go smash that blockade, Heppner Hi, Go crashing ahead, Heppner Hi; Your name is our fame protector, On boys, we full expect a victory from you, Heppner Hi.
 The senior song written by Hazel Beymer is as follows:
 Memories, memories, of old Heppner High;
 Her colors fly beneath the sky and banners wave on high.
 High school days, golden days are gems we may recall, So let's join in song as we march along
 In memories of Heppner High.

Local Happenings

Otto Rietmann reports sub-zero weather at his farm near Ione, but is of the opinion that no particular damage had been done to growing grain. It may take time to tell, however, and like many others in the farming game, Mr. Rietmann would feel just a little better had there been a covering of snow over the fields to the depth of a foot or so before the mercury descended quite so far. Mr. Rietmann was looking after business here Monday.

C. W. Smith and wife and H. A. Cohn and wife returned Saturday from Portland. They attended the meeting of woolgrowers held in the city during the past week and enjoying Christmas cards, which will be followed by candy and a Christmas tree for the kiddies, has been prepared. Installation of the newly elected officers will follow. Those to be installed are: Master, Delbert Wright; overseer, Sterling Fryrear; lecturer, Tracy Parker; chaplain, Hanna Anderson, assistant steward, Onex Parker; gate-keeper, Ben Anderson, secretary, Mrs. O. C. Stevens; steward, Ray Wright; lady assistant steward, Eva Wright; Flora, Margaret Becket; Pomona, Beth Wright; Ceres, Evangeline Phillips.

The family of W. O. Dix enjoyed a week-end visit with Mrs. Rhoda Alvord, sister of Mr. Dix, who was here from her home at Linden, Wash. This is the first visit Mr. Dix has had with his sister in seventeen years, and the meeting was a joyful one. Mrs. Alvord returned to her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osten are parents of a son, born to them on December 9 at the home of Mrs. Maggie Hunt in this city. Mrs. Osten was formerly Miss Thelma Forbes of Ione. They have been making their home the past year in the Willamette valley.

Miss Miriam McDonald, grade teacher in our school, departed on Tuesday morning in her car for Spokane where she will remain until after the first of the year. Miss Juanita Crawford accompanied her as far as Athena to remain for the holiday season. Harold W. Buhman, grade school principal and band leader, is spending his vacation with the home folks at Canby, departing for the valley Wednesday.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo is listed among the many flu victims of the city and has been confined at his home for a week while recuperating.

RHEA CREEK GRANGE NEWS.
 Rhea Creek Grange will hold its regular Saturday night meeting on December 17. A short program, including Christmas Cards, which will be followed by candy and a Christmas tree for the kiddies, has been prepared. Installation of the newly elected officers will follow. Those to be installed are: Master, Delbert Wright; overseer, Sterling Fryrear; lecturer, Tracy Parker; chaplain, Hanna Anderson, assistant steward, Onex Parker; gate-keeper, Ben Anderson, secretary, Mrs. O. C. Stevens; steward, Ray Wright; lady assistant steward, Eva Wright; Flora, Margaret Becket; Pomona, Beth Wright; Ceres, Evangeline Phillips. The dance which was scheduled for December 10th was postponed because of so much sickness and such freezing weather.

HARDMAN

MRS. ELLA FARRRENS.
 The epidemic of influenza which has swept this community does not seem to show any sign of being obliterated for a while. Nearly every family has one or more members suffering from the disease. There has been a marked decrease in attendance the last two weeks at school as about fifty per cent of the pupils are down with the disease.

The splendid fall weather we had previously been enjoying came to a sudden end this last week when the temperature fell to 10-12 below Wednesday night and 23-25 below Thursday night; back to 10 below again Friday night. The ground has also been covered with snow the last few days.

L. J. Burnside was attending to matters of business here Saturday, driving his fast trotting horses hitched to the buggy up from his ranch in Hood canyon. Despite the fact that this method of travel may be somewhat out of style it is still the surest way of covering the ground this winter weather. Those who worked there are to be congratulated upon its fine appearance. As this was the first repairing that has been done on the building for nearly thirty years it was badly in need of being done. The money used for the purpose was raised by lawnspeople two years ago under the supervision of Rev. and Mrs. Moore. Special thanks are due to Mrs. J. W. Stevens who worked there about eight hours a day for thirteen days and supervised the work in general. She was assisted most of the time by Mrs. Carl Leathers, Mrs. Frank McDaniel, Mrs. Lew Knighton, Miss Lucile Farrrens and Miss Mary E. Inskip. Several other people contributed a few days' work, including Mr. and Mrs. Emil Johnson, Wes Stevens, Ed Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Adams. The severe cold weather and serious illness undoubtedly prevented many from assisting in the work.

Wes Stevens attended to the chores for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Musgrave the last week while the Musgraves were business visitors in Heppner. Mr. Musgrave attending to duties during the court session.

Lorena Isom is making an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Swift at their Heppner Flat ranch. Miss Edith Stevens is home from work at the Anson Wright ranch near here where she has been employed as housekeeper for several months.

Jim Inskip is making a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Inskip. Mrs. Bud Fisk has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Charlie McDaniel from her home at Arlington. Mrs. Fisk unfortunately became the victim of influenza while here but is sufficiently recovered to be about now.

J. C. PENNEY'S

Sing a Song of Christmas,
Of gifts and toys, oh, my!
Four-and-twenty blackbirds
Baked in a pie!

When the pie was opened
The birds began to sing,
And then flew off to Penney's,
Where Santa now is King!

NOW OPEN

COME! Bring Mother and Dad!
