In a communication to the automobile committees of the state legislature issued this week, Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, repeated his proposal for a $3.00 automobile se fee, and backed his request with an extensive file of correspondence reflecting the attitude of motorists all over the state.

Secretary Hoss also told members of the committee that his proposal did not include any interference with the present plan of refunding taxes on gasoline used for agricul-tural or industrial purposes. "I am convinced," said Mr. Hoss,

"that the farmers and the loggers and the fishermen who do not use Deulan were attending to matters of business here Monday, driving over from their Heppner flat farms.
