EDITORIAL

The Gladness of Nature
By William Cullen Bryant

"Is this a time to be cloudy and sad,
When our mother Nature laughs
around;
When even the deep blue heavens
look glad,
And gladness breathes from the
blossoming ground?"

There are notes of joy from the
hang-bird and wren,
And the gossip of swallows thru
all the sky;
The ground-squirrel gaily chirps by
his den,
And the wilding bee hums merrily
by.

And look at the broad-faced sun,
How he smiles
On the dewy earth that smiles
in his ray,
Oh the leaping waters and gay
young isles;
Ay, look, he'll smile thy gloom
away."

Tournament Financial Returns

The sub-district basketball tournament held in Heppner, February 28th and March 3rd was self-supporting. The total receipts were $111.50 and the total expenditures $46.55, the balance being divided among the visiting teams according to mileage allowance, which ranged from $1.09 to $12.93.

The Heppner-Adams Game

The game between Heppner and Adams at the Pendleton basketball tournament Friday afternoon was very fast with plenty of thrills. At the close of the first quarter the score was one to thirteen in Adams' favor. In the second quarter the Irish from Heppner raised their score nine points and Adams only two, making the score 10-15. From the very start of the third quarter Adams began to draw away, their score increasing rapidly. The fourth quarter Adams was held down somewhat; as the final gun sounded the score was 41-18, Adams' victory.

The line-up:

Heppner — Adams
Herman Greene — c — Alva Potter
Curtis Thomson — f — Jack Hodgins
Jim Furlong — f — Bun Hodgins
Roy Gentry — g — Harold Murray
Tom Hottman — g — Randall Potter
Subs for Heppner: Billy Becket; for Adams: Robert Rothrock, Wayne LaFave, Billy West.
The trip to Pendleton on Cornet Green's truck was a little windy but everybody seemed to enjoy himself. There was sawdust on the floor of the truck and every time they hit a bump or the wind blew in the back end of the truck everybody would get a shower of sawdust. When they arrived at Pendleton all had to comb the sawdust out of their hair and shake it out of their clothes.
There were twenty-four on the way over but about half that many on the trip back. The curves and bumps didn't seem to agree with Reese Burkenbine and Bill Cochell for they were both sick for a time but they soon recovered.
The assembly was visited several times last week by John Skuzeski's magpie. The magpie came and sat outside on the fire escape and on the windows and looked longingly at the students inside, as if he wished to acquire learning. On about the third day the magpie was admitted by means of an open window. He flew around the assembly and cloak room, then, as if he didn't like the atmosphere, flew out an open window and has not returned.

The Benzine Ring club will entertain the high school assembly tomorrow afternoon. No one has been able to find out what it is about, but some say it will be scientific experiments.

Margaret Brosnan enrolled in high school Monday. She has been attending the Pendleton high school.

The girls' gym club was reorganized last week to make the clubs more evenly divided, and new officers were elected. The girls are starting track and field events, basketball, free throws, baseball throw, broad jump and fifty-yard dash.

Grade News

The third grade had "spring" as the theme for their last projects. The first day they studied signs of spring; the second day they wrote some original poems; the third day, they drew pictures; and the last day they criticized the picture as to balance and good color. Some of the original poems are:

The birds are singing us cheer,
The flowers are peeping thru the ground.
The toads are singing in around,
The animals are coming out of the winter bed,
And the little ones are crying to be fed.
—Lyle Cox.

Spring has come
And winter is done,
Flowers of every hue
Are already greeting you.
—Patricia Cantwell.

Winter is done
And spring has come;
It makes us feel happy all the year,
The birds have filled the air with songs of cheer;

Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah! Spring is here at last. —Berdine Vance.

Two new pupils who entered the fourth grade last week are Elliot Newport and Alvin Wolke.

Dorothy Brookhouser is back in the seventh grade after being absent for a week.

The second grade is now studying Holland. On the board is an outline which directs their project. An appropriate collection of pictures has been made, and they are now decorating their art work which consists of dutch windmills, shoes, etc. Sometime in the future they are going to present to the class a little play, which they are now studying. A circus project has just been completed, including art work, the sand tables and stories.

A band concert is to be given on March 31st, at 8 o'clock by the regular band and the junior band. The girls' quartet will participate. Admission will be 25c.

Rhea Creek Grange.

By VELMA HUSTON
Lawrence Becket of Eight Mile was operated on for ruptured appendix at the Heppner hospital late Monday night. At this writing his condition is extremely critical.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark entertained a group of friends at a smelt fry at their home in Eight Mile.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Batty have taken three youngsters from the Boys' and Girls' Aid society of Portland. The youngsters arrived Friday and will remain with the Batts for an indefinite time.

Mrs. F. E. Allstott is reported much improved following an illness of last week.

Mary and June, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allstott, are now quite fully recovered from injuries received last December in an automobile wreck.

The regular social evening of the Grange will be held next Saturday night. At this time a party will be given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buschke. Dancing will probably be the diversion of the evening. I am asking the ladies to bring pies for supper.

Mrs. O. E. Wright who was reported quite ill last week is not any better and is still confined to her bed. Her friends are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Lambing at the Clyde Wright ranch on Rhea creek is nearly finished. Mr. Wright reports a very successful lambing season. On Sunday afternoon this vicinity was visited by a heavy hail storm followed by a rain. No damage was done except that it did not rain enough to suit the farmers.

On April 1 Rhea Creek Grange will entertain Morrow County Pomona. It is hoped at this time to have with us State Master Ray Gill. It is not definitely known whether he will be here or not but watch the paper for the Pomona lecturer's program. If he comes he will be worth hearing.

There will be a dance at the hall Saturday, March 25. Music by the Cecil orchestra.

Local ads in the Gazette Times bring results.

Judge W. T. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, District Attorney S. E. Notson and County Treasurer Leon W. Briggs departed for Portland Tuesday afternoon, the officials having important business affairs to look after in the city. Going with them was the little daughter of Dan Way of Butter creek, whom Judge and Mrs. Campbell will take to the clinic for an examination of her eyes and have new glasses fitted. This is a case that has been looked after by the Lions club of Heppner, acting in conjunction with the county, and it is thought the girl's eyesight may be saved.

Word received here Monday announced the death of I. C. Large at his home 12 miles below Canyon City. Mr. Large was apparently in the best of health when he retired Sunday evening, and was found dead in his bed Monday morning, having passed away some time during the night. Mr. Large was a resident of this community for many years, leaving here some twenty years ago and going to the Willamette valley. He has resided in Grant county for the past 10 or 12 years.

Judge Huston pronounced sentence of $100 fine and costs each on H. L. Townsend and J. Y. Gibson of the Ione section, who were held before him on Tuesday afternoon by officers Bauman, McMahon and Francis. The men were charged with possession of mash, and plead guilty. They were committed to the custody of the Morrow county sheriff when they announced that they were unable to pay the fine.

Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and daughter, Mary Lou, and Billy Schwarz returned Monday from a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz at Prineville. T. T. Quinn accompanied the party to the Crook county metropolis to have a visit with his family and attend to some business matters. Mrs. Leonard Schwarz returned with them and is spending the week with relatives here.

Official notice appears in this issue of the Gazette Times to the effect that J. L. Gault, receiver of the First National bank and the Farmers and Stockgrowers National bank of this city, is now ready to receive proof of claims against these banks. Claimants should present their proofs to Mr. Gault at the office of the First National bank.

B. B. Kelley, Willow creek flockmaster, expresses the opinion that the recent cold snaps, those of December and February, to be exact, have done no damage to the alfalfa fields up his way, and the proper weather conditions will bring hay along O. K. Mr. Kelley will begin the lambing season at his place about the first of April.

Ralph Butler, here Monday from the ranch below Cecil, is of the opinion that the old alfalfa is going to come out all right and was not winter killed. The new alfalfa, however, has been killed and re-seeding will be necessary. Along Willow creek there will be quite a lot of new seed put in this spring.

Newton Hotchkiss of Burns was field man, assisting Receiver Gault of the local banks for a couple of months. Mr. Hotchkiss arrived at Heppner Sunday to begin his duties the first of the week. He was accompanied by his wife. Marshal Frank of Ione was a visitor in the city on Tuesday. He has about recovered from the injuries he received recently, when handling an obstreperous prisoner at Ione. The cuts he received have about healed.

Monte Bundy, wheatraiser of the Alpine section, was in the city Monday. Wheat has been slow starting in his section, but he expected that if the springlike weather of that day prevailed for long, it would begin to show up much better.

R. I. Thompson represented Willow creek in town Saturday and was glad to report warmer weather conditions that will bring about improvement in the range. This will all help as the lambing season advances.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels M. Johnson represented Dry Fork in the county seat Saturday. The better weather conditions out their way is evidence that spring has arrived and farmers are busy in the fields.

L. A. Florence was in town Saturday and reported that spring had arrived up Willow creek way, with the warmer weather conditions having the effect of bringing along the green grass.

Bert Palmateer, Morgan wheatraiser, was in the city Saturday and reports better weather conditions prevailing. Farmers in that community are now quite busy with re-seeding.

Monte Bundy was a visitor in town Tuesday from the South Springs section. Spring farm work is proceeding out that way, with quite a number busy with re-seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campbell of Pendleton and Mrs. E. L. Knox, sister of Mrs. Campbell, of John Day, spent Sunday at the home of E. F. Campbell in this city.

Walter Becket and Harley Anderson were Eight Mile residents who were in Heppner on Tuesday afternoon for a short time while looking after matters of business.

Joseph Eskelson came up from his Salem home Monday and will spend a short time here and at Lexington while attending to business affairs.

Judge Calvin Sweek of Pendleton was a visitor in Heppner for a short while Monday afternoon, being called here on matters of business.

St. Patrick's Day ball by the ladies of the Catholic church, Elks Temple, Friday night, March 17. Music by local orchestra. 51-53

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Padberg were Heppner flat folks in the city on Saturday.
