Our community was visited by two disastrous fires last week. On Wednesday night at about ten o'clock the country home of Harry Yarnell was burned to the ground. Mr. Yarnell was alone in the house, his family spending the most of the time during the school year at the home in town. The fire was first seen by Lake Beckner and Frank Everson who were plowing night shift in a field half a mile away. They hastened to the scene of the fire. Just before they reached the house Mr. Yarnell was awakened either by their voices or the noise of the falling timbers. The Faith of Easter "Halelujah; for the Lord, our God, the Almighty, reigneth." Rev.

Easter day commemorates the Resurrection of the Crucified Lord; and therein certifies that the truth, to which Jesus had borne testimony, which He embodied in His life, and held fast on the Cross, has behind it the very power of God. That truth was two-fold: a version of Divine character, and a version of human duty-and it received the seal of God's aproval when Jesus broke the bonds of death and returned to His disciples in the fullness of personal life. Calvary had proposed a terrible question; to which Easter returned itors present. A part of the aftera most triumphant answer.
