Achievement Day Celebrated
The Kitchen Queens cookery club, division II, held an achievement day celebration recently at the John Stevens home near Hardman, which was in honor of every club member having completed her year's work. All the mothers were invited and most of them were in attendance. Refreshments of vegetable salad, jello and sandwiches were served. All the recipes were taken from the club book. Club members and leaders agree that we have had a most enjoyable and successful club year, due no doubt to the fine coopertion among members, leaders and parents, and the efficiency of our club leader.
