Heppner's chances of annexing the 1933 Wheatland league pennant, augmented by the defeat of Ione Sunday, 10-6, will be determined to a large degree by the outcome of the game next Sunday when the boys journey to Fossil to meet the present league-leaders. Boys of the ball club are planning a picnic at Blue Mountain park, a short distance from Fossil on the John Day highway, on the way over and have extended a general invitation to ball fans of the city to join them in this and to root at the game. It should be an enjoyable day for everyone who cares to participate. Should Saturday and Sunday be clear, the Heppner-Spray road will be in good condition to travel and the mountain route will be particularly attractive with spring flowers

With two runs each in the first and second innings, and another in the third, Heppner stepped out into what seemed to be a comfortable lead in Sunday's clash. But after scoring one run in the fourth, Ione came through with five more in the sixth to take a one run lead momentarily. Grim determination marked the faces of the Heppner oys as they came to bat in their half of this inning to tally five runners themselves and settle the score at its final figure, 10-6.
