But in March, induswas doing only 60 percent of its normal activity, in April this rose to 67 percent, and for the lief program which can take the month of May, the Federal Reserve place of individual initiative and effort. Board announces, industry in gen. eral was up to 76 percent of its pre-depression production. And YESTERDAY IS DEAD! throughout June the figures were still rising.

The increase in business activity is largest in steel, automobiles, lumber, textiles and shoes. We are beginning to build again, to replace wornout cars with new ones, to buy new clothes and new shoes. Those always the starting points toward recovery. Employment is increasing stead. ily, but not as fast as production. About 61 per cent of employees are back at work. Payrolls still lag behind, being only about 42 percent of normal, at the end of May, That is characteristic, too; wages don't come back until higher prices have been established long enough to bring in the money with which to pay the higher wages. Wages must always be proportioned to profits. There is a good deal of talk about establishing a minimum wage, and many people have the idea that $5 a day would be about right. But we notice that the cotton spinning industry in its new code of practice sets $10 a week in southern mills and $11 in northern as a fair minimum for machine-tenders. We don't know enough about the cotton business to judge, but we think too many people are expecting the "New Deal" to make

Lesson III

By Rev. Charles E. Dunn, D. D.

CALEB. Lesson for July 9th. Joshua 14:6-14. Golden Text: Psalm 40:4.

Caleb is one of the most attractive of the minor characters of the Bible. As a vigorous man of forty he left the wilderness at Kadesh, barnea as one of the spies on that famous scouting expedition into the promised land of Canaan. He and Joshua were the only ones to bring home a favorable report. The other ten were sure that the land could not be successfully occupied, that the obstacles were too great.

But as so often happens, time proved that the minority was was right. And it is pleasant to note that Caleb and Joshua lived long enough to personally participate in the occupation of that golden land they had so courageously and ac-curately praised. In fact, they alone of the twelve spies were permitted to share in its colonization.

The lesson presents Caleb as a hale, hearty veteran of eighty-five, appealing to Joshua for the inheri-tance promised long since by Mojourney of exploration he had taken as a young man, and the subsequent pledge of Moses. His unfaithful colleagues had perished in the wilderness, but he himself had has been able to work that one, as a true, loyal champion of God's truth, deserve a peculiar reward?

Yes, he did. He who had "wholly followed the Lord," as Moses testified, deserved the blessing of his lend discouragement to yourself friend and co-worker, Joshua, and the gift of Hebron, that ancient city so filled with memories of Abraham. Located in a mountainous region, in a basin on a lofty point on the ridge of Judaea, it offered only a meagre living at the ex. pense of exhausting work in stony soil. But Caleb was made of stern stuff. Like a good soldier he crav-ed hardness. We leave him at He bron, a grand old figure, beginning life anew, in the face of difficulty, with all the ardor of youth. Many people admit that honesty is the best policy but the sad com-mentary is that it often takes an inquiry to make them realize it.

The tactful Mexican artist who painted Lenin on the Rockefeller building would probably paint Luther on the walls of the Vatican.
