Local Happenings

It had been 28 years since Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carr left Heppner when they dropped in on old-time friends for a short visit Saturday. As a resident of Heppner at the beginning of the century, Mr. Carr had an active part in the reconstruction of the city after the flood. He was a member of the city band, one of the outstanding organizations of its kind in this section at the time, and was also one of the contractors on the courthouse building. He it was who had charge of the prize-winning Morrow county exhibit at the Lewis & Clark worlds fair in Portland in 1905, being assisted in preparation of the display by Edgar Ayers. Mr. Carr's ideas incorporated in the exhibit were used as a basis for other exhibits at the fair. After leaving Heppner, Mr. Carr located in Seattle, where he followed the contracting business for a time, but for the last 17 years has been instructor in band music and manual training in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Carr dropped in here while on their way to Boardman for a visit with Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. J. K. Carr, and Mrs. John Jenkins. A daughter is the wife of Clinton Gilliam, former Heppner boy. The Gilliam now reside at San Jose, Calif.

Among Heppner people who attended the funeral of the late Robert Carsner at Spray Sunday were L. E. Biebee, Ed Bucknum, Earl W. Gordon, Jasper Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner, Al Rankin, Sam Hughes, Hanson Hughes, J. G. Barratt, Paul Gemmill, George Bleakman, Harold Cohn, Henry Cohn, R. A. Thompson, J. G. Thompson, J. G. Thomson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Orve Rasmus, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Goodman, L. Van Marter, John Kelly, Mrs. John Cason and Ferris Prock.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper of Portland visited in the city Saturday. Mr. Luper reported that his father, James Luper, is bedfast at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Letta Babb, in Portland, suffering from a broken hip which he sustained in a fall recently.

Frankie Christenson, 6-year-old son of Mrs. Helen Christenson, sustained a broken arm Monday when he fell from a tree at the home of his grandfather, J. D. Bauman, in Heppner. It was the second time the member had been thus afflicted.

Reese Burkenbine caught a nice bunch of Rainbow trout on lower Willow creek Sunday morning. Included in the catch was one young salmon measuring 20 inches and another 18 inches. The 20-inch trout dressed out at two pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilson and children departed Monday morning for Blue Mountain springs to spend a week's outing. On Sunday Mr. Wilson drove to John Day to get James Farley who is in charge of the store during his absence.

Mrs. R. J. Carsner and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hughes of Oregon City passed through Heppner Saturday on their way to Spray, where funeral services were held Sunday for Mr. Carsner.

Wes Brannon, pioneer of the Hardman and Eight Mile sections, suffered a paralytic stroke in this city Tuesday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor at their home in Heppner Sunday morning, an 8 1/4-lb. son, named Robert Keith.

Mrs. E. M. Shutt of Los Angeles was a guest this week at the M. L. Case home while visiting old-time friends here.

BOARDMAN

An all-day service was held at the Seventh Day Adventist church last Saturday. The services started in the morning and after a picnic lunch in the camp park they returned to the church for the afternoon service. Elder Rice of Spokane, president of the conference, and Elder Burns, missionary from Australia, were interesting speakers. A number of people were present from Hermiston, Ione and Heppner. Mr. and Mrs. Conyers and family of Cascade, Idaho, spent the week end at the S. C. Russell home. Lelia Conyers returned to her home with them. Miss Dorothy Beers came to Boardman with the Conyers after spending a number of weeks with them. Mrs. Conyers and Mrs. Russell are sisters. The Ladies Aid Silver Tea will be held Wednesday afternoon, August 2, at the home of Mrs. Frank Stevens. Ray Brown went to Walla Walla the first of the week where he will work during harvest. Mrs. Glen Hadley and son Stanton left Thursday for a two weeks vacation at Oregon City. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, Mrs. Oscar Lundell and Charles Smith and daughter were Boardman visitors Thursday. Preaching services will be held in the community church Sunday morning, July 30, at 11 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend. Rev. Payne of Hermiston will deliver the sermon. On Friday George Wicklander left for Moro where he will work on the section and Willard Nickerson went to Biggs. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Becholdt went to Hardman Sunday where they will stay a few days. Their son, Adrain, came from Hardman Saturday and will stay at the ranch here during their absence. Miss Miriam Campbell has been next year at Woodburn. The school budget was posted Monday and shows a cut of approximately $6,000 over last year's budget. The budget will be voted on Friday, August 4, at which time a clerk will be elected to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. S. C. Russell. School will open in Boardman on Monday, September 4. Mrs. Charles Dillon and Mrs. Wm. Strobel went to Hermiston Monday to can vegetables at the cooperative cannery. Glen Hadley, Nils Kristenson and Leo Cooney have purchased the straw from 160 acres of land from the Gorgor brothers. The railroad signal gang is stationed here at Boardman. Mrs. Guy Barlow, Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. J. F. Barlow were in Heppner visiting Saturday. Mrs. McConkey and Art Madden were business visitors in Lonerock Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barlow motored to Condon Saturday where Mrs. Barlow consulted an ear specialist. They returned home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cox and family and Mary Ellen Cooney of Pasco spent the week end in Boardman and were dinner guests Sunday at the Claud Coats home. Echo Coats returned to Pasco with the Coxes. Most of the farmers were busy last week putting up their second cutting of hay. Deibert Johnson returned to Wasco Sunday where he will haul wheat. Mrs. J. F. Gorham left last Tuesday for New Plymouth where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Anderson. Delbert Wetherell of Arlington is staying at the Rutherford home this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Bill La Londe and son, Weldon Ayers and Jack La Londe returned home Sunday from the Yakima valley where they have been working. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carr of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Burnell and son of Longview are guests this week at the John Jenkins home. Robert Becker who has spent the last year here at the home of his mother, Mrs. Howard Bates, returned to Longview last week where he will work in the mills. Miss Katherine Brown returned home last week from a vacation. Miss Brown will teach the third grade at the school at Woodlawn next year.

shape working on the road gang. George Bellman, another boxer, has been appointed as "gas sergeant" at the camp. The boys' favorite middle name for Sgt. Knight is "Hardtack." I liked the way Buro handled the drumsticks at the Lexington dance. Eventually the boys are thinking of organizing a band. We have plenty of talent at the camp. William O'Hare assembles George Doane, the goldbricker, to such an extent that he is often blamed for things the latter has done. Maurice Shortack, Francis Smith, Babe Orent and Mike Devito have social aspirations. Oscar Ferguson has the reputation as the driver who makes the fastest time to town. What little girl in Heppner thinks Mike Devito is the cutest fellow in Camp Bull Prairie? Embarrassing moments: Dr. McGrail bandaging Joe Trub's foot instead of Harvey Favro's. After it was all over, he asked Trub: "How is your leg, Favro?" Lou Aftant, one of the tent leaders, went to Pendleton and starved for two days. Why didn't he go to Heppner? Sheriff Bauman, F. B. Nickerson and John Wightman visited Camp Bull Prairie with a proposition to which the boys agreed heartily. The boys listed below are the ones who were chosen to put on a boxing and wrestling exhibition at the smoker to be given by Sheriff Bauman in Heppner early in August. In the 108 pound class: Paul Patti, Gene Cicatelli; 135, Eric Pilling, Mike Devito, Frank Megliaccio; 145, Wm. Perillo, Ed Korn; 150, George Bellman, Sam Rofsky, Joe Buscemi, Ernest Bezio; 160, Tony Pettelli, Ernest Palmero. They will all do their best to please those who attend. Later in the evening everybody gathered around the camp fire. Gene Cicatelli, master of ceremonies, put on a wonderful show for the visitors. Sid Brender, the golden-voiced tenor, and Bill Landon, the silver-throated songbird, formerly of NBC studios, sang lavishly that evening. They were followed by Jerry Falio, of Borah Minnervitch's Harmonica band, who played the Song of India. Next to go on the program after Bert Smith, the well known radio star, was "Sleepy" Pete Alberti, who was told to go back to bed by our M. C. Last but not least Jim Fitzsimmons, our Russ Columbo, sang in such a manner that he swayed the audience into ecstasy. Accompanied by Tom Gatto, the guitar artist, our trio sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." Then the group joined in the chorus. After this the sheriff thanked the boys for the show and departed.

IRRIGON

MRS. W. C. ISOM. Mr. and Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Gardner and daughter Randa of Portland visited Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markham and family as they were enroute to Baker. Mrs. Rutledge is ill this week. George Morsett, who is working in the tractor division of forestry work at Bull Prairie, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his uncle, Paul Grassell. Mr. and Mrs. Batie and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rand and Rex Moses were business visitors in Heppner Saturday. Robert Allen of Portland is spending a few weeks with his aunt, Mrs. D. Kenney. Several families attended field day picnic Sunday. A splendid picnic lunch was served at the noon hour. Mr. Leicht, in whose camp the picnic was held, served ice cream to everyone, which was appreciated as the day was unusually warm. County Agent Chas. W. Smith and Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, county school superintendent, motored over from Heppner. They were accompanied by Louise and Lucille Moyer of Heppner. The girls will visit a few days with the Misses Nellie and Ruth Leicht. Mrs. Rodgers gave a short talk on 4-H club work. Louise Moyer and Ruth Leicht each related their experiences at summer school, all of which was very interesting. Mr. Barnard of Hermiston and Mrs. McFarland of Umatilla were down for a short time Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Chapman and small daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kendler, Jr., of Umatilla and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isom were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom Sunday afternoon. Don Isom went to work on the Spinning ranch east of Umatilla Monday. The married men again played the single men on the local ball diamond Sunday afternoon, winning the game by three points.

News of CAMP BULL PRAIRIE

By Our Camp Correspondent. Marion Saling, the fire guard at Bull Prairie, reports that 167 visitors came to see our camp last Sunday. Sid Brender, our blues singer, received 50 cents from two ladies in the Elkhorn restaurant when he sang, "Have You Ever Been Lonely?" Personal nomination of the boys for the most popular girl at the Lexington dance, Adele Nickerson. Jack Casteel and Russell Wright claim that they voted dry in the last election. Steve Nakelski, manager of Tony Pittelli, the master mechanic, says his man will meet all comers in a wrestling match. Ben (Tarzan) Cooper was the first one to receive the Cooper was the first one to receive Bull Prairie. Alford E. (Sandino) Orifice, our favorite announcer, is now training for the big affair at Heppner, three weeks from Saturday. Frank Megliaccio, the Italian boxer, is getting into

—neither strong enough, nor safe enough, nor quiet enough for the body of a quality car like CHEVROLET

Why is it that every 12-cylinder and 16-cylinder car in America has bodies of steel reinforced by hardwood? Why is it that every make of car selling for over $4000 uses bodies of exactly the same type? Why? For the same reason that Chevrolet uses it exclusively. Because every test and every experiment have definitely proved: STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!
