A New Deal

When Roosevelt's New Deal is put into full force, the American buyers, manufacturers, and producers are not the only ones who will receive a new deal. Changes will also come over the American school children. When the parents of these children have their hours reduced and their wages increased. they will then devote more time to the home life and to a wiser use children will develop a common in-terest in recreation. Recites Red Cross Deeds In Appeal for Members

"In the minds of our people the Red Cross is symbolic of good deeds," says Judge John Barton Payne, chairman of the American National Red Cross, at Washington, D. C., in a stirring appeal to citizens of the United States.

In a message to the people of the Pacific states received by A. L. Schafer, Red Cross manager in the Pacific Area, Chairman Payne says concerning the annual Roll Call,

November 11-30: "The Red Cross carries on! More than 25 million of our people have had that fact brought home to them in the last 18 months. They were fed and clothed by the Red Cross to which a generous congress entrusted the task of the nation-wide flour and cotton distribution. The responsibility was accepted cheer-fully. The duty has been discharged effectually due to the unfailing cooperation, support and helpful-ness of our Chapters and Branches
