

IONE

By MARGARET BELAKE

Willows grange held their regular business meeting at their hall in Cecil Saturday evening, October 28. Preceding the business session an interesting lecture hour program was enjoyed. Several Hallowe'en numbers were given by pupils of the Cecil school. One especially good reading was composed and given by Henry Krebs, Jr., seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs of Cecil. Mrs. Constance Crawford read a paper on "The Origin of Hallowe'en." There were several other numbers including a vocal solo by Donald Holker, a piano solo by Mabel Krebs, a reading, "Corn and Corns," by O. L. Lundell, and the reading of a letter received by Donald Helker from Harold Fennell, an O. S. C. student, which gave an interesting account of a trip made by a Farm Crops class to Astoria where they certified three or more tons of Bent grass seed. They were accompanied on the trip by Prof. Hyslop, of O. S. C. During the business meeting a number of communications were read and disposed of. Announcement was made of a county council meeting which is to be held at Boardman Saturday, Nov. 4, at eight p. m. All masters, lecturers, Home Ec. chairmen and agricultural chairmen and as many other members as can be urged to attend. The sixth or State Grange degree will be conferred on anyone wishing to take it at this time. A community welfare committee was appointed to plan ways and means of helping in welfare work. Several applications for membership were received and read at the meeting. Willows grange is securing a dance license for the grange hall and hopes by doing so to be able to conduct their dances on social evenings on a better business basis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitson are the parents of a ten-pound son born at Heppner October 25. Mrs. Margaret Rietmann, Mrs. Victor Rietmann and son and David Rietmann departed Monday for a visit of a week or more at the home of Mrs. Rietmann's daughter, Mrs. Anna Stith at Meridian, Idaho. Accompanying them as far as Nampa was Miss Lucille Bristow who will spend a month or more at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bristow of that city.

I. R. Robison departed Monday for Portland where he will spend a few days on business. Mrs. Myrtle Dalzell, field representative of the Boys and Girls Aid society of Portland, was in Ione during the past week on her semi-annual trip of inspection in connection with the placing of wards of the society in private homes. Several boys from this home are located on farms near Ione.

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion post of Ione will hold regular sewing meeting on Tuesday of each week for the purpose of making inexpensive Xmas gifts to be offered for sale. The money received from this source will be used by the auxiliary in its work which includes child welfare and Xmas gifts for men in the Veteran's hospital at Portland and their families. Each year clothing and baskets of food are distributed among the needy families of veterans throughout the state and the local unit has contributed money, canned foods, etc., for this purpose and has also done sewing—making up new materials into clothing and renovating old clothing, and it hopes to be able to carry on in the past. An opportunity will be given the public at a later date to see the gifts the auxiliary is making and orders for duplicates will be accepted.

Mrs. Aaron Agee of Boardman was in Ione Monday in connection with the soliciting of funds and foods for schools conducted by the Adventist church. Robert McCabe and J. Y. Gibson were fortunate Ione hunters to bag an elk in the recent open season. Mrs. Henry Peterson and children returned Tuesday from a visit at Mrs. Peterson's old home in McPherson, Kansas.

Laxton McMurray has finished making sorghum "lasses" at his ranch on Willow creek, having made 657 gallons of the syrup during the past few weeks from the sorghum raised on his place. He also made some up for a farmer near Boardman who raised his own sorghum.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Batterby of Portland arrived on Friday for a short visit at the J. H. Bryson home. They were accompanied by Paul Long, Charles Raymond and Frank Petrino, all of Portland, who came up to enjoy a few days of pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Johan Troedson departed in company with their son Carl and Clifford McCabe last week for a visit with relatives in California. They also expected to visit their son Francis, a student at O. S. C. at Corvallis, and their daughter, Linea, a teacher in the high school at Ashland.

Considerable interest has been taken by townswomen in playing volleyball at the gym on Monday and Wednesday evenings of each week. About twenty women have attended so far and an informal organization has been effected with Miss Norma Swanson as president and Mrs. George Tucker as secretary-treasurer. All townswomen are welcome and urged to attend.

The Congregational ladies held an all day meeting at the church parlors last Thursday. Quilting was the order of the day and a pot luck dinner was served to the ladies and their families at noon. Out of town ladies who attended were Mrs. Nicolai Thompson, Mrs. Bert Palmater and Mrs. J. A. Troedson. Chas. O'Connor went to Portland last week end.

Sam Spittle of Astoria, a brother of Miss Lucy Spittle, teacher in the local school, was in Ione Friday afternoon for a few hours visit with his sister before going to Washington, D. C., where he will be employed by the government in electrical engineering work of some kind. Mr. Spittle also called on Mrs. Jennie McMurray whom he met when he was a classmate of Mrs. McMurray's son, Nolan Page, at O. S. C. Mr. Spittle drove from here to Kinnebeck, Wn.; Friday night where he expected to make a short visit with friends made during his employment with the Pacific Power & Light company in that city some time ago.

The Past Noble Grand club gave their Hallowe'en dance last Saturday evening and it was very well attended in spite of attractions at other nearby towns. A very enjoyable time was had by those attending and a substantial financial return made by the club. Modern and old time dances were the order of the evening and cards were played in the Auxiliary room by those not caring to dance. A delicious lunch was served during the later part of the evening.

Thirty or more persons from Ione attended and enjoyed the Musical Melange given at Lexington Friday evening under the direction of Laurel Beach, musical director of the Lexington high school. The Ione artist who appeared on the program was Miss Lucy Spittle, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades here. Miss Spittle sang an alto part in the ensemble singing and in duets with Mr. Beach and Mrs. Williams, and also sang two solo numbers, very beautifully.

Myrtle Green, a high school girl who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grabbit, is confined to her home with a skin eruption that is apparently German measles. An invitation to the general public to attend a social at their school on Friday evening, Nov. 3, at 8:00 o'clock, has been issued by the Gooseberry school. There will be a program and supper. Those attending are asked to bring cake and sandwiches.

Homer Mankin and H. W. Filkins drove over to Pendleton to visit a dentist Monday. Mrs. Walter Eubanks returned the first of the week from Ashland where she has been for medical treatment recently. On her way home she visited in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Veda Brenner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin were interested spectators at the livestock exposition at Portland during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rietmann accompanied them to the city and Mr. Rietmann returned home with them Sunday while Mrs. Rietmann remained in the city until the first of this week when she took a boat for California. She will spend some time in the sunny south visiting with her mother, Mrs. Lord, at Imperial Beach, near San Diego, and at other points.

Stanley McMurray, a son of the late Mont McMurray, of Clarkston, Wash., is visiting relatives in Ione. Rev. Pollard, pastor at large for the Congregational church, accompanied by his wife and small daughter, were in Ione Sunday evening when Mr. Pollard preached at the Congregational church here. Mr. Pollard, who has filled the pulpit here once each month for some time has accepted the pastorate of the Highland Congregational church of Portland and this was his last service here. During the evening announcement was made of the annual meeting of the Mid-Columbia Conference of Congregational churches at Condon on the afternoon of November 20, and the visitation of the state superintendent which will be held in the evening of the same date. As many as possible were urged to attend from this church.

Miss Jeanne Huston, a graduate of Ione high school with the class of '32, is taking a course in beauty work at the Sanitary Beauty school in Portland. Mrs. Maude Farris has returned from Portland where she has spent the past few weeks taking a special course in finger and permanent waving at the Sanitary Beauty school. While there she learned all the latest twists and turns in making beautiful ladies more beautiful. Before coming home she purchased one of the latest models of permanent waving machines. It is wired in such a way as to eliminate all danger of coming to the end of a perfect wave with a halo instead of the longed-for curls. The machine could not be plugged in on the regular light circuit but had to have special wiring and is now installed. Hallowe'en was observed in the lower grades of the school here on Tuesday afternoon when the first and second grades under the coaching of their teacher, Miss Pope, staged an Indian play for the entertainment of their mothers. Following the program, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and Hallowe'en candies were served to the youngsters and their guests.

In the third and fourth grade room a party was given. After recess games were played, then refreshments of fruit, jello, sandwiches and cake were served. Last Friday morning at the gym the freshmen had charge of assembly. Mr. Laurel Beach, teacher from the Lexington school, accompanied by Mrs. Gillis also of Lexington sang two numbers which were well received. He also made a short talk announcing the musical program to be staged at Lexington that evening. The freshman program consisted of three humorous skits and a vocal solo all of which brought forth great applause. The program was ended by group singing of familiar songs led by Miss Spittle.

Miss Doris Allstott was hostess to a large group of girls and boys at a party given at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Allstott, Jr., on Tuesday evening. Dancing and games were enjoyed and refreshments served at a late hour.

Lexington School Notes In grades one to four the following pupils were placed on the honor roll for the last six weeks: First grade, Gerry Cutler, Colleen and Jack Miller; second grade, Marcella Jackson and Colleen McMillan; third grade, Bunny Breshers, and fourth grade, Lavelle Pieper and Duane Johnson.

The last football game of the season turned out to be the most successful when Lexington won last Saturday from Echo, 13-9. Lexington boys played a good brand of

LEXINGTON

By BEULAH B. NICHOLS.

More than eight hundred people attended the annual reunion of Morrow county pioneers which was held at Lexington Saturday. People from all over the county attended, as well as many from other counties. The festivities of the day began with the sumptuous basket dinner at noon. In the center of the table of honor was the lovely birthday cake which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Kate Luttrell. At this table were seated those who were sixty-five years of age or older.

In the afternoon an interesting program was presented under the direction of Laurel Beach. The program began with the singing of old time songs by the audience. Other numbers included, piano solo, Iva Kuns; violin solo, Billy Wells of Pendleton with Miss Helen Falconer, also of Pendleton, at the piano; vocal solo, Miss Lucy Spittle of Ione, with accompaniment by Miss Lorraine Pope; vocal duet, Mrs. James H. Williams and Laurel Beach; vocal duet, Mrs. James H. Williams and Miss Lucy Spittle; vocal duet, Miss Lucy Spittle and Laurel Beach; piano solo, Marjorie Parker of Heppner; reading, Miss Lorraine Pope; violin solo, Billy Wells, vocal solo, Laurel Beach.

After the program an hour of visiting and greeting old friends was enjoyed before supper. Early in the evening "The Merry Troupers" of Hermiston presented the play "Good Gracious Grandma" under the auspices of the Lexington grange. An hour of old time dancing was enjoyed by the older people and the remainder of the evening was taken up with modern dancing.

The Lexington Home Economics club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Johnson with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Geo. Peck as hostesses. Fifteen members and eight visitors were present. The afternoon was spent quilting. The guests were Cecile Jackson, Bertha Nelson, Lulu White, Edith Miller, Emma White, Hortense Martin, Lorena Miller, Pearl Devine, Pearl Gore, Laura Scott, Laura Rice, Cora Allyn, Celeste Williams, Anna Smouse, Helen Martin, Bertha Dinges, Bernice Bauman, Viola Rowell, Marie Patterson, Grace Burchell, Mae Burchell and Beulah Nichols.

The "Musical Melange," presented by the high school glee club on Friday evening was one of the rarest treats of its kind ever to be offered by Lexington high school. Featured in the performance were five artists of exceptional talent. They were Laurel Beach, tenor; Mrs. James H. Williams, soprano; Miss Lucy Spittle, alto; Miss Esther Frederickson, violinist, and Miss Eula McMillan, pianist.

The program was presented in three parts, the first Spanish, the second a presentation of "Blossom Time," featuring Schubert's melodies, and the third a combination of popular and classical music. Appropriate costuming was used throughout. The program follows: INSERT LEX ACT I Rosita Ensemble Dupont Carmena Ensemble Wilson Habanera (Carmen) Bisset Miss Lucy Spittle Spanish Dance Sarazate Miss Esther Frederickson Toreador Song (Carmen) Bisset Laurel Beach Espana Ensemble Waldteufe

There is an Old Vienna Town. Serenade Tell Me Daisy Peace to My Lonely Heart Song of Love Only One Love Ever Fills the Heart ACT III The Spirit Flower Campbell-Tipton Lind Lou Mrs. James H. Williams Caprice Viennois Kreisler The Old Refrains Kreisler Miss Esther Frederickson Hills of Home Fox Grandma Miss Lucy Spittle Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life Herbert Kiss Me Again Herbert Gypsy Love Song Herbert Mrs. Williams Miss Spittle, Mr. Beach Nocturne Currian The Morning Wind Branscombe The Glow Worm Ensemble

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Burchell and Mr. Memarest of Sheridan were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burchell last week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever and family returned Friday from a week's visit with relatives in Portland.

E. C. Miller came up from his home at Salem last week to look after business interests here. Miss Helen Falconer of Pendleton spent the week end with Lexington friends and attended the pioneers' reunion Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tucker motored to Pendleton Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt are the proud parents of an eight-pound son, born on Tuesday afternoon, October 31.

George Scott, who has spent several months with relatives here, left Thursday by stage to return to his home at Dow City, Iowa. Vernon Warner and James Valentine spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt and son Elwood motored to Hermiston on Sunday. Miss Elsie Tucker, who teaches at Alice, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tucker.

The Home Economics club will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Miller for an all-day meeting.

Lexington School Notes In grades one to four the following pupils were placed on the honor roll for the last six weeks: First grade, Gerry Cutler, Colleen and Jack Miller; second grade, Marcella Jackson and Colleen McMillan; third grade, Bunny Breshers, and fourth grade, Lavelle Pieper and Duane Johnson.

The last football game of the season turned out to be the most successful when Lexington won last Saturday from Echo, 13-9. Lexington boys played a good brand of ball and in spite of their lighter weight managed to run up the score on the visiting team. The musical melange given at Lexington last Friday evening was well attended. A large number came from both Ione and Heppner. The program was sponsored by the high school glee club and was under the direction of Laurel Beach. The glee club was well pleased with the financial returns and plan to buy musical materials for future programs.

Under the direction of George Gillis the grades and high school are soon to participate in wrestling and boxing. Plans for a benefit program are now in progress. The proceeds will be used to purchase a wrestling mat. A large number of boys in high school and grade school have shown a desire to take part in this activity.

Gym schedules have had to be changed due to the fact that both boys and girls will be using the gym. The boys will have a few days volleyball practice before starting regular basketball training. The girls' volleyball team has been practicing very faithfully for the last few weeks. Rumor has it that they intend to challenge the boys, the losers to stage a party for the winners. The boys declare they can't lose either way. Time will tell.

A week from Friday, on Nov. 10, an Armistice Day program will be given in the auditorium at 2:15. This will be open to the public. All grades will participate. Football awards will soon be made.

At Heppner CHURCHES

HARDMAN

By LUCILLE FARRENS A community picnic and wood sawing party was staged last Saturday at the Tyndal Robison place in the mountains for the benefit of the Sunday school and church. Despite the rain a jolly good time was had by all present. The tree was donated to the cause by Dick Steers and Gus and Bunny Steers ran the wood saw. Mr. and Mrs. Robison were found to be gracious in the hospitality of their home. Present were the Misses Desjale and

Is it Worth $5 a Month To know that your widow would receive $25 a month. Ask about the Family Insurance Policy. MRS. ANNA Q. THOMSON Office in Mahrt's Electric Shop

IONE CASH MARKET Fresh and Cured MEATS Butterfat, Turkeys, Chickens bought for SWIFT & CO. Phone us for market prices at all times. Phone 32 IONE, ORE.

BROWN BOBBY GREASELESS DOUGHNUTS Popular national food. Fresh daily. Delicious. Just the thing for Hallowe'en. Made in my home. At local stores. MRS. GEO. MOORE

Trade and Employment EXCHANGE (Printed without charge. Discontinued on notice.) To trade—Wenning pigs for wheat or what have you? Alonzo Edmondson, Heppner.

To trade—Netted Gem potatoes for hogs or wheat. Michael Cassidy, Boardman. To trade—Practically unused $150 C melody Beugles saxophone, or six-tube console Airline radio, or No. 12 Remington typewriter, good as new, for a good used piano. W. L. Suddarth, Ione.

Want to trade for 2nd-hand cream separator. W. L. Copenhaver, Lexington. Good mule to trade for wheat. Jason Biddle, Ione. Netted Gem potatoes to trade for wheat. Alfred Skoubo, Boardman. To Trade—Young turkeys for wood. Mrs. Chris Brown, city. Geese to trade for fresh young milk cow. Lana A. Padberg, Ione.

To Trade—Wood and pigs for wheat. W. H. French, Hardman. To trade—Cows and hay track and carrier for Van Brunt grain drills. Leo Gorgor, Lexington. One 3-bottom, 14-in. gang to trade for rye or wheat. W. P. Hill, Box 526, Heppner. To Trade—5 head good mules for good horses; also saddle mare for work horse. Troy Bogard, Heppner, phone 6F12.

To Trade—Horse for wheat or wood. Wm. Kummerland, Lexington. Will trade for boy's saddle pony. A. F. Majeske, Lexington. For trade—Dairy cattle for sheep, wheat or barley. Roy Nell, Echo.

Two fresh heifers with calves to trade for hogs or sheep. John G. Farker, phone 1FE3. To trade—Fresh milk cow. Max Schulz, Heppner. To trade—Pint and quart bottles; also three 100-gal. barrels. Max Schulz, Heppner.

Bert Scritchfield Rites Held at Prairie City Bert Scritchfield, an itinerant farm hand who had been in and about Heppner for the last three years, died at a Prairie City hospital, and was buried at Canyon City at 6 o'clock last Saturday morning. A funeral service was held at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A post mortem examination fixed the cause of death as a blood clot on the brain.

Scritchfield was found unconscious in his bed at a sheep camp near Hamilton on Wednesday, and was taken to a doctor at Long Creek. The doctor was unable to give him relief and he was taken to the hospital at Prairie City. Leon Totterico and other friends from Heppner attended the funeral rites. Scritchfield made his home with Totterico here last winter for five months. He came to Heppner in July 1930, and had worked on farms about here. Last summer he sustained a broken shoulder and displaced neck when he fell from a combine. It is believed his fatal illness may have resulted from this injury. Friends believe that Scritchfield may have been an assumed name and have given out all the information they have in an attempt to locate relatives, none of whom had been located at the time of burial. The deceased once claimed to have been a buckaroo in Blackhorse between 25 and 30 years ago. He had mentioned a son 17 years old, last known to have been at Klamath Falls; also an older brother whom he had not heard from for seven years, residence unknown; and a sister residing in Wallawa county. He attended school at Colfax, Wash., as a boy, leaving school at 13 years of age. He rode at the Pendleton Round-Up in 1914, and worked in a saloon there when prohibition came into being, later being employed as foreman of a large wheat ranch near Pendleton which worked 80 mules. Earlier he had worked in mines near Couer d'Alene and Lewiston, Idaho, being well acquainted in the latter place. He had friends at Klamath Falls where he visited in company with Totterico last June. These friends called him by a different name, Totterico recalls.

Scritchfield was 51 years of age; was dark complexioned, smooth shaven with light beard and nice features. He was 5 feet, 7 inches tall, and weighed between 145 and 150 pounds. He was said to be even tempered. He had undergone an operation for hernia 15 years ago, and an upper front tooth had been missing for 20 years. Totterico asks that anyone suspicious of the true identity of the deceased or knowing of the location of relatives communicate with him for full particulars.

Pat Bleakman, Charlotte Adams, Loes Ashbaugh, Loes Stevens, Genevieve Morgan, Frances Inskeep, Dolly and Lucille Farrens, Mrs. Elly and Mildred and Mr. Maxine McDaniel, Charles Johnson, Roland Farrens, Estin Johnson, Harvey DeMoss, Leon Chapin, Gus and Bunny Steers, Claud Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Tyndal Robison. Mrs. Neal Knighten was the recipient of a shower given her at her home here last Saturday afternoon. The affair was sponsored by the Rebekahs of which Mrs. Knighten is a member. Present were Mesdames Lew Knighten, Joe and Lewis Batty, Beulah Bell, J. B. Adams, Clair Ashbaugh, Bill Johnson, Frank McDaniel, James Hams, Floyd Adams, Harlan Adams, Nora Moore, Ralph Scott, J. W. Stevens, E. H. Bleakman and Carl Leathers, Misses Muri Farrens and Loes Ashbaugh. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served by the Rebekahs present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steers were attending to matters of business in Heppner last Saturday. Tim Kurth and Duff McKetric who have been working the past six months in Montana, Wyoming and North Dakota, recently returned here and state that they expect to spend the winter months in this country. While gone the boys visited their homes in Scranton, N. D.

Orin McDaniel came over from Lonerock last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel, Sr. Mrs. Everett Harshman spent last week visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ethel McDaniel. Mildred Farrens was a visitor here Sunday.

For Sale—Barley, $20 per ton if taken before Nov. 1. E. C. Miller, Lexington, 32-33. For Sale—Thomasoe drill, 11-ft., $30; good shape, Fred Ritchie, Ione. Wanted—Sewing machine, prefer long-shuttle Singer or White. Mrs. Henry Aiken, Heppner. Found—Bunch of six keys. Owner may have same by calling at

LAURENCE CASE MORTUARY "Just the service wanted when you want it most"

Do You Know That—Children will drink cocoa and eat cooked cereals willingly when flavored with WATKINS VANILLA? The only vanilla extract with that truly delicious flavor. J. C. HARDING, Watkins Dealer

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY KNOCKOUTS 100 LBS. SUGAR $5.26 7 PKGS. JELL DESSERT 49c DRIP COFFEE IN GLASS JAR 34c 2-LB. CAN B. & W. COCOA 27c BBL. FLOUR $5.95 CORN, 3 CANS FOR 25c WASHO, PKG., Nothing Better 30c TOILET TISSUE, 6 ROLLS 25c

And the "Quality is always higher than the price" here. W. O. Dix Grocery W. O. DIX, Proprietor

Trade and Employment EXCHANGE (Printed without charge. Discontinued on notice.) To trade—Wenning pigs for wheat or what have you? Alonzo Edmondson, Heppner.

To trade—Netted Gem potatoes for hogs or wheat. Michael Cassidy, Boardman. To trade—Practically unused $150 C melody Beugles saxophone, or six-tube console Airline radio, or No. 12 Remington typewriter, good as new, for a good used piano. W. L. Suddarth, Ione.

Want to trade for 2nd-hand cream separator. W. L. Copenhaver, Lexington. Good mule to trade for wheat. Jason Biddle, Ione. Netted Gem potatoes to trade for wheat. Alfred Skoubo, Boardman. To Trade—Young turkeys for wood. Mrs. Chris Brown, city. Geese to trade for fresh young milk cow. Lana A. Padberg, Ione.

To Trade—Wood and pigs for wheat. W. H. French, Hardman. To trade—Cows and hay track and carrier for Van Brunt grain drills. Leo Gorgor, Lexington. One 3-bottom, 14-in. gang to trade for rye or wheat. W. P. Hill, Box 526, Heppner. To Trade—5 head good mules for good horses; also saddle mare for work horse. Troy Bogard, Heppner, phone 6F12.

To Trade—Horse for wheat or wood. Wm. Kummerland, Lexington. Will trade for boy's saddle pony. A. F. Majeske, Lexington. For trade—Dairy cattle for sheep, wheat or barley. Roy Nell, Echo.

Two fresh heifers with calves to trade for hogs or sheep. John G. Farker, phone 1FE3. To trade—Fresh milk cow. Max Schulz, Heppner. To trade—Pint and quart bottles; also three 100-gal. barrels. Max Schulz, Heppner.

Bert Scritchfield Rites Held at Prairie City Bert Scritchfield, an itinerant farm hand who had been in and about Heppner for the last three years, died at a Prairie City hospital, and was buried at Canyon City at 6 o'clock last Saturday morning. A funeral service was held at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A post mortem examination fixed the cause of death as a blood clot on the brain.

Scritchfield was found unconscious in his bed at a sheep camp near Hamilton on Wednesday, and was taken to a doctor at Long Creek. The doctor was unable to give him relief and he was taken to the hospital at Prairie City. Leon Totterico and other friends from Heppner attended the funeral rites. Scritchfield made his home with Totterico here last winter for five months. He came to Heppner in July 1930, and had worked on farms about here. Last summer he sustained a broken shoulder and displaced neck when he fell from a combine. It is believed his fatal illness may have resulted from this Hanlon studio on Baltimore street. Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Heppner hotel on Wednesday, Nov. 8.—Ad.

NOTICE OF SALE OF COUNTY LANDS. BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER of the County Court, dated the 6th day of September, 1933, I am authorized and directed to sell at public auction, as provided by law, at not less than the minimum price herein set forth, $500 per lot for the following lots: Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, Block 29, in the Town of Irrigon, Oregon. THEREFORE, I will on the 18th day of November, 1933, at the hour of 2:00 P. M., at the front door of the Court House in Heppner, Oregon, sell said property to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand.

Dated this 24th day of October, 1933. C. J. D. BAUMAN, Sheriff of Morrow County, Oregon.

SALE Of Farming Stock and Equipment Private sale at Lucille Hiatt Farm in Sanford Canyon, 8 miles SE of Heppner, any time, including:

30 Head of Beef Cattle 15 Jersey Cows 1 Jersey Bull Horses, various ages 22 Ewe Lambs Binder—Plow—Drill Springtooth Harrow Weeder—Derrick Wagons 1 New Dodge Truck Turkey Hens Bronze and Narragative Toms Hay—Alfalfa, Wheat, Rye All items sold strictly for cash

Do You Know That—Children will drink cocoa and eat cooked cereals willingly when flavored with WATKINS VANILLA? The only vanilla extract with that truly delicious flavor. J. C. HARDING, Watkins Dealer

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY KNOCKOUTS 100 LBS. SUGAR $5.26 7 PKGS. JELL DESSERT 49c DRIP COFFEE IN GLASS JAR 34c 2-LB. CAN B. & W. COCOA 27c BBL. FLOUR $5.95 CORN, 3 CANS FOR 25c WASHO, PKG., Nothing Better 30c TOILET TISSUE, 6 ROLLS 25c

And the "Quality is always higher than the price" here. W. O. Dix Grocery W. O. DIX, Proprietor

Trade and Employment EXCHANGE (Printed without charge. Discontinued on notice.) To trade—Wenning pigs for wheat or what have you? Alonzo Edmondson, Heppner.

To trade—Netted Gem potatoes for hogs or wheat. Michael Cassidy, Boardman. To trade—Practically unused $150 C melody Beugles saxophone, or six-tube console Airline radio, or No. 12 Remington typewriter, good as new, for a good used piano. W. L. Suddarth, Ione.

Want to trade for 2nd-hand cream separator. W. L. Copenhaver, Lexington. Good mule to trade for wheat. Jason Biddle, Ione. Netted Gem potatoes to trade for wheat. Alfred Skoubo, Boardman. To Trade—Young turkeys for wood. Mrs. Chris Brown, city. Geese to trade for fresh young milk cow. Lana A. Padberg, Ione.

To Trade—Wood and pigs for wheat. W. H. French, Hardman. To trade—Cows and hay track and carrier for Van Brunt grain drills. Leo Gorgor, Lexington. One 3-bottom, 14-in. gang to trade for rye or wheat. W. P. Hill, Box 526, Heppner. To Trade—5 head good mules for good horses; also saddle mare for work horse. Troy Bogard, Heppner, phone 6F12.

To Trade—Horse for wheat or wood. Wm. Kummerland, Lexington. Will trade for boy's saddle pony. A. F. Majeske, Lexington. For trade—Dairy cattle for sheep, wheat or barley. Roy Nell, Echo.

Two fresh heifers with calves to trade for hogs or sheep. John G. Farker, phone 1FE3. To trade—Fresh milk cow. Max Schulz, Heppner. To trade—Pint and quart bottles; also three 100-gal. barrels. Max Schulz, Heppner.

Bert Scritchfield Rites Held at Prairie City Bert Scritchfield, an itinerant farm hand who had been in and about Heppner for the last three years, died at a Prairie City hospital, and was buried at Canyon City at 6 o'clock last Saturday morning. A funeral service was held at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A post mortem examination fixed the cause of death as a blood clot on the brain.

Scritchfield was found unconscious in his bed at a sheep camp near Hamilton on Wednesday, and was taken to a doctor at Long Creek. The doctor was unable to give him relief and he was taken to the hospital at Prairie City. Leon Totterico and other friends from Heppner attended the funeral rites. Scritchfield made his home with Totterico here last winter for five months. He came to Heppner in July 1930, and had worked on farms about here. Last summer he sustained a broken shoulder and displaced neck when he fell from a combine. It is believed his fatal illness may have resulted from this injury. Friends believe that Scritchfield may have been an assumed name and have given out all the information they have in an attempt to locate relatives, none of whom had been located at the time of burial. The deceased once claimed to have been a buckaroo in Blackhorse between 25 and 30 years ago. He had mentioned a son 17 years old, last known to have been at Klamath Falls; also an older brother whom he had not heard from for seven years, residence unknown; and a sister residing in Wallawa county. He attended school at Colfax, Wash., as a boy, leaving school at 13 years of age. He rode at the Pendleton Round-Up in 1914, and worked in a saloon there when prohibition came into being, later being employed as foreman of a large wheat ranch near Pendleton which worked 80 mules. Earlier he had worked in mines near Couer d'Alene and Lewiston, Idaho, being well acquainted in the latter place. He had friends at Klamath Falls where he visited in company with Totterico last June. These friends called him by a different name, Totterico recalls.

Scritchfield was 51 years of age; was dark complexioned, smooth shaven with light beard and nice features. He was 5 feet, 7 inches tall, and weighed between 145 and 150 pounds. He was said to be even tempered. He had undergone an operation for hernia 15 years ago, and an upper front tooth had been missing for 20 years. Totterico asks that anyone suspicious of the true identity of the deceased or knowing of the location of relatives communicate with him for full particulars.

Pat Bleakman, Charlotte Adams, Loes Ashbaugh, Loes Stevens, Genevieve Morgan, Frances Inskeep, Dolly and Lucille Farrens, Mrs. Elly and Mildred and Mr. Maxine McDaniel, Charles Johnson, Roland Farrens, Estin Johnson, Harvey DeMoss, Leon Chapin, Gus and Bunny Steers, Claud Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Tyndal Robison. Mrs. Neal Knighten was the recipient of a shower given her at her home here last Saturday afternoon. The affair was sponsored by the Rebekahs of which Mrs. Knighten is a member. Present were Mesdames Lew Knighten, Joe and Lewis Batty, Beulah Bell, J. B. Adams, Clair Ashbaugh, Bill Johnson, Frank McDaniel, James Hams, Floyd Adams, Harlan Adams, Nora Moore, Ralph Scott, J. W. Stevens, E. H. Bleakman and Carl Leathers, Misses Muri Farrens and Loes Ashbaugh. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served by the Rebekahs present.