

Local Happenings

Lloyd Burkenbine, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burkenbine, who has been critically ill for several days suffering from appendicitis, was reported by his father this morning apparently to be making progress toward recovery.

A wedding of the past week of interest to Heppner people was that of Miss Alice Bleakman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bleakman, and Mr. Harry Peterson of Ione.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Thomson, Jr., who were married at the Christmas tide, a no-hostess dinner was served at the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. George Mabey on Saturday evening.

Jas. Helms was in town a short time Wednesday forenoon. He states that the soil out his way is wet down to a depth of about two and a half feet, and he hopes for a continuance of precipitation.

More winter weather prevailed about Lexington at the close of the year than visited Heppner. Alfred Nelson, who farms north of the wheat city, was in town on Saturday.

Glen Hadley was in the city Saturday, coming up from the farm home on the Boardman project.

The Misses Audrey and Hazel Beymer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beymer of Hinton creek, returned to their school duties Saturday, the former going to Eugene where she is taking advanced work at the university, and the latter to Portland, where she is taking instruction in beauty work.

Al Rankin returned home the first of the week from an over-the-holiday motor trip to California which took him as far south as San Francisco.

Two prominent wheat ranchers, A. E. Miller and Gordon Banker, of Heppner spent the week end at Ellensburg, Wash., at 605 East Seventh St., Mr. Miller visiting his daughter, Dolores Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith enjoyed a holiday visit with relatives at Portland and Oregon City. They visited with their son, Austin Smith and wife at Portland, and with Mrs. E. A. Wyland, sister of Mrs. Smith, at Oregon City.

J. O. Turner and Vawter Parker, of the local CWA set-up, motored to Condon on Thursday evening to attend a regional meeting and gather information concerning a "new deal" for the relief work now being adopted.

Miss Charlotte Woods, formerly a teacher here, departed for her home at McMinnville on Saturday, after having spent the week with friends in Heppner.

Wm. Tucker thinks the Blackhorse section where he resides has the most moisture this winter he has known in his 35 years of residence there.

E. D. Piercey and family, formerly residents of this city, were visitors here over Saturday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gentry returned the end of the week from a visit of a few days at Weston with their son, Emery and family, and their daughter, Mrs. J. F. Daniels and family.

Miss Ruth Turner, daughter of Harry Turner of Sand Hollow, departed Monday evening by train for Corvallis to resume her studies at O. S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bloom returned home on Sunday night from Pendleton and Umatilla, where they spent a week visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper of Portland were guests at the home of her brother, Emil Groshen and wife over the New Year holidays.

Gordon Bucknum spent the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bucknum, arriving from Mt. Angel where he is a student at the Mt. Angel academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Slocum, who visited with the parents of Mrs. Slocum at Flora, Wallowa county, during the holidays, returned to Heppner the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buhman arrived home on Tuesday from the Willamette valley, where they spent the vacation season with the relatives of Mr. Buhman.

Henry Rauch, in town last Friday, reported that the chinook then prevalent at Heppner had not yet reached his section in the north Lexington district.

J. O. Turner made a trip to Pendleton on Tuesday in the interests of CWA work, of which he is at present one of the administrators in this county.

Oscar Keithley was in town yesterday from the farm home in the Ione section, saying hello to Heppner friends while transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wheelhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smythe of Arlington were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barritt.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gemmill and children and Mrs. Emma Gemmill motored to Helix Sunday for a visit with the family of Chester Gemmill.

For Sale—Bourbon Red turkeys. The early maturing, quality turkey hens and toms, reasonable.

L. L. Matlock departed for Portland Saturday night to spend a part of the holiday season visiting with relatives in the city.

Miss Beth Bleakman, primary teacher in Heppner school, spent a few days in Portland the past week, visiting with friends.

John Parker departed for Eugene Monday to register as a student of the university at the beginning of the mid-year term.

Guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barritt over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weston of Portland.

Wanted—2nd-hand lumber, good condition, vicinity Ione. Also few White Leghorn cockerels.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Heppner hotel on Wednesday, Jan. 10th.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Duvall visited in the city for a short time Tuesday, coming up from their Lexington home.

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE. All Winter Hats, Coats and Dresses greatly reduced for this January Clearance. Curran Hat Shoppe.

BOARDMAN BY RACHEL J. BARLOW CLAIRE PLATTE WESTON.

Death again has entered our community and taken one of our loved ones.

Mrs. H. H. Weston passed away at her home here Friday evening, December 25, at 8:15 o'clock, after a lingering illness of over two years much of which time she was bedfast.

Claire Platte Morgan, daughter of John and Mary Jane Morgan, was the youngest of five children. She was born in a covered wagon along the Platte river presumably in the state of Nebraska on June 1, 1861.

Funeral services were held in the community church Tuesday afternoon and final commitment was in the Portland crematorium.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gentry returned the end of the week from a visit of a few days at Weston with their son, Emery and family, and their daughter, Mrs. J. F. Daniels and family.

Odd---But TRUE

A cartoon featuring a large dollar sign and a man talking to a donkey. Text includes: 'THE DOLLAR SIGN WAS IN USE LONG BEFORE THE ADOPTION OF OUR FEDERAL CURRENCY', 'IT IS PROBABLY A VARIATION OF THE FIGURE '8' USED TO DENOTE THE OLD SPANISH COIN 'PIECE OF EIGHT'', 'THE HINDU LAWS PERMIT LYING IN TWO INSTANCES - TO SAVE YOUR LIFE - AND TO PAY COMPLIMENT TO A LADY', 'TURKISH SHIPS ARE THE ONLY ONES PERMITTED BY INTERNATIONAL LAW TO INDICATE TIME WITH ANYTHING BUT BELLS - THEY USE DRUMS'.

worker in community affairs as long as her health would permit and she was loved and respected by her host of friends whom she leaves to mourn her passing.

J. R. Benton of Heppner was a visitor in town last Friday.

Mrs. Ella Shell returned home Saturday from Umatilla where she spent the Christmas holidays at the McFarland home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves and family of Lexington spent the week end here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Graves.

Marvin Ransier spent last week at his uncle's home in Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Copeland and son and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Melford who spent last week in Heppner returned to Boardman Saturday evening, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Macomber and family.

The town basketball team defeated the Arlington team by a score of 16-22. The game was played in the local gym last Friday evening before the dance.

A good sized crowd attended the dance given by the Alumni association. Good music was furnished by the "Irrigon Merry-makers."

E. Carrick has moved into the small house on the Faber ranch.

A number of folks attended the dance New Year's night at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber were hosts at a lovely New Year's dinner, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Copeland and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Melford, Mr. and Mrs. Al Macomber and family and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Root and Vernon.

Eldon Wilson spent the week end and New Year's here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson. Eldon is employed at the Perkins Motor company in La Grande.

Miss Margaret Galley, primary teacher, is very ill in the Salem hospital with typhoid fever. This is the fourth case of typhoid fever on the project, but the source of contamination has not been found.

Mrs. W. O. King, Ruth and Bobby King are also ill with the fever at their home here.

Mr. Parry was seriously injured last week while helping haul logs from the river. The log was being lifted and swung about and struck him in the face above the nose.

Mr. Parry was in the hospital at Hermiston for a week but was brought home last Saturday.

Miss Gladys Wilson returned to John Day last week after spending Christmas here with her parents.

Elmer Harnden of Portland was a Boardman visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harter and son James of Kahlotus, Wash., attended the funeral here Tuesday.

PINE CITY By OLETA NEILL

Miss Elsie Strain, formerly of Pine City, and Floyd Van Orsdall of Pendleton were united in marriage Sunday night at eight o'clock by Rev. Gieser at his home in Pendleton.

Mrs. O. F. Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Thomson visited at the E. P. Jarmon home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen and son Gerald of Hermiston spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ollie Neill.

A fairly good sized crowd attended the dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch Saturday night.

Miss Mable Buttley who has been visiting with her relatives in Pendleton the past week returned to W. D. Neill's Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger and children were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wigglesworth in Echo Monday.

Roy Neill and T. J. O'Brien started the New Year by butchering hogs.

C. H. Bartholomew was a business visitor in Lexington Tuesday.

Miss Neva Neill returned to normal school at La Grande Monday afternoon. She has been spending the vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ollie Neill.

The snow which fell Christmas is nearly all gone now and the hills are looking fairly green.

Harold Neill who has been spending the vacation with his sister, Mrs. C. W. Plourd, near Pendleton returned home Monday.

Mrs. Ollie Neill and daughter Neva and C. H. Ayers were business visitors in Hermiston and Echo Saturday.

The Misses Opal and Shirley Jarmon and Roy and Son Jarmon left Monday afternoon for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wattenburger in Echo Thursday.

Mrs. O. F. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Thomson and daughters, Susan, Ruth and Mary and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Thomson visited at the C. H. Bartholomew home Friday.

LICENSE RUSH HEAVY. The Morrow county sheriff's office dropped everything else Saturday to take care of the big last-minute motor license rush.

Try a Gazette Times Want Ad.

Special Oysters and Shell Fish NOW IN SEASON! For a good meal anytime go to the ELKHORN RESTAURANT ED CHINN, Prop.

HARDMAN By LUCILLE FARRENS Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside entertained a number of guests at a bountiful turkey dinner at their home in Rood Canyon on New Year's day, honoring the host's respective cousins and brother and sister.

MACMARR STORES COFFEE SYRUP BEANS RICE P. N. BUTTER COCOANUT TOBACCO MATCHES SUGAR SOAP CANDY COCOA SALAD OIL EGGS FRUITS VEGETABLES

SILENCE or OR WHAT? Or ADVERTISING! Which course will you take in 1934... Mr. Tradesman? Keep quiet about what you have to sell... OR—will you be up on your toes and starting something... ADVERTISING? For sure-fire, PROFITABLE results, just see that your message appears regularly in the Advertising columns of the HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES To drive home your message to its many readers, the Gazette Times carries the BONNET-BROWN SALES SERVICE of cuts and copy for your exclusive use. It's a REAL "Trade-Producer!" Better ask us about it! Phone MAIN 882 NOW