

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn on the Murray farm north of here Monday morning. A combine, grain drill and other things stored in the barn were burned also. It was not learned whether insurance was carried or not.

The Union Sunday school will have an Easter program immediately after the Sunday school hour at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

Miss Hazel Forster and Phillip and Mike Miller of Salem were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson. The young men are brothers of Mrs. Swanson.

Willows grange held their regular business meeting at their hall in Cecil last Saturday evening. The main feature of the evening was the lecturer's program which was put on by the teachers who are members of the grange, with Mrs. Harriet Brown as chairman. The following program was given: Vocal duet, "Trees," by Hila Timm and Connie Crawford, accompanied by Miss Lucy Spittle; reading, "The Human Tongue," by Miss Kathryn Feldman; vocal solo, "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen," by Viola Englieman, accompanied by Mrs. Hila Timm; reading, "The Gleaner," by Mrs. Vida Heliker; monologue by Mrs. Mary Lundell; vocal solo, "My Isle of Golden Dreams," by Donald Heliker, accompanied by Miss Spittle; talk, "Sales Tax Facts," by Edw. Kremer; vocal solo, "Keep on Hopin'," by Miss Lucy Spittle, accompanied by Mrs. Connie Crawford. The last number was a skit called "Topsy and Her Friends," a blackface comedy in which the following girls and boys took part: Bertha Akers, Annabelle McCabe, Helen Lundell and Billy Eubanks. The latter in his role of "Struttin' Jim" was certainly a hit.

During the business meeting three candidates received the obligation and became members of the order. These were Miss Kathryn Feldman and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lind. Several resolutions pertaining to agricultural and legislative work were introduced by the grange and will be presented to Pomona grange for further consideration. Several automobile emblems were received by members of Willows grange as prizes from the state grange for increasing their membership 10 percent or more in the last quarter of 1933.

The Home Economics chairman gave a quarterly report and told of plans for making a contribution of money to the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis. After the business was disposed of the H. E. committee served refreshments of pie and coffee.

Plans are being made by Willows grange to entertain Pomona grange on Saturday, April 7, at which meeting Ray W. Gill will be the principal speaker and as the afternoon program will be open to the public a large attendance is urged.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lundell, accompanied by their daughters Helen and Mildred were Portland visitors the first of the week.

J. A. Troedson and Mr. Odum of Morgan were week-end visitors in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whitson and sons have returned to Ione after spending the winter on the coast.

W. F. Palmater returned from Portland last week where he had been receiving medical treatment for a malignant growth on his lower lip.

Kenneth Smouse, Virgil Esteb and Barton Clark have been spending the Easter vacation from their various schools with their families near Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson motored to Heppner Junction Sunday to take their son Norman down to meet a group of U. of O. students who were returning to Eugene for the opening of the spring term on Monday.

Jack Grimes accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Blackwell and their small daughter arrived in Ione on Monday afternoon for a short visit. They will return to their home at Yachats on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Mankin was hostess to the women's auxiliary of the Legion at a delightful bridge luncheon at her ranch home last Saturday. Present were Mrs. Cleo Drake, Mrs. Kenneth Drake, Mrs. O. G. Hagwood, Mrs. Dan Long, Mrs. Garland Swanson, Mrs. Earl Blake, Mrs. M. E. Cotter, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Ed Bergstrom, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. E. G. Sperry.

The junior class of Ione high school will give a benefit dance at the grange hall in Cecil next Saturday evening, March 30. Bud's Jazz Gang will play and a good time is assured.

Mrs. Emily McMurray returned to her home on Friday after spending the past two weeks at the home of her son, Fred McMurray, in Hermiston where she has been receiving dental attention.

Mrs. Victor Peterson entertained a group of Ione friends at her home in Heppner last Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of her husband. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith. Refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served.

An eleven-and-one-half-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Helms at the home of Mrs. Lloyd King last Saturday evening. He has been named James Frank.

On Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Lester Goodrich arrived in Ione bringing with them Mrs. Dale Ray, the mother of Mrs. Goodrich who had spent a short time in Hood River visiting relatives. Mr. Ray brought the twin sons of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brashears, home with her for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich returned to their home in Hood River.

The Christian Bible school is planning a sunrise prayer meeting for Easter Sunday. After the prayer meeting breakfast will be served in the church dining room. All are welcome. Bible school will be held at 10 o'clock as usual and immediately following an interesting program will be presented.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester White spent the week end in Portland. While in the city they purchased a new Plymouth coupe.

A Girl Scout troop is being organized with Mrs. George Gillis as leader.

Edward Burchell was an outgoing passenger on the train Tuesday night, his destination being Portland and other valley points.

Mrs. Blanche Jones of Portland was a week-end guest at the Harry Dinges home. Mrs. Jones is a sister of Mr. Dinges.

Miss Gloria Sharkey of Pendleton is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Swagart.

Mrs. Orville Cutsforth entertained a group of youngsters at her home Saturday afternoon, honoring the third birthday of her daughter, Faye. After playing games during the afternoon the kiddies enjoyed the delicious ice cream and cake which was served by the hostess.

J. H. Frad of Portland was transacting business in this city during the week. While here he visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arnold Pieper.

Among Lexington people who were in Pendleton during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Mrs. Beulah Nichols, Mrs. Shelby Graves and Don Pointer.

Ruth and Rae Cowins of Heppner spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allyn.

Mrs. Marie Morris, agent at the local depot, returned from her vacation Tuesday afternoon. While she was away her place at the depot was filled by K. W. Trumbull. Mr. Trumbull left on the train Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox and Miss Delpha Merritt were dinner guests at the R. D. Allstott home near Heppner Sunday.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Majeski were Mr. and Mrs. Joy and John Doenbrack of Pendleton.

Relatives have received the announcement of the birth of a son, Robert Nichols, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Logan of Puyallup, Wn., on March 6th. Mrs. Logan will be remembered as Miss Echo Nichols, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tucker made a business trip to Hermiston one day last week.

The drenching rain which visited this section at intervals during the first few days of the week brought joyful smiles to the faces of the farmers. Everything was beginning to look a bit dry and dusty, but not so since the rain.

Mrs. Maude Pointer and daughter Harriet came up from their home at Salem Sunday. They are visiting at the Orville Cutsforth home while Mrs. Pointer is looking after business interests here.

Mrs. Emma Peck and Mrs. Carolyn Kuns entertained the Three Link club at the hall Tuesday evening. The guests included Mrs. Edna Hunt, Mrs. Lou Broadly, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Tempa Johnson, Mrs. Mae Burchell, Mrs. Ada Eskelson, Mrs. Helen Christenson, Mrs. Cora Warner, Mrs. Viola Ward, Mrs. Laura Scott, Mrs. Mary McMurry, Miss Grace Burchell and Miss Naomi McMillan. The evening was spent playing "Bug," "Travel" and other games. The hostesses served delicious refreshments.

S. G. McMillan is spending the week in Portland.

Elsie Tucker of Alice spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tucker.

The regular monthly meeting of the P. T. A. was held in the auditorium Wednesday evening. Following the business meeting an interesting program was presented.

Easter Dance April 2nd; Joint Meetings Planned

The American Legion Auxiliary will give their annual Easter Monday dance at the Elks hall on April 2. The various committees are busy making final plans with the goal in mind to make it one of the outstanding dances of the year. The decorating committee, with Mrs. Elizabeth Bloom as chairman, is working out some novel ideas in decoration and favors. Dancing will begin at nine o'clock and the music will be furnished by the Columbian, a seven-piece orchestra under the direction of Stan Atkins, who has won considerable popularity playing for dances in other parts of the county and vicinity. Tickets in advance may be obtained from members of the auxiliary and all members of the Legion, Auxiliary and their friends are urged to attend this annual spring affair.

The evening following, April 3, the Legion and the Auxiliary will hold a joint meeting in their new quarters in the Odd Fellows building at eight o'clock. Each organization will conduct its regular business meeting and follow up with a social hour. Combined meetings are proving successful in many parts of the state and Heppner is anxious to try it out. The auxiliary agreed to meet with the Legion the first Tuesday of each month. Hosts and hostesses for this meeting will be Oona Cox, Lena Cox, Elbert Cox and Paul Gemmel. The officers wish all legionnaires and auxiliary members who can attend to do so.

MASONS MEET AT PENDLETON

Hundreds of Master Masons are expected to gather at Pendleton on Saturday, April 14, for the second annual Eastern Oregon Masonic Meeting, extensive plans for which are being made by the Round-Up city. Leslie M. Scott, Grand Master of A. F. & A. M. for Oregon, is expected to be accompanied by members of his official staff. Sharing duties as hosts for the occasion are members of Pendleton lodge and members of the Masters and Wardens association for district 17.

CLUBS REGISTER 73.

Clouds and Rainbows

"I do set My bow in the cloud," Gen. 9:13.

Every rainbow is set in a cloud. Without the storm cloud there could be no rainbow.

And the rainbow of the storm cloud of this day in which we now are, is the promise of EASTER, the glorious and triumphant resurrection of our Lord the Christ of God.

Clouds there will be; we cannot escape them, nor the storms they bring.

But with Christ as Leader, Guide and SAVIOUR, every cloud will wear a rainbow; a wonderful rainbow of promise.

Do you have a Church home? If not then we most cordially invite you to come and worship with us. We invite you to all the services of worship and to our Bible School. Come and test the welcome of this friendly Church.

This coming Lord's Day is EASTER Sunday. There will be a program during the Bible School hour, and for the hour of worship, at eleven o'clock the sermon topic will be, "THE FAITH OF EASTER."

And if you are not a member of any church we shall be glad to receive you into the membership of our church upon confession of faith in Christ Jesus. There will be a baptismal service for adults, children and infants.

SERVICES AT RHEA CREEK.

Rhea Creek grange invites the public to a special Easter service by Joel R. Benton to be held in their hall Sunday, April 1, at 3 p. m.

SCOUT NEWS.

Saturday, March 24, Troop 61 engaged in moving the library books from the old library to the new quarters in the city hall building as a troop good turn. The work was carried out in the form of a patrol contest, each patrol trying to get the greatest number of members present. The books were moved first, then the tables and chairs were carried over. The job was done with 21 boys, the Beaver and Flying Eagle patrols tying for first place in the contest with seven boys to the credit of each. Some stayed after the final check-up to help arrange the books and put things in order.

Miss Beatrice Thomson will arrive in Morrow county on Saturday to spend her Spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. Anna Thomson. Miss Thomson is a student at Linville college, McMinnville.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION.

To the editor of the Heppner Gazette Times: I take this method of thanking the ladies of the Christian and M. E. churches who gave me such a delightful party on my 90th birthday. I enjoyed it so much and surely do appreciate your kindness, and I hope each one will live to a good old ripe age; and we meet in Heaven, is the wish of Grandmother, Sarah H. Parker.
