Official Paper for Morrow County

BUY OREGON

YOU may not have thought of it, and if you haven't you will find it interesting to note the wide array of Oregon products being featured by local merchants during Oregon Products Days...

Oregon for many years was content to confine itself to agriculture, and to permit the products of its soil to go elsewhere to be processed. A few people can raise raw materials which...

Each new factory has meant an added payroll, bringing more people to be housed, fed, clothed and warmed, to be amused, to participate in sports, to engage in the social life of the state...

As factories have increased, their products have not only been sold at home but they have gained distribution throughout the marts of the world, thus not only keeping much Oregon money at home...

THE WORLD OF MUSIC

MUSIC soothes the savage breast—or words of the poet to that effect. Yes, music is a product of civilization, and good music an earmark of culture...

Each musical note strikes a vibrant chord in the soul of man, and in some mysterious way the message of inner man to inner man is transmitted by music...

was made up of a few hundred or a few thousand people, now a single audience may be composed of millions. People generally have become more music conscious...

Music has a large place in the field of education. In recognition of this fact, the music festival slated for the evening of May Day in Heppner is fitting...

POMONA LECTURER REPLIES

To the Editor: Last week your paper printed an article regarding proceedings of Morrow County Pomona Grange wherein it stated that the "Grange heads saw to it that there was no rebuttal by the affirmative speaker on the question under discussion, viz. The Sales Tax."

When asked to talk on the Sales Tax measure, Mr. Turner stated that he did not care to enter a formal debate, but would like an opportunity to present his views concerning the pending legislation.

Naturally, the privilege was granted and State Master Gill so instructed. As the lecturer is adverse to any heated arguments or mud slinging, as the nature of the topic in question warrants...

As for the Oregon State Legislature, it is a mighty useless body if it is too dead to evoke criticism, either just or unjust, sufficient to hold the attention of its people.

"It takes a lot of courage to be a good winner, and a whole lot more to be a good loser."

MARY LUNDELL, Morrow County Pomona Grange Lecturer.

ADAMS ANSWERS GILL

To the Editor: The writer had the pleasure of an enjoyable visit with and the splendid hospitality of your good Pomona Grange, on last Saturday, when a discussion of the merits of the State Emergency Sales Tax act was on the program...

It was represented there was a "Wall Street or Big Interest" lobby maintained at the special session of the legislature last winter in the interest of the sales tax measure.

There can not be agreement with the statement made that only about 10 per cent of the taxpayers of the state will benefit by or be relieved by the operation of this act.

Notice is hereby given by virtue of the laws of the State of Oregon that I have taken up at my farm about 6 miles south of Lexington the following described animal, and that I will, at said place on Saturday, May 3, 1934, at 2:30 o'clock P. their delinquencies and that they will hereafter pay up in full from year to year, and by so doing relieve the serious stringency and heavy warrant discount situation, is believed to be a mistaken one and one which may lead us into a serious and difficult position later on.

Yours for fair play, JAMES R. ADAMS, Moro, Ore., April 13, 1934.

Condon—Seed flax, never before given a thorough trial on any of the high altitude land in Gilliam county, is being tried out this year by Edward Walbaum of the Igo district and a farmer near Mayville.

Hillsboro—John Thornburgh who began irrigating his ranch on Gales creek in 1932 by taking gravity water from a small creek for 12 acres and increased it to 32 acres in 1933, is now making plans to put 100 acres under water.
