

IONE

Clell Rea were married at Vancouver, Wash., last Wednesday, June 13. Ted Blake and Dorr Mason acted as witnesses. Miss Swanson is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson of this city and a graduate of Ione high school. Mr. Rea is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rea of Heppner. Both young people grew up here and their many friends wish them the best of everything. They returned to Ione on Monday evening.

Miss Linea Troedson has returned to her home north of Ione. Since the close of her school term in Ashland she has been vacationing in San Francisco and other bay cities. Miss Troedson was accompanied home by Miss Nellie Carlson of King City, Cal. Miss Troedson will not return to Ashland senior high school next year but will be in Portland where she has been elected to teach home economics in the girls polytechnic high school.

Francis Troedson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jhannes Troedson, returned last week from Corvallis where he has completed his junior year at O. S. C. He made the trip home with Fred Hill of Pendleton and Gordon McCrea of Beverly Hills, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Feldman accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Mason returned on Friday evening from Portland where the ladies attended the annual meeting of the grand chapter of Oregon, O. E. S., and Mr. Feldman attended the annual meeting of the grand lodge of Oregon, A. F. & A. M. Miss Kathryn Feldman who accompanied them to Portland did not return with them but left for that city for the east where she will spend several weeks visiting friends.

Edmund Bristow departed for his home at Nampa, Idaho, on Sunday to resume his regular work in the Montgomery-Ward store at that place after a two weeks visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bristow. His wife and children will remain here for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Brown and son Winnie spent several days of last week visiting friends in Ione making their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Alice McNabb. Mr. Brown spent several years teaching in the local school. He is at present principal of the high school at Hugo, Oregon, and Mrs. Brown who has finished her course at the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland since they left here, has been teaching in a rural school near Hugo the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on Saturday, Mr. Brown to attend summer school at the University of Oregon and Mrs. Brown expecting to spend a vacation time of several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Engelman of Portland arrived in Ione on Saturday to spend their vacation with Mr. Engelman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman.

Miss Mary Van Vactor of The Dalles is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Reitmann.

Walter Roberts was called to Seattle last Friday to attend the funeral services for his sister, Mrs. M. H. Murtha, who died in that city on Wednesday. He returned home Sunday morning.

Norman Winslow of Salem arrived in Ione last week. He will be employed at the Omar Reitmann farm through harvest.

The Women's Topic club held their annual election of officers at the home of Mrs. Henry Gorgor last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Griffith was elected president, Mrs. Walter Corley, vice president and Mrs. Inez Ireland, secretary-treasurer. Programs for the next six months prepared by Mrs. Omar Reitmann, Mrs. Clyde Denny, and Mrs. Jennie McMurray were distributed. Following the business meeting a social time was had playing cards, after which the hostess served refreshments.

R. B. Rice of Lexington and A. E. Johnson of Ione, officers of the Morrow County Grain Growers, drove to Spokane on Sunday to be present in that city on Monday at the annual meeting of the stockholders of North Pacific Grain Growers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heliker, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kincaid and Mrs. O. L. Lundell returned on Sunday evening from Roseburg where they attended the state grange meeting held in that city last week. Going to Roseburg stops were made at Prineville and Crater Lake. The party made short stops at Elk lake and went from Crater Lake to Roseburg by way of Medford. On the way home after the grange session they drove to Marshfield and journeyed north along the Roosevelt highway, stopping at points of interest, among them the sea lion caves where they saw the sea lions with their young. At Otis they left the coast highway, returning home by way of McMinnville and Portland. In Portland they picked up Harold Fennell who made the rest of the trip with them and will spend the summer at the Heliker ranch. All members of the party declare the outing to have been the best ever and an experience not soon to be forgotten. Mother Nature was even so kind to them as to stage a sudden hail storm while they were enjoying the view at Crater Lake which was an unusual and wonderful sight.

Ione won the baseball game played with Umatilla on their home grounds last Sunday by a score of 8-4.

Next Sunday, June 24, the agricultural picnic of Willows grange will be held at the Harry Cool farm on the highway about four miles west of Ione. Some 4-H projects will be shown and other things of interest will be the order of the day. Everyone is invited to attend.

On Saturday night, June 23, Willows grange will have their regular business meeting at their hall in Cecil. A report of the state grange meeting will be had and also a 4-H club program in charge of Mrs. Lacy Rodgers will be given.

TALES OF OLD TIMES

who was wounded, but managed to jump into the river and hide under a big dam of driftwood, getting air through a small opening between the logs. After dark he managed to get out from under, paddled down stream, and finally footed it over the range to Cal White's ranch on Goose Creek. When Colonel Bernar's cavalry from Fort Boise took the field the Sheepeaters played tag with them and wore their horses all out. Then Farrow's Scouts went right into the Salmon River Range, refused to play tag, but camped on the hostile trails, took plenty of time to follow them up, brought them to battle, captured their camp and winter supplies, burned them up, and soon squelched them. That ended the Indian wars in the Pacific Northwest, and thereafter the settlers' security was assured.
