cepted a position in the auditing department of the North Pacific Grain Growers, Inc., for the next few weeks. Mrs. D. M. Ward entertained the Past Matrons club of Heppner at her home Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. John Conway arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith Sunday where they will spend the summer. Mr. Conway is a brother of Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder and son Harold motored to The Dalles last Sunday where they were met by a sister of Mr. Snyder who took Harold back to her home at Beaverton where he will spend several weeks with relatives.

A wedding of particular interest to this community was that of Miss Lucille Bristow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bristow, and David Rietmann, son of Mrs. Margaret Rietmann, who were married last Sunday, June 24. The young couple departed for a short honeymoon at Wallowa lake. Both young people were born in or near Ione, received their education in the Ione school and have made their homes here since completing their high school work. They will be at home at the Rietmann brothers ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McCabe accompanied by their sons Earl and Ernest, their daughter Charlotte, and by L. D. McCabe took an interesting trip to Yakima a week ago. The trip was made to visit the sister of the Messrs. McCabe who is a nurse in Yakima but when the party reached there they found she had left for her vacation a few days before. Having time on their hands to spare the party made the return trip by way of Goldendale and Lyle. At Lyle they made a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hamm who farmed the old Roman place on Rhea creek a few years ago. The party then crossed the river and returned home over the Columbia highway.

Miss Mildred Fennell of Portland is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heliker. Misses Rosebelle and Mignonette Perry and brother Robert returned last week from a trip to Portland, having been down visiting relatives and seeing the Rose show. While in the city they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Perry. Mrs. Elda Zink and Mrs. Ruth Wilson of Antioch, Calif., made a two-day stop Tuesday and Wednesday, visiting at the Heliker home. The ladies were enroute to their home in California after visiting friends and relatives in Portland. Willows grange held their regular business meeting in the hall at Cecil Saturday evening. Owing to the busy season the attendance was not all that could be desired but an interesting meeting was held. The state grange report was given by the master, Vida Heliker, and short talks on the trip and on state grange doings were given by other members of Willows grange who attended the convention at Roseburg. All joined in saying that the convention was certainly well worth attending. A complete report of the state grange convention is printed in the Grange Bulletin and a comprehensive report will also be printed in the next issue of the Oregon Farmer.

Miss Dimple Crabtree was elected by the Willows grange to be their representative in the Rodeo queen contest. Mary Lundell, lecturer and also Pomona lecturer, announced that Pomona grange will be held in Boardman July 7th. The afternoon program is open to the public and promises to be very interesting as Peter Zimmerman, state senator from Yamhill, has been secured as speaker. Several other good numbers are also planned.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Devine, Mrs. Martha Wright and Mrs. Lucy Rodgers from Lexington grange were visitors. County Agent Chas. W. Smith of Rhea Creek grange was also a visitor and gave a talk on latest allotment information. A splendid 4-H club program in charge of Mrs. Rodgers was presented. Most of the numbers were given by 4-H club members, leaders and past leaders. Three reels of motion pictures pertaining to club work and showing 4-H club members on their trip to Washington, D. C., were shown by Mr. Smith, who brought the picture machine. The evening of entertainment was much enjoyed by everyone and we take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Rodgers, Mr. Smith and all who so kindly participated. At the close of the business meeting the home economics committee served jello, cookies and coffee.
