

IONE

By MARGARET BLAKE

The Troedson and Swanson families held a reunion in The Dalles on Labor Day. Those going from Ione were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson, Norman and Eva, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson, Billy and Norma, Lou Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smouse, Paul and Shirley. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Troedson and Frances of Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Martin and baby of Moro, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilkinson and Mrs. Paul Troedson of Portland, and Mrs. Frank Tewks and Joan of Seattle. Coming unexpectedly were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wylie of Walla Walla. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served and the rest of the day was spent in visiting. It was decided to hold a reunion each year and any friends or acquaintances wishing to attend are welcome. J. A. Troedson was appointed president. The next reunion will be held in The Dalles the first Sunday September, 1935.

Mrs. Roy W. Luedallen who has been in Portland under the doctors' care for the past few months has returned to her home near here. Mrs. Mattie Morgan who collects sales slips for Willow grange would like members to turn their sales slips, paid telephone and light bills into her or to Roxie Krebs at Cecil not later than the 12th of each month. Stuart Rankin who has spent the past two weeks at the Heilker ranch returned to his home at Hermiton last Sunday.

The Gooseberry school opened Monday, Sept. 3, with an enrollment of eleven pupils. Miss Minnie Normoye is the teacher. Mrs. S. E. Moore who has been quite ill at her home in Ione the past two weeks, was able to go to Portland with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hickok, who returned to their home there Monday after a short stay here.

Norman Swanson who has been working for the North Pacific Grain Growers of Spokane this summer returned to his home here on last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and children of Salem arrived at the home of Mrs. Stender's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crabtree Friday night for a short visit. They attended the Rodeo on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Griffith and children of Spray were visiting friends and relatives in town last Thursday.

Miss Betty Bergvein has gone to Pendleton where she will attend school this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann have moved to town and are living in the Congregational parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann plan to move into their ranch home where Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann have been living.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger departed on Saturday for a short vacation trip. They expected to visit with Fred Balsiger at White Salmon, Louis Balsiger at Galvin, Wn., and with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Learned, at Hadlock, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davidson of Los Angeles arrived in Ione on Monday afternoon for a visit with relatives and friends.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a large stack of wheat hay on the Davidson Estate ranch on Sunday morning. This is a very considerable loss due to the shortage of feed this year. About seventy tons of hay was destroyed.

Mrs. Werner Rietmann was a Pendleton visitor Sunday. While there she called on Mrs. Hugh Smith at the Pendleton hospital and found her recovering nicely from her recent operation for removal of her appendix. She will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason accompanied by their son, Bert Junior, and by Mrs. Mason's aunt, Miss Emmer Maynard, returned on Tuesday from a motor trip to Crater Lake.

Miss Minnie Normoye returned home last Saturday from the east where she has been attending a teachers' college in West Virginia the past two years. She will teach in the Gooseberry school this winter.

Word has been received of the marriage last week at Yakima, Wn. of Miss Fern Sargent, daughter of J. J. Sargent of Kinzua, and Clarence Nelson of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden have gone to Gresham where they will make their home this winter. Dr. and Mrs. James Keller and small son, James Junior, departed on Sunday for their home in Butte, Montana, after spending a few days at the home of Dr. Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. John Outsen and son of Cherryville are visiting at the home of Mrs. Outsen's mother, Mrs. Minnie Forbes.

Mrs. Melvin King (Edna Lindstrom) has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindstrom, for the past ten days.

Due to the fact that their regular September study meeting fell on the final day of the Rodeo this year, meetings for the month of September for the Women's Topic club will be held as follows: Next Saturday, Sept. 8, Mrs. Frelund will be hostess at her home in Ione. Mrs. Elmer Griffith will be hostess for the social meeting at her home in Morgan on Saturday, Sept. 22.

Mrs. Maude Farris had as her guests during the Rodeo her three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Pidcock, Mrs. Beryl Weinmaster and Miss Dorothy Clark, all of Portland.

Oregon Reclamation Meet To be at Klamath Falls

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Oregon Reclamation Congress will be held this year at Klamath Falls, Monday and Tuesday, September 10 and 11, according to an announcement issued by Dr. W. L. Powers, chief of the soils department at Oregon State college and secretary of the congress. Although details of the program have not yet been released, the opening session is to be devoted to progress reports and outlook statements. Land classification and use and relationships to the planning program of the P. W. A. will receive attention in the early afternoon Monday, and a drainage session will be held in the late afternoon. The annual banquet will be Monday evening.

Progress and problems of district reclamation and recent and needed legislation will be considered Tuesday morning, and the early afternoon will be of special interest to reclamation project farmers, dealing with water requirements of crops. A business session will be the last thing before adjournment.

SATURDAY PARADE ATTRACTS THROG

Throughout it all there were plenty of laughs. "Ham" Foster and the outfit he was with took first prize in the comedy class. He rode in a rattle-trap buggy, pushed by an old white mule belonging to Paul Hiler, and honked an old horn. Wilma Mae and Florence Ann Beymer, small tots in clown attire who dismounted and did gymnastics in the street, placed second for the clowns. A big hit was made by "Doc" Leach of Lexington and his unmatched team hitched to an old-time buggy. He drove a big work horse hitched beside a small Shetland pony.

Another entry receiving acclaim was that of August Rahner, with his team and buggy which he drives regularly between Heppner and his Rood canyon farm.

And what a hand the pets received. Especially Ray Ayers and his goat team hitched to a small wagon, which received first prize.

A beautiful entry was that of the First National Bank of Portland. Heppner branch. There was a small float built on an automobile, the car being entirely concealed by apron and gorgeous flowers.

Other floats entered were the Degree of Honor, Elks, Lions, and Business and Professional Women, of Heppner.

The complete list of prize winners with prizes will be found in another column.

Members of the parade committee, R. E. Ferguson, R. C. Phelps, D. T. Goodman, Vinton Howell, Pat Mollahan, Bert Kane and John Anglin, are entitled to much credit for the commendable parade this year. Many compliments were heard on every hand.

The parade judges were Mrs. W. D. McNary, Mrs. Herb Thompson, Mr. Earl, Judge C. L. Sweek, Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Johnson, Canyon City; Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. John French, Long Creek; Earl W. Snell, Arlington, and Rodney Keating, Portland.

Warn Growers, Shippers Against Adukerated Peas

A notice recently received at Oregon State college to be transmitted through the extension staff to pea growers of the state warns that "Weevily peas are regarded as adulterated under the Federal food and drugs act and producers and canners should institute measures to eliminate infested peas from their product."

At present no spray or dust is known that can be recommended for general use in combating the weevil on growing peas, according to Dr. Don C. Mote, station entomologist. Control of the pests is thus limited to prevention of infestation and fumigation of the dried peas.

Perhaps one of the greatest sources of infestation, Dr. Mote says, is the infested peas that are left in the fields after harvest until the weevils emerge and seek winter quarters in the nearby fence rows and woods. The elimination of this source would aid materially in reducing the weevil infestation the following year, he believes.

Infestation of peas takes place in the field by the adult weevils laying their eggs on the surface of the developing pods. After about 10 days the eggs hatch and the grubs burrow through the pod and into the immature peas, which activity requires from two to three days. A small dark spit forms at the point where the grub enters the pea. The weevils remain in the peas until the adult stage has been reached, which may require two months or more. The adult weevil may then emerge shortly after the pea ripens or may remain there over winter.

All plant material left on pea fields is best plowed under, deeply and cleanly, immediately after harvest to check the development of the grubs in the green pods, and if necessary it is well to harrow the field to close the crevices between clods. Dr. Mote recommends. Such plowing is not effective after the weevils have reached the adult stage, since they are able to make their way to the soil surface.

Prompt and thorough fumigation of all mature peas will kill grubs and mature weevils and prevent their emergence the following spring. Directions for this process may be obtained from county agricultural agents or from the state college.

EXAMINER COMING. C. M. Bentley, examiner of operators and chauffeurs from the office of P. J. Stadelman, secretary of state, will be in Heppner at the court house from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., on Saturday, Sept. 8. All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are asked to get in touch with Mr. Bentley at this time.

COMPLIMENTS QUEEN DIMPLE. Lucille's Beauty shoppe complimented Queen Dimple and her attendants with flinger waves and facials for the Rodeo.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at Hotel Heppner on Wednesday, Sept. 12th.

from Grant, Wheeler, Umatilla and Gilliam counties, who extended invitations to attend the various rodeo shows to be held in their counties in the near future, among them the Prairie City Round-Up and Gilliam County fair this week end, the Pendleton Round-Up next week end and the Grant County fair, Sept. 20-22, with its Heppner day on the 22nd.

Jack Terry Honored. All this denoted the good will of the crowd. But one of the most impressive features of the day was an exhibition ride by "Kenny" Dewey, this year's bucking champion, honoring Jack Terry, the two-time champion who may be unable to ride any more.

Throughout the three-day performance the Heppner school band came in for its share of applause, as it played without stint under the direction of Harold Buhman. Many were the compliments heard for this brightly-clad 30-piece organization, with Mr. Austin, the announcer, adding his compliments many times. Also throughout the three days, Queen Dimple and her royal court had a popular reign. Besides her attendants, the Misses Beth Wright, Irma Lane and Mary Cunha, president, as honor guests were Queen Shirley of the Pendleton Round-Up and attendants, the Misses Margaret Brosnan and Ruth Porter, and as honor attendant to Queen Dimple, Miss Letha Carter of Long Creek.

The queenly court, Rodeo and Round-Up officials were all present in Saturday's grand entry in which they rode past the stands. Also introduced to the stands was Diamond, the best trained pick-up pony in eastern Oregon, if not in the world, and his rider, Clyde Buchanan of Prairie City, who with Jerry Brennan, picked up the Rodeo bucking crown. Other honored guests were Earl W. Snell of Arlington, candidate for secretary of state, R. E. Bean of Freewater and Jack Allen of Pendleton, both candidates for state senator, and Mother Mary Brown of Condon, an early Morrow county pioneer; also Marjorie (Clark) Ridings, queen of the first Heppner Rodeo.

Cody Dodson Game Cowboy. There were 60 entrants in the lists, all the way from Texas to Canada, including some of the country's best ropers. Cody Dodson, last year's Rodeo bucking champion, showed the stuff of which cowboys are made when he entered the lists with a broken hand which necessitated wearing a splint. He went up on Baby Doll the first day, and scratched the outlaw as long as he stayed, but it wasn't very long.

And Cody wasn't alone in showing intestinal fortitude. Bill Bosley received a couple of cracked ribs when he was thrown from Roan Gurdane in the bareback riding on Thursday. In spite of that, he qualified in the bucking contest Friday and got into the semi-finals on Rhea Creek. Bosley who has followed shows for many years is working for E. F. Swaggart near Lexington.

Of the 17 riders who entered the bucking contest, nine made the semi-finals, Kenneth Dewey, Guy Cash, Lloyd Dewey, Rock Richmond, Lyle Simmelink, Buster Tippetts, Buck Tiffin, Bill Bosley and Herb Owens, of whom five made the finals. Herb Owens, Frank Lincoln D and Buster Tippetts on Baby Doll were the other final riders besides the winners. Showing that the riders were the class of the county, none was thrown in the finals though the horses were plenty tough.

Winners in the bareback riding were eliminated each day, leaving but three to ride Saturday. Glenn Rutherford on Weenie, Buster Tippetts on Lady and Duff McKitric on Chubbie, who vied Saturday, were all thrown and the prize money was split three ways between them.

Swaggart Horses Place. In most of the races Dewey had the edge, but Frank, Gerald, Hazel and Lew Swaggart got a good share of the swag. The Swaggart horses won the pony express one day, the relay one day and the Morrow county derby besides placing in other races. Runners and winners in some of the races were May & Philbrick of Fossil, and Harry Dick, Ike Arthur and other Indians from Pendleton.

Two feature races were the two-year-old race Friday and the consolation race Saturday. The two-year-old race was won by Kenny Dewey, with W. E. Francis second, and F. W. Turner third. In placing third Turner's young mare from the B. F. Swaggart stock, run around a Swaggart horse after a poor start. It showed better in the consolation race Saturday when it won over horses entered by Gerald and Frank Swaggart.

Adding considerable color to Saturday's show was the Indian war bonnet race, run by a group of Umatilla Indians in full war regalia riding bareback. Ike Arthur, Harry Dick and McKinley Williams finished first, second and third respectively.

Local Boys Rope Good. Not the least enjoyable of the events by a long ways was the amateur calf roping contest, in which many local boys got into the money. Edwin Hughes took the event the first day with 39 seconds. Other local boys who got into the money, with their time, are Bob Fletcher :42 4-5, Ivan Applegate :45, Ed Sheridan :38 2-5, Lloyd Dewey :39 1-5, Pat Flisk :32 4-5, Bill Huddleston :38 2-5, and Ed Hiri :45 4-5. Homer Hager made a nice catch of his calf on Saturday, but failed to tie him. A popular performer was Tony Vey, who runs a rodeo of his own out on his Butter creek ranch. Tony's specialty is roping them in quick time, and though he placed in the money but once, he turned in the best time for the three days in an exhibition tie Thursday, when he roped and tied his calf in 14 1-2 seconds.

Starters, timers and race judges who contributed much to the success of the show were Clyde Buchanan, Prairie City; John Carter, Long Creek; John Brosnan, Lena; Sherman Guthridge, Prairie City; Louis Bergevin, Ione, and George Caldwell, Ukiah.

A Man's Real Success. "A man's life consisteth NOT in the ABUNDANCE of the things which he possesseth." Luke 12-15.

Or, to put it in another way, REAL SUCCESS DOES NOT NECESSARILY CONSIST IN MERE MATERIAL WEALTH OR POSSESSIONS.

Disappointed and destitute, a great many Christian families are considering themselves failures. And that is because they have fallen into the habit of this era of regarding material possessions as SUCCESS.

BUT BE EVERLASTINGLY SURE OF ONE THING: Wherever a home exists, in common love and loyalty, and in real devotion to Jesus Christ and Christian standards, there is SUCCESS! To make a real Christian home is a higher achievement than to make a fortune. Civilization at its very best is really just this: a life wherein every man may dwell under his own roof, enjoying the respect and affection of his family and the confidence of his neighbors.

ON OREGON FARMS

The Dalles—Trees on the farms of H. A. Walter and Fred Wetle treated with zinc sulfate a year ago for control of little leaf, are now showing practically 100 per cent recovery from the trouble, reports W. Wray Lawrence, county agent. Because of these encouraging results other trials have been started this month, he says. The first application was made by boring holes in the base of the trees and injecting zinc sulfate. This method requires considerable work and time, and this year some trees were treated by spraying the zinc sulfate on the foliage. Others were given the treatment in the base of the tree for a check on results from the two methods. Careful records are being kept of these demonstrations, Mr. Lawrence says.
