

IONE

the past six weeks. On Saturday both families attended the Round-Up in Pendleton. The Finnell family returned to their home Sunday taking with them their son Harold who spent the summer on the Heilker ranch.

Melvin Heard of Haines, Ore., arrived in Ione last week. On Saturday he returned to Haines accompanied by his wife and two children who have been visiting Mrs. Heard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salter, for the past month.

The Women's Topic club will have their social meeting at the home of Mrs. Elmer Griffith at Morgan next Saturday, Sept. 22.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson and Norman and Eva have gone on from Yellowstone park to Chicago where they expected to arrive about last Saturday. They will visit with relatives in Kansas for a short time on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corley were Portland visitors the last of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mathews returned to the apple harvest at Selah, Wn., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell returned Thursday from a delightful vacation trip to the coast and California. They went as far south as Santa Cruz then turned inland and visited with relatives of Mr. Lundell around Stockton for a short time before returning home. No definite schedule was followed on the trip but stops were made and places visited as their fancy led them.

Carl and Verner Troedson returned from a visit to Chicago and the exposition there. Carl bought a new Ford at the factory on the way east and they returned home in it, turning southwest at Salt Lake City for a trip through California before returning home to Ione. They report a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin motored to Gibbon Wednesday for a short visit with Mr. Bergevin's parents.

On Friday, Sept. 21, the Home Economics club of Willows grange will meet in the hall at Cecil for an all day meeting. Pot luck dinner will be served at noon. All members of the committee are expected to attend and all ladies who are members of the grange are also invited.

Willows grange will hold its last daytime meeting at its hall in Cecil Sunday afternoon, Sept. 23. At this meeting Dr. A. D. McMurdo of Heppner will make a talk on contagious diseases.

Grange Booster Night will be celebrated by Willows grange on Saturday night, Sept. 29. A splendid program has been prepared by the lecturer, Mrs. O. L. Lundell, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blake were Portland visitors last week. Bills are out for a Carnival and Bazaar which is being given by Willows grange in the Legion hall in Ione on the evening of Saturday, October 13. One feature of the concessions part of the evening's entertainment is Madam Zeida Zee, a fortune teller of experience who will preside over a fortune telling booth. There will be other concessions to interest those who are not so concerned with their futures and a program followed by a dance. Elaborate plans have been laid and a good time is assured for all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mathews of Lookingglass, Ore., accompanied by their son and a nephew, stopped in Ione last week to visit with Wallace and Ted Mathews on their way to the Pendleton Round-Up. The nephew, Carlisle Mathews, remained here when the party returned to their home and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mathews to Selah, Wash., Sunday.

STAGE CHANGES HANDS. The Heppner-Pendleton-Arlington stage run, for several months in charge of Inland Transit Lines with John Conwell as operator, is again in the hands of Clair Cox, former operator, who has removed the stage headquarters to Hotel Heppner. The local run is now known as H-P-A Stages.

DEGREE OF HONOR. Kate J. Young Lodge, Degree of Honor Protective Assn. meets on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 8 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall. There will be initiation and refreshments. Clara Beamer, Secty.

CHURCH OF CHRIST. JOEL R. BENTON, Minister. Bible School 9:45 a. m. Morning services 11 a. m. C. E. Society 6:30 p. m. Evening services 7:30 p. m. Choir rehearsal, Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Midweek service, Thursday 7:30 p. m.

Following Christ. "Follow Me." Matt. 4:19. Christ was talking to his fishermen followers, and He sounded a familiar note, to them, when He said, "Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men." But the crux of what He said was still "FOLLOW ME." To be what Christ wanted them to be, they MUST FOLLOW HIM.

And if we will follow Him, remember this: Christ provides for any journey we may take in following Him: "My God shall supply ALL your needs." Phil. 4:19. Christ bears our burdens when we follow Him. We "Lay aside every weight." Heb. 12-1. And then, "Cast our burden on the Lord." Psalm 55-22.

Christ must have strict obedience if we are to be allowed a place as His followers. If we are to walk in His steps, we must obey, why? "For I have given you an example." Jno. 13-15. Finally, if we will follow Him He will save us, at the expense of His life if need be. He did give His life that we might live. Jno. 3-16. And He will lead us all the way; "And Lo! I am with you always." Matt. 28-20.

Have you a Church home? If not we invite you to come and worship with us. Come and test the welcome of this friendly Church. For the coming Lord's Day the morning sermon topic will be: "Proper Desires." And for the evening service, "The Way to God." Come to these services, you are invited.

METHODIST CHURCH. JOSEPH POPE, Pastor. Sunday School, 9:45 a. m. Public Worship 11:00 a. m. Anthem, "Bless the Lord, O My Soul," Thomas. Evening services: Epworth League 6:30. ANDERSON CLEARED OF LARCENY CHARGE

when the treasurer asked Anderson what the money was for, Anderson said he didn't know, that it was just some money he had on hand. Further, the prosecutor said, the state had shown that Anderson had no receipt slips in his office for monies turned over to the treasurer so that the auditor had nothing in the clerk's office with which to check his findings in the treasurer's office.

What, the prosecutor reasoned, could have been Anderson's purpose in not keeping proper records of the transactions in his office, except he had something to conceal? What, he asked, could have been the purpose of the unexplained $900 turnover, except that Anderson became "scared" and was trying to make good?

Nys pleaded that Anderson was not a man to doubt others, and that he had followed a custom of years in handling the business of his office. The county treasurer is known to be a man of integrity, Nys said, and the clerk did not take occasion at all times to wait for a receipt when he turned monies over to the treasurer. The standing of Anderson in the community, evidenced by its having elevated him to the office of mayor, and as testified by leading citizens of the community made such a charge as had been preferred against him ridiculous, the defense counsel plead.

Lomorgan admitted that the defendant had been lax in caring for the duties of his office, but plead that any incrimination involved laid just as heavily upon members of the county court and other officials as upon the defendant. He brought out that yearly audits of the books of all the officials had been made, and that these had been accepted and passed by grand juries many times throughout the period in which the defendant was accused of misappropriating monies. He attacked the state's case on many points of technicality, and asserted that the state had failed to prove that the defendant had misappropriated any public monies as in the indictment charged.

The jury hearing the case was made up of Mrs. G. A. Bleakman, Heppner; J. J. McDonald, Hardman; Moses Duran, Lexington; George White, Lexington; Victor Rietmann, Ione; Monte Bundy, Lexington; Ray McAllister, Lexington; Harlan McCurdy, Ione; E. E. Gilliam, Heppner; Lee Howell, Ione; Mrs. R. L. Benge, Heppner; Bert Palmateer, Morgan.

BOARDMAN

By RACHEL J. BARLOW

Charles Goodwin of Sublimity was a guest several days last week at the home of Mrs. Eva Warner. Mrs. Goodwin is in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland where she expects to undergo a goitre operation this week.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to summon to her Eternal Home our beloved Sister Henrietta G. Cohn, who was a faithful member of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star, and Whereas, there is a vacancy in our Chapter and in the homes of her loved ones, that will never more be filled;

Be it resolved, that Ruth Chapter extends its sympathy to her family and relatives in their hour of bereavement, and records its sorrow in the loss of a sister who in years past served Ruth Chapter efficiently in an official capacity.

And be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family, and copies be given the local newspaper for publication, and spread upon the minutes of our Chapter.

JOAN BLONDELL "you simply must drive a Ford V-8 if you want to be smart in Hollywood today."

ANN SOTHERN Columbia Star, says: "I've owned many expensive cars but never one that handles more smoothly than my Ford V-8."

HOLLYWOOD has gone "V-8." In America's colorful moving picture capital the Ford V-8 is easily the most popular car.

Here is one more indication of Ford leadership in style as well as performance. For it takes both to "get by" in Hollywood these days!

Look over a new Ford V-8. Examine its fittings—they're rustless metal. Notice the rich upholstery. See the many extra conveniences—from a special compartment for your purse to sun-visors to protect your eyes.

Then drive this car yourself. Once you experience "V-8 performance" combined with Ford ease of handling, you'll realize why every woman loves to go places in the Ford V-8.

Remember, too—you save on the low Ford V-8 price. Ford parts cost little. And the new Ford V-8 is more economical to operate than any Ford car ever built.
