A step in the right direction is contemplated for next year when it is expected to hold a 4-H club fair in connection with the Rodeo here. It may also be possible to revive the wool and grain show the coming year. And, maybe, within a very few years with the increased state aid now given county fairs it may be possible to have once again a real county fair.

In this suggestion there is realed.

a real county fair.

In this suggestion there is no idea of replacing the Rodeo or the North Morrow County fair. The Rodeo could be retained in connection with the county fair, and such a fair should but give impetus to the north end fair for it would give people of that section additional opportunity to show their products.

And so may we be grateful for the gracious hospitality of Grant county, and for the kind invitation which caused so many of our people to take in Heppner day at John Day on Saturday. A better understanding, and a kindlier feeling cannot help but exist as a result. There is much we may learn from each other, and much that may be

Frank Fraters reports 8 inches of snow at his farm on Eight Mile as a result of Sunday's storm. A goodly supply of moisture is the result, as the snow was very wet and has slowly melted into the ground, thus insuring good conditions for seeding as well as bringing along the grain already sown. The entire Eight Mile section received about this same amount of snow fall, according to Mr. Fraters, who was looking after some business matters
