Irish Defeat Athena

Heppner's Fighting Irish defeated Athena 7-0 on the local field last Friday in the fourth game of the year. The game went scoreless in-to the third quarter when Munkers, Irish safety, received an Athena punt on his own 35-yard line and returned the punt 65 yards down the sidelines for a touchdown and victory. Munkers also converted making the score 7-0 which re-mained throughout the game.

Len Gilman stood out in the defense, and although Bill Schwarz lost the ball three times on fumbles, he made up for that by inter-cepting a pass, that if completed ested met in the assembly and lis-
