STOP at our store and we'll take you on an exploration trip over, under, and through the McCormick-Deering Tractor. When we are finished you will know why so many farmers have turned to the Tractor for efficient, low-cost, crawler power.

If you have operated crawlers you know that easy accessibility and protection against wear are extremely essential.

Tractor designers have stepped out years ahead of the field in these two major matters—they have succeeded in keeping dust and other abrasives out and lubricants in. They have produced a line of crawler tractors which can be serviced on short notice without wasting time or tying up equipment needlessly.
