

LEXINGTON

About forty members were present at the meeting of Lexington grange Saturday night. The following committees were appointed to serve during the year: legislative committee, Harvey Miller, Lawrence Beach and Sam Turner; agricultural committee, Bert Palmateer and Al Troedson; relief committee, Alda Troedson, Elsie Beach, Joe Devine and Pearl Devine; finance committee, A. H. Nelson, H. V. Smouse and Myrtle Schriever; hall committee, H. V. Smouse, R. B. Rice, E. A. Kelly and Bertha Nelson; publicity committee, Beulah Nichols. George Peck was reappointed as insurance agent.

At this time it is well for all new officers and committees as well as all members to remember the goal of the grange which is thus defined: To secure for the American farmer the cost of producing a reasonable profit, so that restored farm purchasing power may aid in promoting national recovery.

Lexington grange is one hundred percent back of the legislative program of the Oregon State grange, which is as follows: Taxation, (a) Oppose general sales tax; (b) Oppose secrecy clause in income taxes; (c) Improve and raise income, gift and inheritance taxes; (d) Remove property offset from excise tax law; (e) Tax household personal property in excess of $1000 exemption.

Power, (a) Memorialize President and Congress for government to build main transmission lines from Bonneville and that publicly owned plants be given preference in purchase of Bonneville power; (b) Favor a new state power act eliminating certain objections in the last power bill. Agriculture, To promote legislation strengthening cooperative marketing and additional protection for agriculture. Banks, (a) Favor state-owned banks; (b) Oppose branch banking. Education, (a) Support Grange County Equalization bill, a substitute for the County Unit system; (b) Memorialize Congress for Federal aid for public schools; (c) Change method of electing school boards in County Unit and non-high school districts, providing election within the zone; (d) Elect school officials on non-partisan ballot; (e) Elect school boards in second and third class districts in March. Initiative and Referendum, (a) Eliminate the handicaps to petitioners in present law; (b) Permit initiative and referendum for any election. Transportation, (a) Amend bus and truck legislation to protect small truck owners and farmers; (b) Memorialize Congress opposing the placing of water and motor transportation under Interstate Commerce commission; (c) Memorialize Congress opposing freight rate increases. One House Legislature, (a) Refer constitutional amendment providing for one house with 30 members elected each two years from single districts; (b) Refer constitutional amendment for Lieutenant Governor. Old Age Insurance or pension favored on a reasonable basis. Deficiency judgments, Favor law cancelling debt with proceeds from foreclosure. Liquor Traffic, (a) Stronger control of drunken drivers; (b) Further restrictions on sale of wine, beer and hard liquors; (c) Extend local option to precincts. This was briefly reviewed by the legislative chairman who also introduced some of the highlights in as follows: Lifting farm prices by the program of the National grange balancing production to consumptive demands and by developing cooperative marketing to the fullest practical extent; lightening tax burdens by the imposition of net income, gift, inheritance and corporation taxes and by demanding efficiency, economy and honest administration in all departments of government, etc.; financing the farmer by making available to the Farm Credit administration an additional appropriation of $300,000,000 for Commissioner loans; further reduction of interest rates, etc.; protecting the people's savings by continuing government guarantees of all bank deposits under $5,000; also favors monetary stabilization and price parity, a constructive land policy and a sane relief program.

A. W. Lundell of Willows grange discussed the possibilities for irrigation projects along Willow creek and Rhea creek, stating that there seem to be several feasible sites for dams along these creeks. Horace Addis of Pendleton gave an interesting talk on grange work and stressed the point that the grange is a social, educational and cooperative organization. The grange favors constructive legislation, but is non-partisan. It seeks the welfare of not only the farmer but of all mankind.

Lexington grange won fifth prize in the state-wide advertising contest in December. Two new members were taken into the grange. Three visitors were present, two from Willows grange and one from Tillamook grange.

From the Minneapolis Journal we learn that Miss Wilma Elizabeth Leach, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Leach of this city, and Warren Togo Ericson, son of Mrs. Lily A. Ericson of Brainerd, Minn., were married Saturday, December 29, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Miss Sylvia Ericson, a sister of the groom, and the bridegroom's brother, George E. Ericson, were their attendants. Judge L. B. Kinled officiated.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college. She did post-graduate work at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, and was graduated Magna Cum Laude. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board, Delta Psi Kappa and of Alpha Chi Omega sororities. She is an instructor at Nokomis junior high school, Minneapolis.

Mr. Ericson is a graduate of the University of Minnesota in geology, college of engineering of mines. He is a member of Sigma Rho mining fraternity and is associated with the Brainerd Tribune.

Some travelling people put on a show at the old movie hall Thursday evening. Orville Cutsforth was a business visitor in Pendleton Monday.

The Lexington Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Gentry on Thursday afternoon with ten members and six visitors present. Some of the new tablecloths for the grange were made as well as some cases for the grange silverware. The committee who are to serve at the grange meetings during the year were appointed. The committee for the February meeting is Tena Scott; chairman, Virginia Turner, Lena Cox, Martha Dick, Frances Blakely and R. B. Rice. Kenneth Peck and Fred Ashin-hurst are making posters for the carnival and dance which is to be given in the high school gymnasium on Saturday evening, January 26.

Don Pointer, who has been visiting with his mother in Salem for the past month, returned to Lexington the last of the week. He was accompanied by his brother Fred who visited with relatives here for a few days before returning to Salem.

A decided change in temperature was noted here the first of the week. Sunday morning the largest snow of the season fell, covering the ground to probably about two inches. For a time it seemed as if we were going to be a real snow storm, but it soon ceased. At any rate it was a nice snow but we need some more on the wheat lands hereabouts.

Mrs. Trina Parker had new shingles put on the roof of her house last week. Orve Brown of Heppner did the work. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall are now driving a 1931 Chevrolet coupe which they purchased last week.

Mrs. C. P. Brown and son Vernon visited with Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Roy Johnson, one day last week. The date for the carnival and dance has been set for Saturday evening, January 26. This will be held in the high school gymnasium and music will be furnished by Becket's orchestra.

Much interest is being shown in the adult classes which are being conducted by Mrs. Lorena Miller. The following is the program for next week: Monday, January 21, 7:30 p. m., "Why is Leisure a Problem?" and arithmetic review; Thursday, January 24, 7:30 p. m., "Nationalism vs. Internationalism" and grammar review; Friday, January 25, 2:30 p. m., "How much should we expect of children?" and instruction in darning.

"A Wood Violet" is the play which will be given by the grange in the near future. It is being directed by Mrs. Edith Miller. A special student body meeting was held last Friday for the purpose of electing a new yell leader to take the place of Doris Burchell. Delpha Merritt was elected. Mr. Beach discussed basketball and Vivian White was chosen captain for the game Friday night.

Doris Burchell entered the Heppner school at the beginning of the second semester. Rose Thornburg, Virgil Smith and Edith Edwards were absent from school this week.

Several of the high school students attended the dance at Saling's Saturday night. The high school boys were defeated 19-40 in the game at Condon Friday evening.

Doris Klinger was absent from school Thursday. Jack McMillan has enrolled as a senior to finish the second semester. This makes ten members in this class. The seniors are wearing their new class pins and rings.

Don't forget the carnival and dance to be given Saturday night, January 26, in the high school gym, with music by Becket's orchestra. Holly Rebekah lodge met on Tuesday evening, January 15, with the new officers in charge. There was a good attendance and all believe this will be a successful year. At a recent meeting this lodge installed their new officers. Mrs. Trina Parker is the new Noble Grand. On Tuesday evening of last week Rebekahs and Odd Fellows held a joint social meeting in the hall. There was a large crowd present. Refreshments were served and games and a general social good time was enjoyed by all.

MEETING DATE CHANGED. Regular communication of Heppner Lodge No. 69, A. F. & A. M., will be held next Saturday evening, January 19, at Masonic hall. Commencing with the first of February, meetings of Heppner lodge will be held the first and third Tuesdays of each month instead of the first and third Saturdays as in the past.

CALL FOR WARRANTS. School Dist. No. 1, Heppner, Oregon, will pay all outstanding warrants up to and including warrant No. 3024 on presentation to the district clerk. Interest ceases with this notice.

C. W. BARLOW, District Clerk. Jess Adrian of Ontario was the only Malheur county woolgrower to attend the convention here the first of the week, and he apologized for the rest of the boys, who he said were busy preparing for the February lambing season. Malheur leads the state in wool production, with Lake and Morrow close in second and third places.

Bert Johnson, lone attorney and wheat raiser, came to Heppner Monday morning. He passed the scene of the Stevin-Greishaber auto accident just a few minutes after it happened, though the injured persons had already been assisted to the hospital.

For sale or trade—12- or 15-ft. Wade steel packer. Will trade for what I can use. Also 1 1/2-h. p. International engine. Ralph Butler, Willows, Ore. 44-5

Bourbon Red turkey toms, out of blue ribbon strain; $5 at ranch. Daisy Butler, Willows, Ore. 4-5

It may have been the custom in medieval times, when a visiting gladiator came to engage your team in some kind of athletic skill, for your rooting section to go out and boo and hiss at the other team. The rooting section that did the most hissing and booing was judged to have the best rooters. But in these days of humanism and hospitality it has been our belief that these kinds of rooting sections had changed for the better, and substituted organized yells instead of boos and hisses. But we see that the old custom is being revived over the country. It is coming closer to the athletic fields and floors of Heppner High.

Now you people who have gone with your team to other towns to play some kind of game, I want to ask you a question. Would you rather be met with hisses and boos or an organized yell of welcome? You needn't answer it; we know what you will say.

Fighting Irish Victors. The Fighting Irish again surged to victory when they beat the Arlington Workers with a score of 21-19. The game was played on the Arlington floor last Friday evening. It was without a doubt the fastest and most exciting game played during the season. Both teams were determined to win and up until the last minute the victory still hung in the balance. At the half the score was 7-7 in favor of Heppner. Throughout the last half the score jagged up and down, sometimes Arlington being in the lead and sometimes Heppner.

With only two minutes to play the score was 21-19 in favor of Heppner. Whether they would keep this lead or not was the thought uppermost in the crowd's mind. The Fighting Irish passed the ball between them trying to keep it from getting in Arlington's clutches until the last whistle would blow. The two minutes finally passed with Heppner still retaining their small lead, which meant victory for them.

The starting line-up for Heppner was H. Furlong, J. Green, L. Van Marter, L. Gilman and J. Driscoll, F. Jones, substituted.

Basketball Game to be Held. Big home town game. January 18. Echo and Heppner will play Echo's return game at the gym on Friday night. This promises to be an excellent game as Heppner beat Echo before with a small score. The Heppner High pep band will appear at this game for the first time this year.

Assembly Held Monday. The boys' quartet sang two songs for the opening number of the assembly held Monday afternoon. Following this an interesting talk was given by Rev. Dean Hinkle of the Episcopal church of Pendleton.

In the middle of January the first semester closes. At this time every student in the school gives a sigh of relief because all the work of the first semester is finished and those dreadful semester exams are over. The hope of every student is that he might be exempted from the exams but always some student has his grades too low or too many demerits against his name. Nearly every student has at some time or other become a victim of demerits.

Heard About School. Paul Phelan saying, "I'm going to haunt you!" Mr. Bloom saying, "People. I must use drastic measures!" Ilene Kilkenny laugh. Lola Coxen expressing her desire to serve at the Woolgrowers' banquet. (I wonder if any of the wool growers from Rhea creek will be there.) Mr. Evans: "What kind of work did Mark Twain write?" Millie McRoberts: "Funny humor."

School Gives Numbers. At the state Wool Growers' convention being held Monday and Tuesday, January 14 and 15, in the school gymnasium, several of the school organizations entertained with numbers. The Heppner school band played both Monday and Tuesday morning. The pieces played were: "Peerless March," Huff, "Whispering Leaves," Weidt; "The Washington Post," Sousa. "Excelsior," Robison and "Stars and Stripes Forever," Sousa. Monday afternoon the boys' quartet, consisting of Donald Drake, Bill Coehell, Bill Schwarz and Matt Kenny, sang two numbers, "Stars of the Summer's Night" and "Home on the Range." Tuesday afternoon the girls' glee club also sang two numbers, "Play to Me, Gypsy" and "Margie in an Apron Blue." Harriet Hager has returned to school after having been absent for nearly six weeks. Grade News. The first grade pupils are studying about the Eskimos. They are going to write original Eskimo poems. They also have a weather chart calendar of the months. The new librarian of the first grade is Patricia Kenny. The second grade pupils are also studying an Eskimo unit of work. Under the projects they study the people, homes, food, tools and weapons, clothing, transportation, sport and animals. The junior high is having state examinations Friday.
