Published by the Journalism Class of HEPPNER HIGH SCHOOL.

Editor William McRoberts. Assistant Joseph Stephens. Feature Margaret Scott. Humor Howard Bryant and Irene Beamer. Sports, Bernard McMurdo and Ray Coblantz. Reporters, Belva Bundy, Doris Burcheil, Ruth Cowins, Gladys Reaney.

Editorial. As we traverse the pathways of life we should stop a while and think. Why are we carrying on such courses as we are? What is our object? What will be the result? Everyone knows that nothing is done without a reason. Then why are we coming to school? We are coming to school to introduce and prepare ourselves to the trials and understandings of the future. What will be our course in life after our graduation from high school?

Imagine two basketball teams beginning a game and having no baskets. Such is our condition at the present time if we have no aim in life. Most of us will want to have a definite goal to achieve in our life. Does this mean a job from which we will get large sums of money? Successful men will tell you that the most important goal for anyone is a life work from which he can get joy and satisfaction and carry on effectively.

Nearly everyone finds that it is hard to choose a life work and thinks he needs help. Consult your teacher, your scoutmaster, and others who are in a position to know. In choosing a life work one must consider the things he does most easily and successfully—whether he could make mechanical things better than teaching foreign language. See how nearly your abilities compare to those needed in certain professions, and after you have chosen your goal remember it is not so much what you get out of it but what you put into it that brings you greatest satisfaction.

Humor. Dedicated to Heppner Frosh: A freshman went to Hades once. Something he wished to learn. They sent him back to earth again—He was too green to burn.

Ernest C.—"I had a date with a mind reader once." Irene Kenny—"How did she enjoy her vacation?"

Spud—"Dick nearly drowned last night." Jimmy F.—"No—how come?" Spud—"The pillow slipped, the bed spread and he fell into the spring."

Mr. Evans—"Name a collective noun." James Shoun—"An ashcan."

Feature Story. A grade school teacher was talking to one of the pupils when a high school girl came up the steps and started talking to her. The conversation went something like this: "Oh, Miss —, what a beautiful new diamond ring you have," exclaimed the girl. "Do you like it?" "I certainly do. It is the prettiest ring I've ever seen."

"I think it is nice, too." "I'll dance at your wedding," joked the girl. "All right, but you'll have to wait."

10 Years Ago. THIS WEEK. Mrs. K. S. Rogers of Condon this week took over management of Heppner.

quite a while to do your dancing," replied the teacher, smilingly. "I'm sure I'd be so graceful," laughed the girl, walking away. Her tone indicated that she thought herself to be clumsy.

Both the girl and teacher smiled cheerfully, as is the pleasant way of high school girls and grade school teachers who like each other.

Sports. Clean, fast and smooth playing characterized the game last Friday night between Pendleton and Heppner. At the end of the first quarter, Heppner was one point in the lead, the score being 2-1. The half ended with Pendleton 10 and Heppner 8, Pendleton playing hard to keep in the lead but quite unsuccessful at the end of the third quarter with Heppner in the lead by a score of 14 to 12.

In the fourth quarter Heppner stepped to five points in the lead but in the last few minutes of play, Pendleton ran their score up to 20, winning the game by three points, 20-17. Line-ups as follows: Heppner: Gilman LG, Claterboas Furlong RG, Regan Van Marter C, Essary Driscoll LF, Erwin Green RF, McClure. Matt Kenny and Don Drake selected a team from the high school boys who played before the Heppner-Pendleton game. Kenny's team won by a score of 8-6.

Class News. The students of Heppner high school, especially the juniors, have several important events to look forward to in the remaining part of the school year. The things which interest the juniors most are the Junior-Senior banquet and Junior Flunk day. Many of the junior girls are already working on plans for the banquet.

Other events of interest to the whole school are Senior Dress-Up day, the class picnics, the student body picnic, and the election of student body officers for next year.

Girls' League. The girls of the four classes of Heppner Hi met on Wednesday in their respective rooms to elect two girls from each class as representatives to the Girls' League council. The girls elected were as follows: Freshmen, Kathleen Furlong and Arlene Morton; Sophomores, Kathryn Parker and Marjorie Parker; Juniors, Marie Barlow and Betty Doherty; Seniors, Lorena Wilson and Juanita Morgan.

The Girls' League council met last Friday with President Francis Rugg, Vice-President Ethyl Hughes and Sec.-Treas. Louise Anderson also present. They discussed business and appointed standing committees for the coming year.

Band Contest. Twenty-five members of the regular band will compete in a district contest the date and place of which has not yet been announced. If they win this district tournament they will compete in the state tournament.

Grade News. The first and second grades are planning their valentine parties. The first grade has already drawn names and selected their valentine committee, which is as follows: Jackie Aiken, chairman; Gene Straight and Murel Coxen as helpers. At the last business meeting of the first grade they elected Eldon Tucker as librarian and Billy Ulrich as chairman of Room Beautiful committee.
