Good Work, Boys.

COACH WINTER and his squad of high school basketball players deserve the warmest commen dation for their fine showing in the sub-district tournament at Arlington last week end. They were no only strong runners-up for first place playing honors, but they rated high in sportsmanship—which after all, is the primary considera-

Hardly more glory could have been had in winning the champion-ship, than in the selection of Joe Green, team captain, as one of the two players who were outstanding in sportsmanship. This honor was shared by Tommy Hoover of Fossil, whose team also shone for clean, fast play.

It goes without saying that there could be but one winner among the eight teams competing. The other seven had to lose. Heppner had the bitterest pill to take, because it won four times to emerge as one of the last two contestants for the title, and the only undefeated team up to the final preliminary game.

were pitted against them again in what might have been the final game Saturday night had Heppner But Heppner lost, thereby going into a tie with Arlington and necessitating a play-off game Mon-day night. The boys again gave their all, but the gruelling play of the few preceding days had slackened their speed-and they lost

The boys lost gamely and in a sportsmanlike manner. But the tournament revealed several inconsistencies which should be corrected another year.

The double-elimination system used does not provide a test of the better team, but rather it is an endurance contest, and a measure of reserve strength. By first defeating each of the other leading contestants in the tournament, Heppner showd superior team play. do this, however, six boys were taxed to the utmost, as well-trained reserves were lacking. Arlington, on the other hand, had eight boys almost equally good, and was able to coast through its easier games. They also had advantages of living at home throughout the tournament and playing on their own floor.

It is not to alibi Heppner's defeat that these points are brought out. It is but to emphasize the good showing which the home boys made under the circumstances, and to bring about a correction another year, if possible, of a system that draws too strongly upon the endurance of a team lacking in reserve strength.

A double elimination in the subdistricts hardly seems necessary when single elimination is all that is required in the district and state tournaments. The same test of all teams should be applied all along the line.

The Weed Menace.

The noxious weed committee of the Eastern Oregon Wheat league has just released a report of a recent meeting in which is set out many important effects of such weeds upon the farming community. The report should be read and digested by everyone.

Weeds are parasites upon the economic well-being of any agricultural section. They usurp space, moisture and sustenance that should be utilized by worth-while crops. It is not to alibi Heppner's defeat that these points are brought out.

be utilized by worth-while crops.
Their toll in the state of Oregon amounts to several million dollars annually, the report states.

ORDER

In the Matter of the Reduction of Assessed Valuation and Tax:
This matter came up for hearing on petition of J. O. Turner and F. W. Turner, for correction of error of the assessed valuation for the year of 1930 on the following described real property, to-wit:
All of lot numbered seven (7) and the South fourteen (14) feet of lot numbered ix (5) in block numbered one (1) of Henry Johnson's Addition to the City of Heppners, Morrow County, Oregon, and it appearing to the court that during the years 1929, 1930 and 1931, the above described was assessed and the taxes levied as follows:

lows:

Year Assd. Val. Tax
1929 $2870 $111.89
1930 $4370 $216.31
1931 $2870 103.00

That during all of the above three years, the above described property consisted, in addition to the lot, two partially constructed houses. No further improvement was made during this period and no change was made in the real valuation of the property: therefore, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the assessed valuation on the above described property for the year 1930, be reduced to the level of the years 1929 and 1931, and the Sheriff of this County is hereby ordered and directed to accept in full payment of taxes for the year 1930 on the above described property, the assessed valuation of $2870.00 multiplied by the millage base for that year (1930) at the rate of 49.5 mills or the sum of $142.00 plus penalty and interest and that a copy of

Their toll in the state of Oregon amounts to several million dollars annually, the report states.

The problem demands widespread and united action, because only through united action can any weed control program be successful. One farmer cannot combat the problem alone. He may battle weeds until he is red in the face, but if his neighbor does nothing about it, seeds from his weeds will restock the fields of the industrious farmer, whose labor is thus nullified to a great extent.

The wheat league is to be commended in its efforts to bring to light the true status of noxious weeds, and it is hoped that their efforts will be rewarded by the development of a workable program which may result in eradicating to the state of the clever homemakers who has modernized her laundry equipment as well as her kitchen? When you have an up-to-date electric washer and electric ironer, you are freed from the back-breaking labor usually connected with washing and ironing. They enable you to cut your laundry time in half. And your clothes wear longer because friction is reduced to a minimum.

> Here's an excellent washer for a low price!

The new Thor Super-Agitator Washer has one of the fastest washing actions ever designed. It washes seven pounds of clothing spotlessly clean in only five to seven minutes. Yet its action is so gentle that it makes clothes last 40 to 50% longer.

The mechanism, motor and legs of this sturdy washer are anchored to one heavy cast iron unit, which reduces the possibility of misalignment, noise or vibration. The tub is finished in apple-green, goldflecked vitreous enamel, inside and out. The cover is polished aluminum. See this washer, and ask about the easy terms!

Make ironing effortless with a THOR Automatic Ironer!

If you want to see how easy ironing can be, see a Thor Automatic Ironer at our local office. This ironer allows you to sit down and relax as you feed your pieces through. The strain of lifting, bending and pushing is eliminated. Another convenience is the knee control which leaves both your hands free.

This Thor Automatic Ironer does your ironing twice as fast as you can with a hand iron. It finishes up your work more attractively because of the even distribution of heat and pressure and the smoothness of the shoes. You can iron everything from sheets to shirts-even press trousers and pleats. Ask about our convenient monthly payment plan.
